

Love At First Night Chapter 151

Chapter 151

Judith smiled. “Mom, it’s okay. Lucas is very good. When I go to work, he can stay at home.” “Okay, when Lucas decided, I will tell you the time. Judy, go home early and drink less. You have to take care of yourself.” “Okay, mom!”

Judith hung up the phone and was very happy. It was good for Lucas to come over and accompany her. Judith wanted to go somewhere else to take a walk, but a glass of wine splashed on her without warning. “Ah!” Patrick, who was not far away, suddenly widened his eyes. The person who splashed wine on Judith was Mr. Kent’s daughter. This woman was usually arrogant and domineering. Was she trying to irritate Frank tonight? Judith looked sideways at the woman beside her. She had charming curly hair and delicate makeup. She looked at Judith with disdain and contempt. “What do you mean by splashing wine on me?” Judith’s eyes were cold and her eyebrows were tightly furrowed. Her eyes were filled with anger. A few fashionably-dressed women slowly walked over. Sherly was also among them, looking at Judith gloatingly! Keven, who was not far away, saw this scene. He also stood up and walked towards Judith. Jolie sneered sarcastically. “I just don’t like you. How dare you seduce Mr. Taylor? Don’t you know your identity?” When Judith heard this, she also smiled coldly. It was about Frank again. She tilted her body slightly and looked at Jolie with a cold expression. Her tone was even more sarcastic than Jolie’s. “Then what kind of trash are you? How dare you humiliate others in public for no reason? You can only be this kind of trash.” “You...” Jolie was speechless. Her face and her neck were red. She was angry and embarrassed. The woman in front of her had no background. Why was she so bold and retort her? “I’m warning you. You’d better be careful. Otherwise, I’ll teach you a lesson.” Jolie’s expression became more and more arrogant. She thought that she must teach Judith a lesson. “First, I didn’t break the law. Second, I didn’t offend you. Instead, I was splashed with wine by you.” “Miss, tell me, what did I do wrong?” Judith knew that the woman must have a good family background, but she was not afraid. “Shame on you! It’s a sin for you to seduce Mr. Taylor. What right do you have to be with him?” Jolie raised her chin and warned Judith arrogantly. Judith suddenly smiled, and a strange light flashed in her eyes. She smiled and asked, “Well, I am not qualified. If you are qualified, why don’t you be with him?” “However, you insulted the director of the Taylor Group in public, and you are just humiliating Mr. Taylor. Is it really okay to do so?” Her cold voice was not loud, but everyone could hear it. She kicked the ball back to Frank and she knew that he wouldn’t ignore it. Jolie’s expression changed. She frowned and asked angrily, “When did I insult Mr. Taylor? Don’t talk nonsense.” “Well, as the design director of the Taylor Group, I am qualified to attend a banquet with Mr. Taylor. “Besides, everyone in Mayfield knows Mr. Taylor. How can he be seduced by me so easily?” “Before you speak, think about the consequences first.” Judith’s eyes were cold. Her tone was low and cold, but every word seemed to step on Jolie’s heart.

Love At First Night Chapter 152

“What a good show! Jolie, you humiliated the design director of the Taylor Group and Frank. Very good! let Frank see this video later. Maybe he will consider again whether to cooperate with your father.” Patrick held his phone and recorded the video as he walked. When Jolie heard this, she was immediately afraid. When Judith heard this, she was slightly surprised. She didn't expect that Patrick had actually recorded this.

Jolie anxiously explained, "Mr. Jensen, I, I didn't do it on purpose." She just wanted to teach Judith a lesson. "Really? I don't think so." Patrick retorted with a smile as he recorded the video. Patrick thought, "Why did she have to provoke Frank's woman in public? She was so silly."

