

Love At First Night Chapter 171

Chapter 171

Gina glanced at Marilyn with a smile and said, “Mrs. Chaney, the Chaney family, and the Taylor family are old family friends. We’ve been neighbors for many years. Let’s leave the children alone. Let them deal with their problems.” “Yes! Mrs. Chaney, my mother is right. Ann and I want to settle this privately. The person that Ann likes is...” Ann interrupted Steve with a smile, “Steve, the person I have liked is you!” When Steve heard this, he glared at Ann and said angrily, “What a joke! Ann, why don’t you call a spade a spade? Think about it, who is the person you like?” Ann looked at Steve and said with a smile, “Steve, what are you talking about? The person I like is obviously you.” Marilyn frowned as she glanced at Ann.

She thought, “Why does Ann have changed so much?” Ann had always insisted on marrying Frank. Marilyn also thought Frank was a trustworthy person. She wanted Ann to marry Frank because Frank would give Ann a happy life. “That’s impossible. Ann, you’re lying. The person you like is obviously Frank. Something must have gone wrong. We had a deal. Frank should be the one who slept with you tonight. I don’t want to marry you.” Steve was full of evil ideas, but he had an impulsive nature. Steve, who was furious, couldn’t have laid it on thicker. After hearing what Steve said, Carlo frowned in displeasure. He narrowed his eyes and glanced at the flustered Gina. He thought, “Is she scheming against Frank again?” Carlo roared, “Don’t talk rot!”

Everyone looked at Carlo in shock.

Gina tried to smooth things over. She said with a smile, “Carlo, don’t be angry. Steve is drugged. He’s so angry that he’s talking nonsense. Don’t lower yourself to his level.” Steve was also very angry at himself for being impulsive. Carlo did not know what they did to Frank. If Carlo knew about this, he would definitely not spare Steve. The door was suddenly opened. Everyone was shocked. They quickly turned around and saw Frank standing in the dark light. He was handsome and had a saturnine manner. He came in with a scowl. Gina’s eyes widened and she was uneasy. She thought, “Why is he here so timely?” Frank swept his gaze across the crowd, and finally, his gaze fell on Steve. He said in a low voice, “When I passed by the door just now, I happened to hear my name, so I came in to take a look. I didn’t expect everyone to be here!” “Frank...” Ann looked at Frank in shock. When Frank heard this, he took a step back in disgust. Marilyn asked, “Frank, where did you go just now?” Frank replied indifferently, “I went back just now. I forgot to take something, so I came back.” After hearing this, Ann and Marilyn heaved a sigh of relief. Ann looked at Steve with tears in her eyes. She thought, “Frank should not know what happened tonight, right?”

Or,

Why did this happen to her? Steve questioned Frank angrily, “Is it you who did it, Frank?”

Love At First Night Chapter 172

Chapter 172

“What do you mean?” Frank cast a glance at Steve with a disdainful look. “You...”

Frank said in a cold voice, “I just heard you say my name. You said I should be the one who slept with Ann. What does this mean? Did I go back too early and miss some great fun?”

He gave Steve a wry look. When everyone heard this, they turned pale! Marilyn glared at Ann and finally understood what was going on.

Only Gina was able to think of such despicable methods. However, Ann was stupid and did as Gina said. “No! You heard wrong!” Steve was in a hurry to explain. For the first time, he felt so embarrassed in front of Frank.

“Since I heard it wrong, then you guys can continue chatting. I seem redundant here.” His voice was faint and his expression was cold. Frank turned around, smiled evilly, and walked away. He thought, “Gina, as long as I find my mother and Jodie, it will be time for you to go to hell.” As Steve saw Frank leave, he heaved a sigh of relief. Before he took over the Gita Group, he could not make any mistakes. He did not have the ability of Frank, and no one would help him except for his father, Carlo. Steve knew how cold blooded the people in this circle were after he had been in this circle for so many years. Carlo glanced at Gina. He knew he owed Frank and Frank’s sister too much. Carlo knew Frank had disliked Ann. He retracted his gaze and looked at the flustered Steve. He pursed his lips slightly and made up his mind. Carlo looked up at the angry Collin and said with a smile, “Collin, I think, since these two children are in love with each other. Why don’t we choose an auspicious day for them and let Ann marry Steve?” If someone made this public, it would be a disgrace to their two families, although Carlo had stopped the spread of tonight’s events. Collin glanced at Ann, and Ann also looked at him at this time. Ann knew that she couldn’t disgrace the family name.

