

First Marriage, then love: wife, never divorce –

Chapter 26: Chapter 26 How is my son-in-law

Xi Yuancheng walked out and extended his hand to welcome Dongfang Yu. Dongfang Yu immediately handed him the cheque for 10 million, but he just so happened to avoid shaking hands with Xi Yuancheng.

“My brother gave it to me. He said it was a return gift from sister-in-law.”

Dongfang Yu’s voice was very indifferent and emotionless.

Xi Yuancheng’s face blushed slightly, but then he warmly invited Dongfang Yu to sit down quickly while loudly ordering his wife, Du Xinyue, to quickly make tea.

Then, he sat down and chatted with Dongfang Yu, praising how good mu ru was. She was gentle, obedient, sensible, and smart. She even got the top scorer in the college entrance exam this time.

Mu Ru couldn’t stand it anymore. She went to the kitchen alone and helped mother Wang with her work. When mother Wang saw her, she was very affectionate. She held her hand and kept asking Mu Ru,

“Is my son-in-law good to you?”

Of course not. Dongfang Mo was like a devil, how could he be good to her. He even insulted her in that way last night.

However, she definitely couldn’t say these words to mother Wang who cared about her, so she smiled and said,

“MMM, he’s very good. Even though that face is a little scary, once you get used to it, it’ll be fine.”

Mother Wang nodded in relief. She originally wanted to ask Mu ru if he was good in that aspect, but when she thought about how it had already spread outside, she was afraid that her question would make Mu ru feel uncomfortable, so she tactfully didn't mention it.

During the lunch that Mu ru and Dongfang Yu had at the Xi family's house, for the first time, the Xi family treated her as an important guest and sat at the lower seat. Xi Muxue was the first to sit beside Dongfang Yu, constantly putting food into Dongfang Yu's bowl to please him.

Mu Ru lowered her head and ate quietly. She was originally incompatible with this family, so she buried herself in her work while eating. Soon, she finished eating and went back to the kitchen.

Actually, she had grown up in the kitchen, so she knew everything about the kitchen. Her favorite thing was cooking, especially the lion head that she made. Mother Wang said that she was better than her at it.

She also made the lion head this afternoon to entertain Dongfang Yu, but she still wanted to make a few for Dongfang Mo to bring back.

With his appearance, he could not usually go out for dinner, so other than Mama Liu's food, he definitely had not eaten other people's food for a long time. She wanted to bring some of her own food back to give him a taste.

The Xi family originally wanted to stay for dinner at Mu Ru's place, but Dongfang Yu said that he had something to do in the afternoon, so he did not have that much time to come pick mu ru up, so he said that he was going back an hour after dinner.

Dongfang Yu wanted to go back, so mu ru naturally had to go back too. Xi Yuancheng gave her a red packet for the first time, saying that there was 500,000 yuan in it for her wedding gift, so she could go buy some jewelry herself.

Du Xinyue took off the bracelet that she had worn on her wrist for more than 20 years and forced mu ru to wear it. Then, she sobbed softly

"Mu Ru, mother... I'm sorry. "

Xi muxue pulled Mu ru to the side. She glanced at Dongfang Yu who was not far away and asked softly, "Mu Ru, do you have a girlfriend? "

"Mu Ru, does Dongfang Yu have a girlfriend? When did he come back to the country? What position does Dongfang Corporation hold now? "

Mu Ru could only shake her head helplessly.

She didn't know, she really didn't know. Today was the third day she married into the Dongfang family, but in these three days, she had no chance to get to know Dongfang Yu.

Chapter 27: Chapter 27 my brother is lucky to marry you

However, Xi Muxue understood Dongfang Yu's motive.

Dongfang Yu was so handsome and was the second young master of the Dongfang Corporation. He had a rich family fortune. Xi Muxue must have taken a liking to Dongfang Yu, and Xi Yuancheng probably had a good impression of Dongfang Yu as well.

Furthermore, Dongfang Yu seemed to be very interested in Xi Muxue. When they got into the car, Xi Muxue enthusiastically came over to send him off. He had a happy expression on his face and kept praising Mu Xue for her beauty and intelligence. At the same time, he even left her his phone number, saying that since they were relatives.. They could contact each other more in the future.

