

The First Heir Chapter 3156 - 3160 -

Chapter 3156

Philip tossed Penn heavily on the ground in a back slam. Penn felt like his whole body was about to break.

However, he kept cursing, "Damn it! How dare you touch me? I'm afraid you don't know who I am!"

Philip glanced at the guns aimed at him and suddenly twisted Penn's arm and grabbed his neck.

"Let go of him and we might spare your life!" Those people shouted coldly.

However, Philip glanced at them and said, "Spare my life? If I let go, I'm afraid you'll shoot without hesitation!"

After getting involved in a dispute for no reason in an unfamiliar world and environment, Philip would not easily trust anyone. His background and identity were special, so he could not allow anything to happen to him. Besides, underground cities like this appeared often in sci-fi movies and TV dramas of his original world. The people here should be quite dangerous.

"If you put your guns away now, I might spare his life," Philip looked at those people and said lightly.

Facing such people, Philip knew very well that he needed an opportunity if he wanted to integrate into this society.

Now, he could only appear more ruthless than them. He could only survive here for the time being by subduing them and slowly learning about the land of the other shore.

"Do you disagree?" Philip looked at everyone with a smile and asked.

Clack!

"Argh!"

Philip suddenly exerted force in his hand and broke Penn's arm. Penn screamed in pain.

Of course, Philip could tell that Penn's identity was a little special. Otherwise, these people would not have jumped to his aid. He was taking a gamble, betting that Penn's identity would deter these people.

Sure enough, seeing Philip's action, their expressions changed.

At this time, alarms blared in the underground city.

"Those people from above are here again. Let's go!"

Everyone's faces changed, and that tension could not be faked.

At this moment, Emily suddenly grabbed Philip's hand.

"Follow me. It'll be too late if we don't leave now!" Emily whispered to Philip.

Throwing the unconscious Penn on the ground, Philip followed Emily and fled.

Everyone was attracted by the alarm, and no one noticed that Emily left with Philip.

"Huff! We're finally out!"

Emily patted her chest lightly and led Philip into a low, narrow little house. Not only was it dark and dilapidated but it also smelled musty.

Emily invited Philip to sit on a chair and poured him a glass of water.

She said, "I was so scared just now. Do you know that Penn is a famous mecha master in the underground city?"

'Mecha master?' Philip glanced at Emily.

It seemed that a mecha master was well-respected in this new world.

"But it doesn't matter. You've already arrived at my house anyway. Mecha masters like Penn would never set foot in the lowest level of the underground city!" Emily said and sat down across from Philip.

At this moment, the sound of a coughing elderly was heard. Philip saw an old man with a walking stick coming out from the back room.

"Emily, is there a visitor?"

The old man came out while coughing.

Seeing the old man coming out, Emily walked over quickly and immediately grabbed the old man's arm.

"Grandpa, he's the most powerful person I've ever seen. He actually defeated the patrol team's mecha with his bare hands!"

The old man looked surprised when he heard Emily's remark.

It was almost impossible to defeat a mecha with one's bare hands in this world unless one's level had reached three stars and above.

Chapter 3157

"Is your level higher than three stars?" the old man asked suddenly.

Seeing Philip looking at the old man blankly, Emily wondered, "Don't you know about star talent? Where did you come from? Those old abandoned places?"

Philip did not comment, and Emily thought she guessed it right.

She muttered, "So, you came from the wilderness. No wonder you look so dumb."

Then, Emily held her arms akimbo and explained like a teacher, "We have a division of strength here, and the higher the level, the more advanced the mecha that can be controlled!"

Then, Emily explained to Philip about the division of strength in this world.

This world was not called the land of the other shore but the Starfall Continent. Philip finally found out that in this new world, strength was divided into one to nine stars, holy tier, and god tier. Although Philip did not know what his half-step to the other shore was equivalent to in this world, it must be higher than three stars.

After thinking about it, Philip decided to stay here for the time being. Maybe he could learn more about this world from the little girl.

"By the way, what's your name?"

Emily helped the old man to his seat before she turned to Philip and asked.

Philip smiled blandly and said, "My name is Philip Clarke..."

Emily held her hand out graciously and said, "My name is Emily Finn. Nice to meet you."

While the three were chatting, the door of this tattered house was suddenly kicked open from the outside.

"Emily, it's time to pay the rent you owe us! If you don't have any money this time, you'll have to work as a maid at my bar!"

