

Love At First Night Chapter 111

Chapter 111

The look in Judith's eyes grew cold when she stared at Frank. She glanced at the dim sky and said indifferently, "Mr. Taylor, Adam and I have something to attend to. We have to go." Judith evaded Frank's question. It would be better not to answer. Most likely, Adam was doing it with good intentions. Frank was not going to let Judith off easily. Just as he was about to speak, his phone rang. He took a look at the caller ID and saw that it was Gary. Frank suddenly looked at Judith with a bright smile and said in a deep voice, "Judy, see you tomorrow!" Then Frank picked up the phone and walked out. Adam pursed his lips in anger but did not say anything. Judith had stood up. When Adam saw this, he also got up. The two of them did not speak and walked out with tacit understanding. Standing not far away, Frank was answering the phone, but his eyes were fixed on Adam and Judith, who were leaving side by side. The dim and intense look in Frank's eyes was unfathomable. On the other side of the line, Gary said something. Frank did not hear clearly, so he asked, "Gary, what did you just say? Say it again!" Gary repeated impatiently, "Frank, I said that someone secretly erased Judith's traces. They obviously know that we have been investigating Judith, and are determined to prevent us from finding any traces of Judith." Frank frowned, his cold aura lingering between his brows. As he watched Judith and Adam leave on a motorcycle, his gaze was sharp and cold. It was Adam. Only he had such strong connections. Only Adam had the ability to erase everything about Judith. "Frank, are you listening?" Gary asked. "I am." Frank's face darkened and his tone was cold. "Frank, the fastest way to find out now is to take a maternity test. Let Marilyn and Judith take a maternity test."

“No, don’t make this matter public yet. Now that Judy has been replaced by Ann, I have another way to check Judy’s identity. Come to the office tomorrow morning and I will tell you what to do.” Upon finishing speaking, Frank hung up the phone. Frank raised his eyes and looked in the direction that Judith and Adam left in. “Adam, Judy and I are childhood sweethearts. You can’t take her away from me!” Frank thought. Moreover, Judith and Frank had a son. Frank raised his eyebrows triumphantly. He stood there for a long time before he turned and entered the restaurant. Frank sat opposite Edwin. Edwin gazed at Frank and asked casually, “Frank, this is not like you. When did you learn to steal another guy’s woman?” Frank frowned and looked at Edwin’s indifferent expression. “Steal?” Frank’s cold tone made Edwin frown. Edwin lowered his head and elegantly drank a mouthful of water. With a smile, he said, “Did I say something wrong? I can tell that Adam likes Ms. White very much. Isn’t what you did stealing?” Frank smiled coldly. The look in his eyes was strange. The warm light made his delicate and perfect facial features look more chiseled. Frank had a straight nose and thin lips. In addition to his bright eyes, he was strikingly handsome and refined. They would know later who stole whose woman. Frank picked up his utensils and ate gracefully.

Even though the dishes were cold, he felt they were delicious. Edwin looked at Frank and smiled but did not speak. Edwin put down his fork and elegantly crossed his legs. He leaned back slightly with a cup of drink in his hand. His pretty eyes curiously fell on Frank, who was eating with his head lowered.

Love At First Night Chapter 112

Chapter 112

Frank ate for a while and felt Edwin's gaze. Chewing, Frank looked at Edwin. Seeing that Edwin's gaze was very strange, Frank couldn't help but ask, "Is this your first time seeing me eat? Your curious face makes me feel a little embarrassed." Edwin smiled elegantly. His every move was graceful. Edwin said, "The dishes are cold, but you seem to enjoy them. You look aloof on the outside but very happy on the inside." Frank also smiled. He had a son. Of course, he was happy. In the past, he did not even dare to think about having a son. Suddenly, one day, Frank had a son. The boy was good-looking and a famous child star, so Frank was naturally happy. Edwin looked at Frank and felt that Frank was hiding something from him. Edwin could not help but ask, "Frank, are you hiding something from me?" Frank looked up with a smile on his handsome face. "Edwin, why do you ask?" Although reserved, Edwin was very meticulous. Nothing could escape Edwin's eyes, but for the time being, Frank couldn't tell Edwin he had a son yet. The fewer people that knew about it, the better. Edwin looked Frank up and down. After hearing Frank's answer, he was even more certain that Frank was hiding something from him. The four of them were friends who had grown up together. One look or one action, and they could understand what the other person was thinking.