Moreover, Patrick was supposed to protect this woman. With this video, he could satisfy Frank. Jolie had always been brainless. When others urged her to do something, she couldn't help but lose her temper. "No, Mr. Jensen, I..." Jolie could not find a reason to refute. When Judith saw that he had recorded the video, she frowned. Why did he do this? She could solve this matter herself. And in this way, these people would find her even more displeasing. Patrick looked at Judith. Seeing that her clothes were stained with wine, he frowned and said, "Ms. White, you can change your clothes first. Just ignore this woman. You are the design director of the Taylor Group. Some people are just jealous. I will tell Mr. Taylor about this and let him handle it!" Judith glanced at Jolie who was anxious but did not know what to do. With a cold expression, she nodded at Patrick and left slowly. Since Patrick wanted to do this, she would just let him deal with it. Keven saw that and felt relieved. "What's wrong? Are you worried about her?" Darlene had already walked up to Keven and asked him with a smile. Keven laughed. "Of course, I'm worried about her. Judith has suffered a lot." "Well, Keven, when do you become so sensitive?" Darlene smiled. She felt very strange. Keven had been cold and indifferent. He rarely cared about others' business. "Darlene, people will slowly change. Judith is very hardworking. If you interact with her more, you will know her abilities," Keven said, gesturing for her to go to the corner to chat. After they left, Patrick withdrew his gaze from them. He was actually interested in the fact that Keven knew Judith. He saw Jolie who was looking at him blankly. He had a playful smile and said, “Don’t look at me like that. I will be shy!” The people around heard this and were all speechless. A playboy like Patrick would also be shy? Even he himself wouldn’t believe this! “You!” Jolie was furious. “Jolie, enough! What a disgrace! Hurry up and apologize to Mr. Jensen.” Jolie’s father, Mr. Kent, walked over angrily. He glared at his daughter and shouted. “Dad, ...” “Look at you, aren’t you embarrassed? Hurry up and apologize to Mr. Jensen!” Mr. Kent’s face was livid. He interrupted his daughter’s words. He thought, “How dare you do such a thing in front of so many people?”

Jolie looked at her father’s furious face and was shocked. She turned to look at Patrick who was smiling. Her tone was gentle. “Mr. Jensen, I’m sorry!”

Patrick shook his hand and sneered at Jolie, “Miss Kent, you don’t have to apologize to me. You’d better apologize to Judith. You splashed the wine all over her for no reason. “As the director of the company, it’s her duty to accompany Mr. Taylor to socialize. Yet you slandered her saying that she was trying to seduce him. “I would like to ask Miss Kent, did you see Judith seduce him with your own eyes?” “... didn’t,” Jolie said and lowered her head. She didn’t dare to be as arrogant as just now with her father watching, She used to bully others. However, in the past, Patrick never stood out to accuse her. Patrick sneered and said, “If you didn’t, as a well-educated lady, why do you want to slander and frame an innocent person? Or is this how all your families behave? I must admit that I’m in shock.” Patrick said that in a gentle yet sarcastic tone with a humble expression. Ian felt so ashamed to hear that. He wanted to defend himself, “Mr. Jensen...” “Alright, everyone, go back to your post. I’m leaving.” Patrick didn’t wait for Ian to finish speaking. He turned around and left without hesitation. “No, Mr. Jensen, please don’t go so soon. Why not have a drink before you leave?” Ian hurriedly said, trying to keep him here.

It had cost Ian a lot to achieve his career. He couldn’t allow his lifelong efforts to be in vain merely for Jolie’s misbehavior. “Dad, he has already left. Why bother?” Jolie said arrogantly without any sign of repenting. Ian smiled coldly. He looked at her and said with repressed anger, “Yes, he left with the video. A large part of our company’s business relied on the Taylor Group. Have you ever thought about what would become of us if Frank was upset and cut off all our cooperation? “You’ll lose everything you have now. No more luxuries for you. We may even be short of necessities!” Then, Ian turned around and left in anger.