Mu Ru carried a thermal lunch box in her arms and sat in the passenger seat. Dongfang Yu frowned as he drove and glanced at her as he teased,

“sister-in-law, you can't get used to our family's food? Do you have to bring some back this time? ”

“I brought it for Mo. ”

Mu Ru explained plainly,

“This is the lion's head that I personally made. I'll bring it back to give him a taste. He must have not eaten food outside of the Dongfang family for a long time. ”

Dongfang Yu was slightly stunned when he heard this, then he smiled and said,

“You really care about my brother. It seems that my brother marrying you is much better than marrying your sister, Xi Muxue. ”

“How can I catch up to Mu Xue? ”

Mu Ru whispered,

“Mu Xue is so beautiful and looks like a fairy. I'm just an ugly freak. Asking your brother to marry me is really letting him down. ”

Dongfang Yu could not help but feel touched when he heard mu ru say this, then he said softly,

“Mu Ru, don’t say that. Actually, my brother looks like a ghost. It’s really his fortune to be able to marry such a good wife like you. ”

Mu Ru smiled bitterly, then sighed and said,

“If only your brother thought the same way. If that’s the case, I would be able to spend the rest of my life with him in peace. ”

Dongfang Yu was stunned when he heard Mu Ru’s words. Just as he was about to speak again, his phone rang. As he slowed down, he took out his phone with one hand and put it to his ear to quickly talk on the phone.

Mu Ru did not know who called Dongfang Yu, but from Dongfang Yu’s teasing voice and happy expression, she knew that the other party was definitely a woman. Moreover, it was a woman that Dongfang Yu liked very much.

As expected, Dongfang Yu chuckled and said in a low voice,

“Alright, baby, wash up and wait for me tonight. I’m driving now. Let’s not chat anymore. See you tonight. ”

Mu Ru turned her face to the side. Actually, just hearing Dongfang Yu say these words made her blush. This Dongfang Yu was indeed like what Dongfang Jun said. He was a playboy who ate, drank, and gambled.

“I didn’t ask you to wash up and wait for me, so why are you so shy? ”

Dongfang Yu stepped on the gas pedal, and the car quickly sped up, almost as if it was flying.

“Dongfang Yu! ”

Xi Muru couldn’t help but growl, then gritted her teeth and warned him,

“I’m your sister-in-law, you’d better figure out who you’re teasing! ”

“I know! ”

Dongfang Yu answered unhappily, then muttered,

“If you weren’t my sister-in-law, I would have already... ”

Dongfang Yu's voice finally faded under mu Ru's murderous gaze. Then, he drove mu ru back to the Dongfang family's one inch Mo city.

"Get out of the car yourself. "

Dongfang Yu looked like he was in a hurry. When he saw mu ru get out of the car, he couldn't help but mock her

"I wonder what's so good about my brother that he deserves you to treat him with all your heart. "

Chapter 28: Chapter 28: I will try my best to be a good wife

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard that. The moment she turned around, Dongfang Yu had already driven the car away. It was obvious that he was just talking to himself and had no intention of discussing it with her.

Mu Ru lowered her head and quietly walked toward the door with the thermos in her arms. Dongfang Yu's words echoed in her ears. What was so good about Dongfang Mo?

She did not know what was so good about Dongfang Mo because she had only met him a few times. Moreover, he was like a devil every time. He would either humiliate her, humiliate her, or scold her. She had yet to discover any of Dongfang Mo's strengths.

However, Dongfang Mo was her husband, and she had already married out of the Xi family. As the saying went, the water splashed by a married woman would make her no longer a member of the Xi family, but a member of the Dongfang family.

There was an old saying in China, "when you marry a chicken, you marry a dog. When you marry a shoulder pole, you have to carry it with you. "

Dongfang Mo was indeed like a ghost now, but he did not mind that she was ugly or that she was an unlucky person. At the same time, he did not kick her out to live with the servants. She felt that this was already very good.

Mother Liu took the insulation board from Mu Ru's hands. When she heard that Mu ru had personally made it and brought it for Dongfang Mo, mother Liu was very touched. She wiped her tears and sobbed

"Young Madam, you're such a good person. The eldest young master will slowly be touched by you. In the future, he will treat you well. "

Mu Ru nodded. She believed that gold and stone were made with sincerity.