Even though it was Frank, Edwin knew clearly what he was thinking. Among the four of them, Edwin was the most meticulous and had the sharpest eyes. Edwin smiled and said, "Every cell of yours is telling me that you have something on your mind." "Really?" Frank smiled, "You have always been sharp-eyed. You're kind of right. But I can't tell you what it is now. I'll tell you later." After finishing speaking, Frank lowered his head and continued eating elegantly. Edwin knew Frank well and vice versa. Frank would not reveal anything he did not want to say. Edwin's eyes darkened. He had guessed correctly. If Frank didn't tell him, it would be a little boring. Adam brought Judith all the way to the villa. That was when Judith realized that this place was right across from the villa Frank had asked her to buy. But this place was closer to the school, and it was also very convenient for Judith to pick up and take the children to and from school.

Under the twilight sky, the afterglow of the setting sun dyed the horizon red. The sunset was gorgeous, the light and shadow were mottled. The lights were on Judith got off the motorcycle. What came into view was a small building with two and a half stories in a foreign style. There was a small courtyard overgrown with weeds. The ground was covered with fallen leaves. It seemed that no one had lived there in a long time. Adam took off his helmet and looked back at Judith. He smiled and said, “Judy, do you like this place?” Judith retracted her gaze and looked at the smiling Adam. She happily nodded. “Adam, thank you. This place is great.” Adam glanced at the house and pursed his lips. “Judy, let’s go in and take a look.” “Alright.” Judith smiled and walked in front. Adam looked at her slender figure from behind, and his beautiful eyes flashed. Adam recalled something. There were too many puzzles in his heart. “Hello, Mila.” “Adam, I need a favor.” Adam was very surprised when he suddenly received a call from Mila, Judith’s mom, that day.

Love At First Night Chapter 113

Chapter 113

“Adam, Judy is looking for a house. You know Judy. If she can do it on her own, she won’t accept help from others. I have a detached villa near the school in Mayfield...” At that time, after hanging up the phone, Adam was constantly suspecting Mila’s identity. However, Mila was a very vigilant person. After knowing her for seven years, Adam only knew her name and nothing else. However, Mila was sincerely good to Judy and her children. Mila took good care of the children, just like taking care of her own children. Adam followed behind Judy and didn't say anything. He was still suspicious of Mila's identity.

The two of them walked into the house and opened the door to take a look. The furniture inside was covered in white cloth.

The windows were closed, and there was a smell of dust in the house. Adam turned on the lights. Having been off for a long time, the lights flashed a few times before they went off. Adam pressed the switch again. The lights on the second floor were on, but they were warm lights in the winter. The lights lit up the house. The structure of the house was very good. The living room was spacious and bright. When Judith saw this, she was extremely happy. She turned around and looked at Adam. She asked in disbelief, "Adam, am I dreaming? Does this small house really belong to me from now on?" Even in her dreams, Judith wanted to have a house that belonged to her, so that her family of five could live more comfortably. "Judy, you are already standing in the house. What is there to not believe? After the transfer, this place will be yours." When Adam saw how happy Judith was, he couldn't help but smile. Judith hurriedly nodded. "Adam, let's hurry up and settle the transfer procedures in case the owner goes back on his or her word. I really like this place." Adam shook his head and smiled. There was no one competing with Judith for this house. This house belonged to Mila. Although Judith was only Mila's adopted daughter, Mila was really good to her. And Judith was very filial to Mila. "Judy, I'll help you with the formalities on Monday. Go to work and have no worries." "Alright. Adam, I'll have to trouble you again this time. I'll come over to clean every day after work," Judith said as she walked to the second floor. The second floor had three bedrooms and one living room. There was also a bathroom and a floor-to-ceiling window. In Judith's eyes, everything became especially beautiful. Judith happily went to the third floor. There were two bedrooms on the third floor, which were a little bigger than the ones on the second floor. In front of the room was a greenhouse with many flowers and other plants. No one was there to take care of them, and they were all withered. It did not matter. After Judith moved in, the greenhouse would be full of vitality again. “Adam, this place is great!” Judith loved the villa. Adam looked at her. Judith was just so easy to satisfy and not greedy at all. “Judy, I’m happy that you like it here. You’re lucky. Such a good place is not easy to find.” Adam walked to Judith and stood side by side with her. Adam looked at the tall buildings in the distance. The colorful neon lights illuminated the entire prosperous Mayfield. Adam turned to Judith. She was looking curiously around with bright eyes. When Judith was in a good mood, her limpid eyes were especially bright, making people feel like they were about to fall into them. Adam said with a smile, “Judy, remember to keep a room for me. I’ll occasionally come over to see the kids. I will stay if it’s too late.”