Jolie was left alone in shock. She never thought that messing up with Judith would bring her and her family so much trouble. She trembled with fear. She couldn’t imagine what her life would be like if her family went broke. Ian walked to the table aside and picked up a glass of wine. He drank it all in one gulp. He was very anxious since Frank had been well known for his iron fists. As the first female companion, Frank had ever brought together to social settings, Judith was undoubtedly very important to him. At this time, Gina and Carlo arrived here and thus witnessed the whole incident. She intimately held Carlo’s arm and said in a charming voice, “Darling, let’s go. I want to change my clothes. Please come with me. You can also take this opportunity to rest for a while. If you let them keep toasting you

Carlo nodded and forced a smile, “Okay.” Judith just got out of the elevator when she met Marilyn. Marilyn seemed to be waiting for her on purpose. The ridicule on Marilyn’s face deeply hurt Judith. She smiled faintly and greeted, "Mrs. Chaney." She was about to leave when Marilyn spoke. Marilyn crossed her arms around her chest and stared at Judith with contempt, "Just like I said, there are plenty of people, other than me, who want to give you a lesson to learn. I can give you a kind warning. You can never get along here if you don't have an influential acquaintance or supporter. "Even Frank backs you up, he can't protect you forever, can he?"

Marilyn's mocking tone was like a dagger in Judith's heart. She felt a formless pain all over her. She had never heard harsher words than Marilyn's. The pain she felt now was even fiercer than what she experienced seven years ago. Judith stood three steps away from Marilyn and looked up at her. She had concealed her painful expression. She fearlessly looked at Marilyn and said, "Mrs. Chaney, I think you misunderstood. I have nothing to do with Frank." Marilyn interrupted her with a sneer. "Judith, fine words are easy to say. If he has nothing to do with you, why would he introduce you to Darlene? Also, what's with Keven? "You seem to be very popular." Marilyn looked at Judith with narrowed eyes. And her words were full of implications. Keven was the real estate tycoon in Mayfield and Kimshire. It was difficult for Marilyn to meet him. When Judith heard this, she suddenly felt that Marilyn was unreasonable. She sneered and said, "Mrs. Chaney, your logic is too complicated for me to understand. Are you implying that a nobody like me has to live a miserable and contemptible life? "Do you think that I don't deserve to know any rich people "Besides, instead of standing in my way to mock me and tell me to stay away from Frank, why don't you go back and teach your daughter how to attract him?" Judith gave Marilyn a sharp glare and left.

She was not that weak and so she wouldn't allow others to bully her easily. She determined to fight back. She wanted to show everyone that she was not a silent lamb. She had learned too many things and established good relationships with people in this field in the past seven years. With such a fast-paced life and so much burden on her shoulders, she lived a hard and tiring life, trying to save every coin every day. During that period, she was luckily supported by her best friend and her beloved mother. When her life finally went back on track, she realized that only by having enough strength and competence can she have a secure and happy life. Though she didn't have much money, she could think of a way to earn it. Although she didn't have a car or a house, she believed that she would have those with her hard work. The tiredness and pain she experienced in the process could only be borne by herself. She would be very grateful for others' help. And she would make the most of others' help to strengthen herself. Judith was never a person full of complaints. She always kept one thing in mind if she was strong enough all difficulties would be trivial. No matter how tough a situation awaited her ahead, she would confront and solve it with her own hands. "Judith, stop," Marilyn caught up to Judith and blocked her way. Watching Judith leave proudly, Marilyn shivered in anger. It took her a lot of effort to persuade herself to beg Judith. "Judith, Frank is not an ordinary man. He grew up with Ann. And their relationship has been so good until you showed up. "Judith, I beg you. Leave Frank alone. Let him be with Ann. Ann has been crying all day today. She..." "Mrs. Chaney!" Judith interrupted her.