As long as she overcame her psychological obstacles and slowly accepted his appearance, she believed that even if his heart was made of stone, it would still be warmed up one day.

During dinner, the three men from the Dongfang family did not come back, and Dongfang Mei was not at home either. Instead, mother Liu accompanied Xi Muru to dinner.

At around 22 pm, a rolls-royce drove into one inch ink city and stopped in front of the main villa, the black garden. Uncle Liu first moved the wheelchair down, then went to get Dongfang Mo off the car and put him in the wheelchair.

Dongfang Mo, who had returned from outside, dressed himself up very well. He wore casual clothes, a very low cap, a disposable mask, white gloves, and large-framed sunglasses. It was only because his collar was not high in the early autumn The faint scar on his neck still revealed his master's secret.

Dongfang Mo was the chairman and president of the MO group. He would go to the group once or twice a week. Of course, he would only go because he had a meeting with the higher-ups or had to personally handle some matters Usually, it was uncle Liu who brought the documents back to the villa for his approval.

Dongfang Mo was a miracle in the business world. Four years ago, because of his father's death at sea, he was forced to return to China to take over the Dongfang Group. In just a year, he had brought the Dongfang Group back from the brink of crisis In another two years, he had pushed Dongfang Group into the top 500 companies in the world.

However, fortune knocks at the door. A year ago, he had a car accident. Now, he could only manage the company from a wheelchair. However, this did not stop him from Managing Dongfang Group well.

"Mo, you're back. Have you eaten? "

Mu Ru ran down from upstairs. When she saw Dongfang Mo, she was no longer so afraid that she did not dare to look at him anymore. Instead, she mustered her courage and went up to him

"I brought back the lion head that I made from the Xi family. I'll heat it up for you to try, okay? "

Dongfang Mo was stunned. He wanted to reject her, but when he saw her sincere eyes, he nodded and said lightly, "okay. "

"Sure, I'll treat it as a midnight snack. "

Chapter 29: Chapter 29 the devil that can not be stopped

Mu Ru happily turned around and ran towards the kitchen. She took out her insulated lunch box and poured out a lion's head. It was actually still a little warm, but she was afraid that the heat would not be enough, so she put it into the pot and steamed it for another two minutes.

She used a porcelain bowl to carry the round lion's head to Dongfang Mo. she squatted down and raised the porcelain bowl in front of him. She said softly,

"Try it. If you like it, I'll often make it for you in the future. "

Dongfang Mo took the chopsticks with his hand. He frowned and picked up the lion's head. He put it into his mouth and took a small bite. It was crisp on the outside but soft on the inside. The texture was very good, and the taste was also very good. It was indeed very delicious.

He was about to take another bite when Meng ran saw the bracelet on her wrist. Her face immediately darkened

"Isn't your wrist always empty? Where did you get this bracelet? "

"Oh, my mother gave it to me today. "

Mu Ru looked at the bracelet on her wrist. It was dark green in color. It should be an ancient jade that had been around for a long time.

"I don't like that color. "

Dongfang Mo's voice was cold and stiff. At the same time, he put down the chopsticks. It was obvious that he had lost his appetite.

"I'll take it off immediately. I won't wear it anymore. "

Mu Ru put the bowl aside and immediately used her hand to retrieve the bracelet on her wrist. However, because the bracelet was a little tight, she could not take it off immediately.

Dongfang Mo gave uncle Liu a look, indicating that he could leave. Uncle Liu nodded and pushed the wheelchair towards the passageway behind him.

By the time Mu ru took the bracelet off her wrist with all her strength, Dongfang Mo was long gone from the hall. In the porcelain bowl, Dongfang Mo's lion head, which he had taken a bite of, stood there quietly. It was as lonely as her.