“Alright. There are two bedrooms on the first floor. One of them will be yours,” Judith said with a smile. The night breeze lifted her hair, and a faint fragrance got into Adam’s nose.

Love At First Night Chapter 114

Chapter 114

Looking at Judith’s smiling and beautiful face, Adam was a little distracted. However... Frank’s words came back to Adam’s mind.

Adam asked in a sullen tone, “Judy, are you going to accompany Frank to socialize tomorrow night?” Judith had always been sensitive. When she noticed Adam’s dejected tone, she raised her eyes and glanced at Adam’s unhappy handsome face. Adam looked indifferent and frustrated. Judith looked away and said, “There is a banquet at Fontal Hotel. Frank said that the guests were all business partners. I am a designer. I have to go. It's merely a formality." "Merely a formality?" Adam looked at her with an intense gaze. Frank had never brought a female companion with him before when he went to a party. And this time, he took the initiative to ask Judy to go with him. It was obvious that Frank had impure motives. Judith nodded. When Judith was in the branch company, she would occasionally go to parties, but those were all small occasions, where Judith just gossiped with a bunch of women and enjoyed delicious food, and nothing else. Adam looked at the neon lights in the distance, pursed his lips, and reminded Judith in a serious tone, "Judy. someone is secretly investigating you. You must be careful. I will wait for you outside Fontal Hotel tomorrow night. Mila called me and asked me to take care of you." When Judith heard this, her eyes turned cold and her face turned frosty. "Is the Cooper family investigating me?"

"I don't know yet. I will find out soon." However, Adam didn't think that the Cooper family was investigating Judy.

Lately, the Cooper family had lost a lot of money in business. Baron was so busy that he wouldn't have time to investigate Judy. Judith turned around and looked at Adam. She smiled confidently. The look in her eyes was firm and confident "Adam, you don't have to worry. The current me is no longer the Judith who was weak and wouldn't fight back when bullied by others." One could be lucky for a moment, but not for a lifetime. Only when one truly had strength would one not be bullied by others. "I know! No one can bully Judy." Adam looked at Judith with a smile. Every time he looked at such a tough Judith, Adam could not help but want to hug her, and his heart ached for her.

“Let’s go have a late supper. Disturbed by Frank just now, I didn’t eat my fill.” Adam looked at Judith with grievance. Judith looked at his aggrieved look and could not help but smile. “Let’s go. My treat. You helped me find such a good house. I must thank you properly,” Judith said and turned to go downstairs. Adam followed behind her with a smile. He wished time could stop at this moment. If Adam and Judith loved each other, they would be perfect soul mates for each other. Adam and Judith had so much in common.

They had the same hobbies and dreams. After closing the door, Adam and Judith left on the motorcycle. Adam took Judith to a barbecue. It was a seafood stall. It was still early, so the stall wasn’t busy. After sitting down, Adam ordered the dishes and two bottles of beer.

Adam opened the bottles and placed one in front of Judith. “Judy, let’s celebrate tonight. Have a bottle of beer.” Judith glanced at the motorcycle parked not far away. Judith teased, worried, “Adam, if you drink, what about the motorcycle? You can’t drive under the influence of alcohol, It’s against the traffic rules.” Adam took a sip of beer airily. His every move was so elegant. However, he cast a sidelong glance at Judith’s smirking face.