After looking at Marilyn for a while, Judith said, "Mrs. Chaney, don't be outrageous. Why do you always think that Frank and I are together? You want me to leave him alone? How hilarious,” Judith sneered. Seeing Marilyn was lost for words, she said sarcastically, “You have known him since he was a child. Do you think I can force him to do things he doesn’t want to? “I will tell you one last time. I have nothing to do with Frank. “Please don’t misunderstand our relationship again.” After Judith finished speaking, she turned and left. Marilyn couldn’t find another word to refute her, so she could only watch Judith walk away. Marilyn didn’t believe her words.’ If Judith had nothing to do with Frank, Marilyn couldn’t understand why he would treat her so nicely. Frank had never paid so much attention to any other woman. Judith was the first woman who could attract his attention. Marilyn stood still and contemplated with her head lowered down. In the room, Ann was getting more and more uneasy. She felt an unbearable heat over her body. She couldn’t tell the source of that heat, so she thought it might be for her over anxiety. In the lightless room, she lay on a soft bed, tossing and turning restlessly. If her plan worked out, after tonight, Frank had to marry her. And if she was so lucky to carry a baby this time, she would stand a greater chance to keep Frank by her side. Frank would have no choice but to marry her due to the pressure from their families. Suddenly, the door opened. She forcefully calm herself down a little bit to maintain her consciousness. “Frank,” she called out softly. There were two men who she couldn’t recognize due to the darkness holding a man. When they heard her pretentious, they felt goosebumps all over them. They threw the man onto the bed and ran out of the room. In the dim room, there left the man and Ann alone. They desired each other and indulged in this desire. They embraced, kissed, and never hesitated to do something more intimidating. The lustful sound echoed in the room. Anyone who heard this would blush. Outside the door, Frank stood straight with a gloomy face. Although he was well-dressed and charming, his expression would scare off anyone who came near him. Listening to the sound inside, he smiled coldly. “Ann, after tonight, you will know the consequence of scheming against me. “And Steve will know that he doesn’t even stand a chance to win over me if I start to take things seriously.” Edwin and Gary walked to Frank. Edwin patted his hand with a look of disdain. Gary knew it was because of his mysophobia. He pretended to kick Edwin a few times. He then looked at Frank with a strange smile, “Frank, everything is ready! Our game is on.” Frank looked at Gary with a cold, deep gaze and smiled mischievously, “Great, I have a big surprise for Gina now! Go and prepare!” Edwin glanced at Edwin and patted him on the shoulder. He smiled and said, “Genius, the rest is up to you. Whether this surprise is great or not or not depends on you!” Edwin’s gaze gently swept over them. Although he seemed gentle, what he did next would freak some people out.

He turned around and took out the remote controller of the TV hanging in the corridor. He pressed the button, and the TV channel switched to the scene inside the room. The two figures embracing together were too 09:29 indecent to see. Frank asked seriously, “Edwin, are you sure this can also be broadcasted live at that banquet?” He had to teach Gina a lesson for plotting this.

Chapter 156

Edwin looked at him indifferently and said in a low voice, “You can be assured.” Frank smiled coldly. He surely trusted Edwin. But, this scheme against him irritated him so much that he couldn’t allow any mistakes. “Let’s go!” Frank turned and walked towards the elevator. They left quickly, as there would be reporters coming over here in a while. Those reporters were called here by Steve to frame Frank, But now, he would have it coming. This would be a fair result for Steve. The three of them had just entered the elevator when Carlo and Gina walked out of another elevator. They walked to the arranged room. As for Frank, Edwin, and Gary, they had just left the elevator when they bumped into Patrick. Frank cast a sharp look on Patrick and asked anxiously, "Patrick, why are you here? I've told you to look after Judith." Patrick held up his phone and waved it in front of him. He smiled proudly, "I did take good care of her, but there were people who came to find trouble with her. And they did so because of you. They pointed at her and accused her of seducing you. "Here, I've filmed it to show you. The evidence says that you're the one to blame, not me." Frank glanced at the phone in his hand, depressed. His voice was extremely cold, "What happened? Where is Judy?" "Judy?" Patrick looked at him mischievously. "Frank, don't tell me that they were telling the truth?" Patrick had always been a gossip, especially when it came to news about Frank. He was curious about it. Frank frowned impatiently. Seeing this, Gary quickly walked over and patted Patrick on the shoulder. He said, "Patrick, don't be so vulgar? Do you think that Frank would give in to others' seduction? Are you stupid?" Patrick was about to speak when he saw Marilyn walking out from another elevator. The sound from the TV soon attracted her attention. She immediately stopped and looked at everything on TV in shock. Frank also saw Marilyn. The four of them quickly walked to the other side of the hotel. At this time, at the banquet, the big screen that was broadcasting all kinds of commercial information on the financial channel suddenly showed the same picture as on the TV in the corridor. Everyone was shocked! They couldn't keep their mouths shut to see this. Although it was dim on the screen, they could tell what the two people were doing. And some people who were familiar to them soon recognized who they were. "Look, isn't this Steve? Who is that woman?" The lights in the room were dim, and the woman's face could not be seen clearly "This, is this really Steve?" "What's going on with them? Is this a live broadcast?" "This is too shameless!" Everyone was gabbling. It only took Jason and Aiden one look to realize that the woman on the screen was Ann. Even though they couldn't see her face clearly, they could recognize her voice. They instantly put down their wine glasses and ran to the hotel. Gina and Carlo also stopped by the television and watched the scene in front of them in disbelief, especially Gina. "It should be Frank in the room with Ann. It couldn't be Steve!" thought she in shock. She immediately trembled in shock and anger. Carlo's face turned pale as he roared angrily, "What is going on here?"