Suddenly, three burly men broke in. They were about two meters tall and looked very strong at one glance.

Emily turned pale with fright upon seeing them.

“I gave you the rent long ago. Why are you still asking for money?”

Although Emily was afraid, she still plucked up the courage and said to those people.

The leading guy sneered and said, “What? Don’t you need to pay interest on the rent you owed us before? Take her away!”

The leading guy shouted, and the other two grabbed Emily.

The old man tried to get up to help, but he was too old to help at all.

“Wait a minute!” Philip stood up. As he did not speak or move just now, these people did not notice him at all.

This was the strength of someone who was a halfstep to the other shore. He could blend in with the environment at any time.

Seeing Philip stand up, those people sneered and said, “So, there’s a little boy toy hiding here too!”

With that said, the leading burly man made a grab for Philip.

In this new world, having a bit of strength was normal, but few people could rise to a certain level.

Philip simply glanced at the burly men lightly. To a normal person, they could be considered strong and scary. However, to Philip, they could not even take a hit.

Philip’s eyes flashed coldly!

He grabbed a burly man’s hand.

Seeing this, the man sneered. He was just about to use his strength to grab Philip in front of him when he realized that it was not Philip who moved, but him.

Chapter 3158

At this moment, Philip actually grabbed one of the burly men’s arms and lifted him!

“Put me down. Let go!” The man struggled and yelled at Philip.

Hearing that, Philip simply sighed. Then, he threw the man heavily on the floor.

This time, the two people beside Emily also rushed toward Philip.

Philip sneered at them. They were just relying on their brute force to be domineering. In fact, their strength was only equivalent to the third zone of the ancestral land.

Philip only needed one hand to deal with them. He then moved and punched the two of them, sending them flying away. In next moment, he dragged the man from the floor and tossed him out.

He closed the door promptly.

However, to Philip's surprise, Emily kept repeating on the floor, "Oh no, this is bad! They'll definitely come after us again!"

Philip pulled Emily up and said, "Don't worry, I'm still around!"

Hearing that, Emily shook her head.

"It's no use, Philip. You should leave quickly. Their boss is a five-star mecha master... I know you can defeat the patrol team's mecha, but their boss, Leopard, is different. He has so many subordinates that we won't be able to put up a fight at all!"

Philip said lightly, "It doesn't matter. If they dare turn up, I'll find a way to deal with them."

After saying that, Philip walked to the floor that was smashed by the burly guy just now.

The fight just now was so fierce that the only good piece of appliance in Emily's house was destroyed by Philip.

Philip suddenly took Emily's hand and asked, "Are five-star mecha masters very powerful?"

Emily had just started to clean up the broken floor with Philip. Even prior to the fight just now, the floor was already decaying. Emily had not time to replace it.

"Of course, they're powerful. With the increase of every level, the mechas that can be controlled are more powerful, so five-star mecha masters are great existences in the lower three floors of the underground City."

While Emily spoke, she put the broken planks at the door, and all Philip had to do was throw them outside.

At this time, the old man looked at the two of them and said with a sigh, "Stop cleaning up. Those guys were injured just now. They won't let this go!"

Philip merely chuckled.

So what if those people would not let this go?

Chapter 3159

As Philip stacked the planks at the door, several people suddenly rushed over.

“Are you the one who beat up our buddies sent by Leopard?”

Philip noticed that these people wore similar outfits and knew they must belong to the same gang as the three burly guys.

He nodded and said, “Yes, that’s me!”

Those people sneered at Philip and said, “Come with us, then!”

After the man finished speaking, he grabbed Philip’s arm.

Philip wanted to fight them at first, but when he turned around, he saw Emily and the old man who just stepped out and suppressed the urge to do so.

“Kid, you’d better behave, or I can’t guarantee what we’ll do!”

Hearing that, Philip glanced at the man who spoke. “You don’t have to grab me. I can walk!”

Philip said calmly and started walking.

Emily had helped him before, so when he saw these people bullying Emily, Philip chose to help her. However, his action offended these people.

Philip followed them and soon saw a place similar to an underground boxing arena. However, this place was much bigger than the underground boxing arena in the original world.

On different rings, Philip saw people fighting in mechanical armor with loud banging sounds.

Next to the stand, a bald man was sitting there drinking.

Seeing the bald man, those people escorting Philip said, “Leopard, we brought him here!”