Love At First Night Chapter 115

Chapter 115

Adam smiled elegantly. There was no trace of worry on Judith’s face. He said, “Judy, it seems you really want me to get jailed.” “What nonsense are you talking about? I’m not that vicious,” Judith retorted with a long face. Her lip that had been lightly bitten by her became even rosier. As Adam looked at her, the look in his eyes grew more intense. But when Adam thought that Judith was going to attend the banquet with Frank the next evening, he felt annoyed. What was Frank up to? As far as Adam knew, Judy didn't have to attend a banquet like that. Moreover, the design drafts of Judith's autumn products had already passed. Adam couldn't help but doubt Frank's intentions. "Little girl, it seems at least you still have a conscience. Don't worry, I won't be stopped by the traffic police for a glass of beer." Adam smiled at Judith. At the thought that Judith was worried about him, Adam was very happy. Judith rolled her eyes at him and smiled, "We've known each other for seven years. You know very well whether I'm heartless or not." "I do," Adam smiled. It was because he knew well what kind of person Judith was that Adam was head over heels in love with her. "That's good. Go home and rest after the late supper. Alissa said that you have been very busy after coming to Mayfield." Judith looked at Adam with concern, not wanting him to be too tired. Adam had originally come back to keep Judith company. In the end, she stayed, and Adam also stayed. This gave Judith a weird feeling. "Got it. I'll listen to you." When Adam heard her concerned words, he winked at Judith mischievously. Adam suddenly joked, "Judy, we look like a couple, right?" He looked at Judith gently. Judith was slightly startled by Adam's question. But the look in his eyes was intense. Adam did not seem to be joking at all. Judith looked at him blankly. Adam was the last person she wanted to hurt. There was no emotion in Judith's eyes. She just stared at Adam in a daze, not knowing what to say. Adam's heart sank in disappointment. Judy had never loved him. To her, Adam was family and a good friend. That was all. Adam suddenly laughed. His laughter came to an abrupt end. Adam looked at Judith with a smile and said, "Judy, I was just joking. You didn't take it seriously, right?" Then, Adam lowered his head, and the smile on his face that had not completely disappeared gradually became unbearably bitter. He was not joking. He was serious. But the woman in front of Adam would not understand. Judith suddenly breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Adam was joking. If he was serious, Judith wouldn't know what to do. Adam was one of the most wonderful men in the world. Rich, handsome, and warm-hearted, Adam was many women's Prince Charming. Judith had three children. She didn't want to waste Adam's time. Judith took out a blue candy from her purse, removed the packaging, and handed the candy to Adam. When Adam saw the light yellow candy between her slender and fair fingers, he looked up at Judith, smiled, and opened his mouth to eat the candy. The candy Judith fed him must be sweet. However, the next moment, Adam's face twisted.

Love At First Night Chapter 116

Chapter 116

The unbearable sour taste made Adam's ears buzz. Adam had never eaten anything so sour in his entire life. Judith could not help but laugh when she saw the expression on Adam's face. This sour taste was not something that everyone could endure. Adam spat out the candy, grabbed the beer on the table, and took a big gulp. The sour taste in his mouth finally lessened a lot. Adam raised his eyes and looked like he was about to cry. He frowned and stared at Judith with a painful look. "Judy, are you still human? How can you stand such a sour thing? You even carry it on you around."

Judith smiled brightly and said mischievously, "You joked around with me. This is the least severe punishment for you. This is a lemon-flavored super sour candy, I usually eat it when I work overtime." When Adam heard her first sentence, he felt sad, but when he heard Judith's second sentence, his heart instantly ached. He knew that Judith had been working very hard for the past seven years. In just a few years, she had been promoted to design director, and she had earned it. Adam looked at Judith and suddenly said in a distressed voice, "Silly, such a sour thing is not good for the stomach. Don't eat it again. If you are sleepy, you can call me. I will burn the midnight oil with you." Adam met Judith. After she came out of her sorrow, she had always been diligent and hardworking, with a strong ambition and high comprehension, Over the past few years, the two of them had been learning from each other and spent a lot of time together, allowing Adam to understand her thoroughly. Judith raised her eyebrows and looked at Adam. Her soft hair danced in the night breeze. Her delicate facial features were beautiful and lively. Judith's smile was graceful and gentle. "Adam, you're very busy every day. I'm used to burning the midnight oil, and once I eat this lemon-flavored candy, I immediately become spirited. My inspiration also improves. "I really don't know what to do with you." Adam took a deep breath and looked at her, deeply concerned. "I wonder when you'll change your stubborn personality. You say nothing when you're tired, and you endure it when wronged. Judy, your life is too hard." Adam spoke from the bottom of his heart. Judy really didn't have it easy. Adam and his sister felt sorry for Judith. Judith smiled gratefully. Adam was a good friend. "Adam, you don't have to worry about me. I'm fine, Raising a child is the most strenuous. However, Lucas, Eric, and Emily have been good. Also, Mother has taken good care of us. And I have you and Alissa. Right now, I'm living the happiest life." The past few years were the happiest years of Judith's life, When Adam heard this, he smiled helplessly, but his heart ached a little. Did Judith think he didn't know her? The bitterness in her heart, the hatred that arose after Judith had been set up, and the pain she had suffered in the Cooper family, were all suppressed. Adam had seen her cry alone in the night several times, but he always watched from a distance and stayed silently with her.. Adam would only leave after Judith was tired from crying and went back to sleep Adam was about to speak when the waiter brought over the dishes they had ordered, so Adam held back the words he had been about to say, "Judy, eat. They taste delicious when they're warm." Adam pushed the seafood porridge to Judith. "Okay. Adam, you have some too." Judith smiled.