"1. I don't know either..." Gina frowned. She sounded so upset. She didn't know what was going on. She had arranged everything in advance, so why would such a thing happen? She thought, "Damn it!! Who the hell was it?" "Which room is it? Find him! This brat! Our family already owes the Chaney family a lot. I wonder what will happen to us after this mess?" Carlo shouted angrily as he walked forward in a hurry. He could tell that it was Ann's voice. "Honey ... wait for me!" Gina was anxious. If it was Frank, the Chaney family would not say anything. But if it was Steve, the Chaney family would definitely make a big deal out of it. Suddenly, a group of reporters barged into the dark room. The lights in the room were turned on. They quickly took so many pictures of the two. "Get out, get the hell out of here." Marilyn ran in and pushed all the reporters out. With a bang, the door closed. Her cold gaze swept across the reporters who were taking pictures hurriedly with their cameras. She said coldly, "If you dare to report what happened tonight, the Chaney family will do anything to destroy you." One of the male reporters sneered, "Mrs. Chaney, don't think you can cover this up. Even if we don't report it, the people who see it at the banquet will tell everyone." "He's right. Mrs. Chaney, may I ask if the people inside are Ann and Steve? Are they really in love? Didn't they say that Ann is Frank's fiancée? How could she be with Steve ?” A female reporter asked perceptively. Marilyn closed her eyes, feeling a headache. How did everything become such a mess ? What Ann told her was that she wanted to go to the room to change her clothes. And when Marilyn went to the bathroom and saw Jolie insulting Judith, she decided to wait for Judith and ridicule her.

Just as she was about to leave, she heard her daughter’s voice on TV. This time, Ann really brought shame to the Chaney family. “Mrs. Chaney, please answer the question I just asked.” The female reporter looked at Marilyn with a sharp gaze and continued to press hard. This was breaking news. There had been rumors about the marriage between the Chaney family and the Taylor family, but they were all talking about Frank and Ann. But now they saw Steve and Ann together. Everyone was more or less disappointed, but it was still big news. “What the hell are you all doing ?” Carlo, who rushed over, let out a roar, causing all the reporters to look back at him.

The reporters immediately stopped shooting and looked at Carlo. “Mr. Taylor, we are just doing what we are told to do...” “Shut up. This matter stays here. You must not report this, or I’ll shut down your companies and ruin your career for good.” Carlo threatened the reporters. With the Taylor family’s status in Mayfield, he could shut down all the news agencies. The reporters looked at each other in dismay. They had heard that they could get big news here. Someone even told them the room number. So they rushed in here. The explosive news was something that every reporter wanted. Seeing that they were silent, Carlo looked even more gloomy and terrifying than before.