Leopard just waved his hand at them casually. “Are you the one who beat my boys up?”

Hearing that, Philip stepped forward and said, “Yes, I am!”

“You have guts, huh?”

Leopard took out a pack of cigarettes from his pocket and lit one.

“In that case, you can fight in the ring. As long as you survive, I’ll let you and Emily go.”

Philip looked at the mechas still fighting in the ring. He jumped lightly onto the ring.

“Do I have to operate a mecha too?”

Philip thought that they wanted him to control the mecha to fight, but to his surprise, Leopard laughed and said, “Someone like you wants to operate a mecha? I want you to fight with these mechas and see who’s better!”

With that said, Leopard waved his hand, and a light barrier slowly rose.

Soon, the ring was covered by the barrier.

Philip looked at the two mechas in front of him and said, “You want me to fight with these mechas, and as long as I survive, you won’t make things difficult for Emily anymore, right?”

Leopard stood outside and said while smoking a cigarette, “Yes, as long as you can survive!”

Philip chuckled and said, “Don’t go back on your words!”

Only Emily knew that Philip could deal with those patrolling mechas with his bare hands.

Leopard and his buddies knew that Philip had some skills, but not that he could deal with a mecha. They wanted him to fight the mechas and even turned on the protective barrier. They just wanted to see Philip being beaten to death by the mechas and make sure that he could not escape.

However, to their surprise, as soon as Philip entered the ring, he launched a fierce attack on the two mechas!

Even though they were being controlled by people, these huge mechas were not as quick as a human. For instance, in the blink of an eye, Philip had launched several attacks on these mechas!

Chapter 3160

At this moment, Leopard started a betting pool.

“I’ll open a handicap betting pool today. Let’s bet on how long this kid can survive!”

“One minute. I’ll bet 1,000 star dollars!”

"I bet 2,000 star dollars that he can only survive for 30 seconds!"

In an instant, everyone was attracted by Leopard's handicap betting pool.

Everyone placed a bet, and most of them were guessing how long Philip would survive.

In the arena, the two people controlling the mechas were already sweating profusely. That was because they realized that even with the mecha's protective shield, they could not compete with Philip.

Philip's movements were very agile, simply beyond their expectations. Although Philip did not know much about the mechas of this new world, he did have one experience fighting a patrol mecha.

He did not attack any other places but focused on the heads of these two mechas.

Philip moved and barely avoided the punch a mecha threw at him. Then, Philip jumped onto the mecha.

He rode on the mecha's shoulders. Then, he threw a heavy punch on the mecha's head. However, the mechas here were specially designed for combat and were much stronger than the mechas of the patrol brigade that were focused on defense.

But, no matter how good the defense, it could not withstand Philip's three punches.

That was after Philip had held himself back because he knew that if he revealed his true strength, he might attract the attention of some people on the land of the other shore.

What he had to do now was to grow in the dark. His purpose for coming here was first to understand the land of the other shore, then find the Multidew Herb and the medicine to save his grandfather. More importantly, he had to find news about his mother.

After dealing with this mecha, Philip charged toward the other mecha in the ring.

The man controlling the mecha immediately stepped back and raised his two mecha arms to protect its head. It was as if he was afraid that Philip would hit him in the head. However, Philip just licked his lips and smiled.

This guy seemed to think that Philip would only attack the mecha's head.

Philip left several afterimages in the ring and punched hard on the mecha's hatch. The mecha was not damaged this time, but the pilot inside was impacted by Philip's punch. Not to mention controlling the mecha but that person was twitching all over.

As the fight ended, the protective light barrier disappeared at this time.

In fact, everything was over in a flash. The protective light barrier seemed to have just risen before it disappeared again.

Leopard and his buddies were still placing their bets.

“Leopard, I think there’s something wrong with your handicaps!” Suddenly, a voice rang in the crowd.

Leopard yelled, “Who said that my handicaps are wrong? Step forward!”

Philip walked away from the crowd and approached Leopard.

“Why isn’t there a handicap for my win?”

Leopard was about to say something when he returned to his senses.

Clack!

He suddenly drew his gun from his waist.

“How did you get out?!”

Seeing Leopard’s reaction, everyone realized what was going on.

This kid had taken down two mechas! He was simply a freak!

Immediately, everyone turned their attention to the ring. One mecha was down, but the pilot was fine. The other one had a damaged hatch. However, the pilot was not out yet.