Love At First Night Chapter 117

Chapter 117

Judith glanced at the barbecue stall. It was very crowded at night. Five or six people sat at the same table, drinking and chatting. The stall was quite kicking. Judith and Adam had always liked bustling places downtown and did not like to go to those high-class places to eat. Alissa often despised the two of them, saying that they did not know how to live a life. Thus, Alissa would take them to some high-class restaurants for a big meal. Adam always complained that he was not full, so he had an excuse to bum a meal off Judith's mother at Judith's place. Adam picked up the beer on the table and said with a smile, "Judy, come, let's have a drink." "Alright!" Judith also raised the beer. The two touched the cans and drank a mouthful of beer. Judith couldn't drink too much. Even beer felt strong to her. Adam also knew that. Thus, as long as the weather was not cold, he would give Judith cold beer. The taste of cold beer was slightly better. "It tastes good!" The ice-cold taste in Judith's mouth, coupled with the taste of the meat, gave her an extreme shock, making her feel very satisfied. Adam looked at Judith and smiled brightly. The brilliant light shone on his handsome face, making his face even gentler and softer. "Judy, the food here is good. If we have time in the future, we shall come here to eat. This place is not far from your home." "Alright! We'll do as you say. We're both foodies, and we also have another little foodie, Emily. If she knows about the tasty food here, she'll have to pester you all day to come out and eat." Judith smiled. She missed her daughter. "Sure, as long as Emily wants to eat here, I'll bring her here." Adam had never said no to the three children. Adam was quite close with the three little ones. "You're spoiling them," Judith complained slightly. The two chatted as they ate. They sat until midnight, and only the two of them were left at the barbecue stall. Judith was a little sleepy and was about to leave. She picked up the tea beside her and took a sip to reduce the salty taste in her mouth. “Jason, don’t leave me behind. I love you.” Suddenly, a heart-wrenching sound came from the street. Judith and Adam looked back and saw two people not far from them. A woman in gray casual clothes, sweet and lovely, with shoulder-length hair dyed with flax color, a pair of big eyes, looked at a handsome man in a suit. There were tears in the woman’s eyes. The man was dressed in a well-tailored suit, completely revealing his perfect figure. His handsome face looked cold. He looked coldly and arrogantly at the weeping woman in front of him. “Sarah, let’s break up. My mother doesn’t allow me to marry you!” The man’s voice was very ruthless, and every word he said could make people hurt. “No, Jason, I’m already pregnant with your child. Can’t you fight for us against Mrs. Chaney? For the sake of me and our baby!” The woman cried and begged, her hands tightly holding Jason Chaney’s arm. When Judith heard this, she felt a sting in her heart. The woman must have a hard choice to make since she was expecting a baby before she could handle her relationship. Her heart ached when Judith thought of the innocent child. Back then, Judith faced such a difficult situation, but no matter how hard it was, Judith was convinced that the baby was innocent after all. Thus, Judith resolutely decided to give birth to the baby.

When Jason heard that, he couldn’t bear it and asked with disbelief and excitement, “Sarah, you said that you are pregnant with my child? Is it true? When did you find out?”

Love At First Night Chapter 118

Chapter 118

“Jason, last time you came to me and told me about your sister. Later, you got wasted. That was when I got the baby.” The woman said while weeping, not caring about the people coming and going on the street. All she wanted was to keep the man in front of her. “Sarah...” “Jason, shut up. You were drunk and didn't remember anything. She said she was pregnant with your child and you are buying it?" Suddenly, a lady in luxurious clothes walked over from afar. Judith looked over, and her pupils contracted violently. The lady in front of her, who was wearing a peach-red suit and luxurious jewelry, happened to be Marilyn. "Mom, why are you here?" When Jason saw his mother, his face darkened. He looked at his mother in shock. Jason couldn't believe that Marilyn was stalking him. Ever since Marilyn found out that Sarah was Jason's girlfriend, Marilyn had been tracking Jason's whereabouts every day.