The way he talked made the reporters lower their heads and involuntarily take a few steps back.

Love At First Night Chapter 158

Chapter 158

Carlo roared, "Delete the photos. Delete them all. Delete them and you're good to go. Tomorrow morning, if any news agency dares to report it, I will shut them down." Then he picked up the phone and called his secretary. The secretary, Andrew, quickly brought two people over. Jason, who was not far away, cut off the power. The TV was turned off. Those embarrassing scenes vanished in no time. Seeing this, Marilyn heaved a sigh of relief. However, deep down, she understood that it was impossible to keep this a secret. However, as long as the news agency didn't release it, those who saw it at the banquet wouldn't dare to do anything. No one wanted to offend the two families. Besides, she looked at the TV carefully just now, and even she did not recognize that it was Ann. She could only tell the women's Ann by her voice. She was too anxious before. If she had not come over, she would not have been able to tell that it was Ann in the dark room. Andrew brought the reporters into another room. After that, Marilyn sat on the ground with a pale face, feeling exhausted. Jason saw her and immediately went forward to help her up. "Mom, are you alright?" Jason said in a cold, angry voice. He helped Marilyn walk to his room without even looking at Carlo and his wife. Aiden and his father, Collin, followed. Carlo looked at Collin guiltily. "Collin..." Collin waved his hand with a pale face and said in a low voice, "Let's go back to the room and talk." There were many people here, and if someone accidentally heard a sentence, it would cause Ann great trouble. Although Collin did not like Ann very much, he still regarded her as his kid. After all, she was still a member of the Chaney family. Carlo nodded and followed Collin with Gina. Before Gina left, she glanced at the door of the room. She could still hear them. Her face was gloomy, and blue veins bulged on her forehead. What exactly was going on? Where did Frank go? Gina was a little uneasy. She was afraid that Frank had set her up. Frank was someone you don't want to mess up with. Gina thought as she walked, "Isn't Frank trying to use what happened tonight to get rid of Ann, right?" But how did Frank know about her plan? Gina could not figure it out. Back in the room, Collin and his family sat on the sofa. The atmosphere was depressing. Gina and Carlo sat opposite them. The light was bright. They can see each other's faces clearly. Everyone put on a serious face and lowered their heads, without saying a word. If the people involved were not here, whatever they said would be in vain. All of them lowered their heads in anger and did not speak. Frank, Gary, Edwin, and Patrick returned to the room on the other side. Judith also changed her clothes and came along. She saw all of them. She was slightly surprised and asked, "Mr. Taylor, can we go back now?" She checked the time on her phone. It was still early. But she wanted to go back. After this day, she was very tired. Frank saw that she had changed her clothes. This dress was slightly longer than the one just now but slimmer. He smiled in satisfaction. He thought Judy was glamorous. "Judy, wait a moment. You can go back later." He was calm, and he restrained himself a lot in front of his brothers.

Judith nodded, "Then now..." "Judy, go back to your room and sit for a while. I will call you later." As Frank spoke, he extended his powerful arm and opened the door. Seeing this, Judith noticed he took on a serious face and turned back to the room. As Frank watched her enter, he smiled gently. He closed the door and glanced at Edwin. Edwin nodded and walked to the other room. The rest of them followed him. Edwin turned on his computer. It was the video of Ann and Steve. Edwin sneered and lowered the volume, showing them the video. Gary said with a smile: "They think that they will be fine after turning off the power. They are underestimating Edwin, our computer expert.” Frank sat back heavily on the sofa, his face terribly gloomy. “Unfortunately, there was a problem with the angle. We could not see Ann clearly.” His tone was cold. Patrick pursed his lips in fear. “Frank, don’t tell me you really want to destroy them.” Gary suddenly knocked on Patrick’s head and scolded, “Patrick, are you stupid? That mother and son pair wanted to kill Frank. Frank only retaliated this time. Which side are you on? Who are you speaking for?” Patrick touched his head and looked wronged. He just came back not long ago, how would he know what was between them? Frank glanced at him coldly. He pointed to Patrick’s phone with his slender fingers. Patrick understood. He quickly opened the video and silently handed it to Frank. Frank took the phone and watched the video with a gloomy look. Gary also tilted his head to watch. When he saw this, he was shocked. “Does Jolie want to destroy her family?”