She sighed softly and sent the bowl into the kitchen. Seeing the disappointment on her face, mother Liu quickly comforted her

"This is already not bad. In the past, eldest young master never ate other people's food. He has given you a lot of face today. "

Hearing Mother Liu's words, Mu ru felt slightly happy again. She nodded at mother Liu and said softly,

"thank you, mother Liu. I will continue to work hard. Mo will accept me sooner or later. "

"Young Madam is so kind. "

As mother Liu spoke, she had already brought a bowl of lily and red date porridge to Mu Ru

"Young Madam, have a bowl of porridge and go upstairs to rest. It's getting late. "

Mu Ru nodded. Actually, she wasn't that hungry, but this lily and red date porridge looked very beautiful and it also made people have an appetite. Moreover, mother Liu had given it to her. If she didn't eat it, she was afraid that mother Liu would be unhappy.

Mu Ru nodded. Actually, she wasn't that hungry, but this lily and red date porridge looked very beautiful and it also made people have an appetite. Moreover, mother Liu had given it to her. If she didn't eat it, she was afraid that mother Liu would be unhappy.

Fortunately, this lily and red date porridge didn't have a lot of portions, so she didn't feel bloated after eating it. Mu Ru thanked mother Liu after eating the porridge and went upstairs in a good mood.

With the experience from last night, she immediately locked the door after entering the room. Then, she carefully checked the doors and windows. She fastened all the windows and made sure that the room was very safe Only then did she go to the bathroom to take a shower, change into pajamas, and climb into bed to sleep.

She didn't know if it was because she was relieved or because the lily and red date porridge did have a calming effect. In short, she fell asleep very quickly and gradually fell asleep.

However, she didn't know how long she slept before she was woken up again.

In her daze, she felt pain coming from the depths of her body. She opened her eyes with difficulty. The Room was pitch black, and she could only feel a large hand moving around her body irregularly... ..

Chapter 30: Chapter 30 how quickly she recovered from her cold

She was shocked. Even though she was a little dazed, she knew what was going on, so she immediately opened her mouth to scream for help. However, the moment she opened her mouth, she was quickly stopped by another mouth... ..

That night, Mu Ru had been tortured by the devil countless times. In short, her last memory was that she had already fainted when the devil was still torturing her.

The personalized ringtone from the phone woke Xi Muru up again and again. She used her hands to support her body that was about to fall apart as she slowly sat up.

She took out her phone from her bag and just as she pressed the button, her best friend Cheng Feier's voice sounded like thunder

“Xi Muru, where the hell have you been these past two days? Why didn't you come to school? ”

Mu Ru then remembered that she had been absent from school for two days. The Wedding Day was Sunday, and today was already Wednesday. Her inexplicable absence from school had probably attracted Cheng Feier's attention.

“I'm sick. ”

Mu Ru immediately pulled out a lie, then deliberately sniffed and said,

“It seems to be a bad cold. Help me apply for a few days of leave. I'll come to school when I've recovered from my cold. ”

After saying this, Mu Ru did not wait for Cheng Feier on the other end of the phone to react. She immediately switched off the phone and turned it off. Seeing that the room with the thick floor-to-ceiling windows was already brightly lit, she hurriedly got out of bed.

There was still a faint scent of a man in the room. She quickly pulled open the curtains and let the wind blow in, dispersing the disgusting scent.

By the time Mu ru was done, the Dongfang family had already had their breakfast. Meanwhile, one inch ink city was very quiet. Even mother Liu was nowhere to be seen. She could not help but feel secretly happy, so she did not even bother to eat breakfast. She went upstairs to get her bag and quickly ran out of the door.

When Mu ru arrived, it was already the second lesson. She sneaked in from behind. Cheng Feier, her best friend, had an empty seat next to her. She immediately found the empty seat and sat down.

“Wow, Xi Muru, why are you here? Didn’t you say you had a cold? ”

Cheng Feier was shocked when she saw her. She could not help but use her pen to push a few words over

“You recovered from your cold so quickly? ”

“I took two cold medicine. ”

Mu Ru quickly wrote on the paper with a pen

“The cold medicine nowadays is so effective. I’ve never taken medicine before. It’ll definitely take effect quickly the first time I take it. ”

Cheng feier looked at her in confusion and did not say anything more. Instead, she used her hand to support her head as if she was listening to the lesson seriously. In fact, her hand was holding a pen and drawing a little turtle on the notebook.

Mu Ru also held her head with her hands and wanted to listen to the lesson seriously. However, she was too late. She didn’t know what the teacher had said before. She wanted to calm down, but her mind kept replaying the scene from last night.