Sarah's family was not well off. Her family opened a barbecue stall there to make a living. Jason knew that his mother would know about his relationship with Sarah sooner or later. He was afraid that his mother would harm Sarah, so he came over tonight to break up with Sarah. "Of course, I am here. If I weren't here, you would be fooled by this woman." Marilyn glared at her son with a stern expression "No, Mrs. Chaney, I wasn't fooling Jason. I AM pregnant with Jason's child." Sarah looked at Marilyn with her watery eyes full of determination. Marilyn looked at Sarah with contempt. Marilyn's eyes were very cold. She looked down on Sarah and sneered sarcastically, "My son was drunk, so you tried to blackmail him? Let me tell you something. The Chaney family is out of your league. A Farrell girl doesn't deserve my son. Here is a check, 150,000 dollars. Whether your baby is Jason's or not, the money is for its nourishment." After saying that, Marilyn threw the check at Sarah's feet with a disdainful look. Sarah listened to Marilyn's words and was instantly stiffened. Sarah looked at Marilyn in a daze. Tears flowed down silently from Sarah's face. She looked hopeless. "Mom, you can't do this. Sarah is already pregnant with my child. I want to marry Sarah." This was the first time Jason had ever fought against his mother. "Shut up!" Marilyn glared fiercely at her son, her face full of disappointment, "Sarah." Suddenly, a plump woman rushed out of the barbecue stall. The woman seemed to have just come out of the kitchen.

She was still wearing an apron and there were some oil stains on it. She was the mother of Sarah, Flora Carrison. “Sarah, are you crazy? Why are you being so stupid? You are making a fool of yourself in public.” Flora held Sarah in her arms and looked down at the check at Sarah’s feet. Flora bent down and picked it up. Then, she threw it at Marilyn, who was standing at the side. Flora’s face was chubby yet delicate. She looked at Marilyn angrily. “Take your stinky money and get lost. Who wants your money? No matter how poor my family is, we can afford to raise a grandson. We don’t need you to pity us.” “Since you don’t want the money, then take good care of your daughter in the future. If you continue to pester my son, you will lose your stall.” Marilyn threatened Flora coldly. Flora froze a bit and a trace of fear appeared in her eyes. The barbecue stall was the only way to support the Farrell family. Flora also had a son who was in university and she supported him with the money earned from the barbecue stall. “Mom, that’s too much!” Jason looked at his mother and roared.

Love At First Night Chapter 119

Chapter 119

Marilyn smiled coldly. She caught the fear in Flora’s eyes. Besides, Marilyn had investigated the Farrell family thoroughly. Otherwise, Marilyn wouldn’t have come to this place tonight. The Farrell family had three children, namely Sarah, her elder brother, and her younger brother, who was still at college. Flora’s husband was sick. The whole family could only count on the barbecue stall. Marilyn looked at her son coldly and sneered, “Jason, if you get involved with Sarah again, I will make this barbecue stall disappear tomorrow.” When Sarah heard that, she couldn’t help but take a few steps back. If this barbecue stall was gone, how could their family survive? Sarah’s younger brother wouldn’t have had tuition fees. Sarah knew Jason’s identity. She thought that as long as she tried hard, she would be recognized by the Chaney family. Yet Sarah was too naive. Those wealthy and powerful families paid attention to social status. Sarah didn't deserve the Chaney family. Both Jason and the others in the Chaney family believed that Sarah didn't deserve the title of Mrs. Chaney. Sarah should stop dreaming. Sarah wiped away the tears on her face, gritted her teeth, and trembled violently. Her voice choked with sobs. Sarah gazed at Jason with a painful look on her face. After looking for a while, she reluctantly shifted her gaze to Marilyn's face and smiled. "Mrs. Chaney, don't worry. From now on, I will never see Jason again. The child in my belly is indeed Jason's. If the Chaney family doesn't want it, I will have an abortion tomorrow morning." After that, Sarah took one last look at Jason, turned around, and left resolutely. Flora also quickly left with her daughter. "Sarah, Sarah..."