The more Frank watched it, the colder his expression became. His thin lips were tightly pursed, and his deep eyes seemed to be flaming. It was as though he was going to lose his temper. Gary and Patrick looked at each other. The hostility that spread out caused the atmosphere in the room to become oppressive. Gary’s first thought was that the Kent family had come to an end. Frank watched Judith’s counterattack seriously. His eyes were fixed on her confident and calm smile. She gave people a strong and uncompromising feeling. Looking at the people who were gloating at her misfortune, his eyes burned with fury, and the hand holding the phone trembled with anger. He knew how indifferent the people in this world were. Judy was the person that he cherished most. But in that situation, no one was willing to help her. Everyone was enjoying the drama. “Edwin, starting tomorrow, cancel all cooperation with the Kent family.” Frank’s tone was cold and low, and every word was like a death sentence to the Kents. Gary and Patrick looked at each other. Indeed, it was as they thought. Frank would do everything to get what he wanted. "Got it!" Edwin replied casually. Gary glanced at Edwin, who was expressionless. He thought no one in this world was more suitable to be a secretary than Edwin. With such a delicate face, how could he be single? They were all handsome men, but none of them was taken.

He sighed. The Kent family could only admit that they were unlucky to have offended Frank's favorite person. Right now, Frank was the most powerful person in this city, and he was among the richest men in Acean. He could destroy Kent's company with a finger snap." Patrick was confused. Why did Frank suddenly care about Judith? He wanted to get to the bottom of it, but Frank looked so gloomy. He didn't dare to say a word to him. It was because Frank looked so cold and ruthless. "It's over!" Edwin said with a mocking smile. Frank stood up. His tall figure gave off a cold and oppressive feeling. "Keep the USB. I'll go pick up Judy." After that, he left the room with big strides. Only then did Patrick feel relieved. "Gary, why don't you tell me why Frank has undergone a tremendous change in merely half a month? He even did everything for Judith." Gary smiled slyly and patted Patrick on the shoulder. "Patrick, you haven't been doing well recently. You don't have to ask about this matter. You will know in the future. Let's end this show and go back to sleep." When Patrick heard this, he looked at Gary's back unhappily, "Gary, is there anyone like you as a friend? Also, won't watch the video again." Edwin walked past him and said with a smile, "Patrick, let's go! It's like this between friends. As for the video, it's disgusting. I also won't watch it." "Well!" Patrick snorted, "Edwin, hurry up and tell me, what exactly is going on? I'm almost going crazy from the torture. Tell me, ok?" Patrick begged Edwin with a sad face. He almost wanted to beg Frank. Dealing with him was so difficult. Edwin looked at him and smiled. “Patrick, don’t you know who I am?” With that, he put one hand in his pocket and elegantly walked out. His every move was especially eye catching among the few people. Patrick’s handsome face was twisted with anger. “How could you do this to me? And you call us best friends?” He roared and reluctantly followed them. In the room, Judith was sitting on the sofa. She quietly looked at the big bed not far away, with mixed feelings in her heart.

Judith was just halfway through her thoughts when she was pulled back by the sound of the door opening. When she heard it, she got so nervous. Her entire body tensed up as she stared at the door. Seeing that the person walking in was Frank, her heart beat faster. This was the place where everything had been destroyed, and also the place where she knew the truth. She looked at the man who was walking towards her. The chandelier shone on his beautiful face. The outline of his face looked more defined. His every move was calm and reserved. Frank raised his head, but Judith quickly lowered her head. When he saw Judith, his heart softened. He stood not far away, his eyes inadvertently glancing at the big bed not far away. That night, he could still tell how beautiful she was even when he was under the influence of drugs.