Jason looked at Sarah's back in pain. He wanted to follow her but was stopped by Marilyn. "Go back. You know, I can make the Farrell family lose everything." Marilyn looked at her son. Her sharp eyes stared at her son with a threatening gaze. Jason looked at Marilyn and saw her threatening face. He had never felt that his mother was so vicious. Jason said in pain, "Mom, the child in Sarah's belly is your grandson. How can you be so cruel? What's wrong with Sarah? She is nice, although she's from a poor family. But mom, does it matter? As long as we love each other, we can be happy. Why do you have to do that?" "Jason, you also know that her family is poor, not worthy of the Chaney family. Do you want our family to be laughed at within the upper class? They would mock us for taking the wrong woman!" Marilyn would never allow such a thing to happen. Nowadays, things were difficult for business people. Marilyn's daughter-in-law had to be someone who could help with the family business. "Mom..." "Stop it. If you are doing this for her good, don't see her again. Otherwise, I have many methods to destroy her reputation."

Jason was dumbfounded by Marilyn's threat. "Mom, you are simply unreasonable. I don't like those women. I like Sarah." Jason roared at Marilyn. "You are being unreasonable. The Chaney family was privileged in Mayfield. If you insist on marrying her, you know the consequences. You know that well and that's why you are here to break up with Sarah." Marilyn said proudly, looking at her son with a sneer. Both of her sons were very outstanding, and her daughter-in-law had to be very outstanding.

Love At First Night Chapter 120

Chapter 120

If Marilyn's daughter was still there, everything would be perfect. However, Marilyn could never find her daughter back. Although Marilyn had Ann, Ann was not Marilyn's biological daughter. They were not close because they weren't connected by blood. Marilyn couldn't help but think of her Jodie... Every time Marilyn thought about Jodie, her heart ached. Marilyn suddenly looked up and saw Judith and Adam not far away. She suddenly frowned. It seemed that Marilyn could meet Judith almost everywhere.

Judith actually saw what happened tonight. When Judith met Marilyn's gaze, a bad feeling rose in her heart.

Judith had met Marilyn several times when she was with Frank. Marilyn's daughter, Ann, would marry Frank.

Thus, every time Marilyn saw Judith, Marilyn was hostile. Just as Judith had these thoughts in her heart, she saw Marilyn walking towards her with an arrogant look on her face in her 3-inch-high stilettos. "Mrs. Chaney." Judith stood up and smiled politely. Adam didn't like Marilyn's style the moment he saw her. When he heard Jason's name, he also knew who Marilyn was. Now that Jason saw that Judy also knew Marilyn and he saw that Marilyn was walking towards Judy with a malicious expression, Jason's face darkened at once. Marilyn looked at Judith coldly and then looked at Adam. Marilyn then slowly retracted her gaze and looked at Judith with a mocking expression. "Ms. White, you're so capable, surrounded by all kinds of men all day long. Frank in the morning and another in the evening." The sarcastic and mean voice instantly filled Judith with humiliation and anger. Judith raised her head and looked at Marilyn without a trace of guilt or avoidance. Her gentle expression suddenly became cold. Judith said, "Mrs. Chaney, please pay attention to your wording. I am just an employee of Mr. Taylor, and this is a friend I have known for many years." Her tone was indifferent and unconvinced. When Marilyn heard this, she suddenly smiled with ridicule and contempt. "I don't care if you are his employee or if you have any other relationship with him. But you have to bear in mind that Frank will always be Ann's fiancé. In the future, you can stay as far away from him as you can, otherwise..." Marilyn wanted to say something but stopped. She glared fiercely at Judith. Marilyn sneered in ridicule. She turned around with a face full of warning. She left arrogantly and walked towards Jason, who was not far away

Adam was furious. He suddenly stood up from the stool and wanted to say something, but was stopped by

Judith

Judith felt a great pain in her heart. Marilyn's mocking face and harsh voice made Judith's heart ache. Judith felt the sting in her heart indescribable. "Judy, does she always bully you like this?" Adam asked angrily. The Taylor family and the Chaney family had a good relationship, and the two families were neighbors. Jason knew that Judith shook her head. Her face looked pale. She smiled and said, “Adam, no. You also know my temper. No one can easily bully me.” “But...” “Alright, Adam, let’s go back! It’s too late. We still have to work tomorrow.” She quickly interrupted Adam. However, Adam looked at Judith angrily and said coldly, “Judy. I feel irritated when seeing you get bullied.” Judith looked at Jason and suddenly smiled. “Adam, don’t be like this. Marilyn is only hostile to me because of her daughter. I will keep a certain distance from Frank, so she won’t cause me any trouble.”