Otherwise, Marilyn would be particularly disappointed in her. Ann always knew that she lived in the Chaney’s in place of Jodie. Under Collin’s gaze, Ann lowered her head silently. If Ann couldn’t marry Frank, she would have to marry Steve. What had happened tonight had been spread out. In these aristocratic families, no one would be willing to marry her. In the eyes of others, she was just a pawn of the Chaney family. Ann had been living carefully all this time, just wanting to live a rich life. Under everyone's expectant gazes, Collin slowly said, "As long as Ann is willing to marry Steve, we have no objections." Collin's words made Ann feel at ease instantly. As long as Collin agreed, Marilyn, Jason, and Aiden would not have objections. After all, she knew about them very much. Ann looked up at Marilyn uneasily, but Marilyn was looking at Ann coldly. Ann felt a little uneasy. She did not tell Marilyn about what happened tonight. Now that something went wrong and Steve was stupid enough to leak it out, Marilyn would definitely be angry with her.

Love At First Night Chapter 173

Chapter 173

Steve shouted, "Dad, I don't want to marry Ann." When Carlo heard this, his face darkened. He said angrily, "You bastard! Stop your nonsense! "If you don't like Ann, how do you want to explain what happened tonight? "How are you going to give Mr. Chaney an explanation? How are you going to give the Chaney's an explanation? You must be responsible for Ann. "Steve, as a person, you can't be ruthless!" Carlo was furious as he looked at Steve. But this was the only solution. Ann had agreed to marry Steve. If Steve refused, then the friendship between the two families would end tonight.

"L..." Steve didn't know what to say.

Although Jason had been present, he was always absent-minded. Aiden also didn't say anything. He didn't have many feelings for Ann. Marilyn insisted on bringing Ann back after Jodie was lost. However, Ann had been carefully living in the Chaney's. She wasn't as lively as Jodie at all. Gina glanced at Marilyn and then at Ann. She smiled elegantly and said, "Mrs. Chaney, their marriage should be founded on love..." "Gina, I know what you mean. You mean Steve doesn't want to marry Ann because he doesn't love Ann." Marilyn had always been straightforward. She knew what Gina wanted to do. When Gina heard this, she forced a smile. "Mrs. Chaney, you are mistaken about us. Steve may think that this matter is too sudden. After all, nowadays, most young people get married after the age of 30." Marilyn sneered, "Ann can't wait for Steve for so long. Does Steve want to marry Ann? As long as you tell us your answer now, we will never mention this matter again." "Marilyn." Collin looked at Marilyn with some displeasure. After all, the Chaney family and the Taylor family were old family friends. Marilyn's words were a bit unpleasant to hear. Marilyn glanced at Collin and said with a smile, "Did I say something wrong? It's obvious that Steve doesn't want to marry Ann. It's said that forced love does not last. If Steve doesn't want to marry Ann, we can't force him." When Marilyn brought Ann home, she would be responsible for Ann's future life. Marilyn wouldn't force Ann to marry a man Ann disliked. Although Ann was not her biological daughter, Ann had accompanied her for more than ten years. Therefore, Marilyn wanted her to have a good life.

Ann looked at Marilyn uneasily. In fact, she had never understood her mother since she was a child. Marilyn was strict with Ann. Ann had been trying to live according to Marilyn's requirements, but she felt that she was very tired. Carlo saw that Gina was about to speak, so he spoke first, "Marilyn, I think love grows over time. If Steve doesn't marry Ann, then he will have no chance to take over the Gita Group."

When Steve heard this, he trembled. He knew that his father was threatening him, Gina frowned. This was not the result she wanted. Steve glanced at Ann. Ann lost her virginity to him. He thought, "Even if I marry her, I won't suffer any losses."

Love At First Night Chapter 174

Chapter 174

Steve said with a smile, "I'll marry her. Dad, you're right. Love grows over time. Besides, Ann and I grew up together. I think we'll have a good marriage." When everyone heard this, their expressions were all different. Collin said with a grave look, "Steve, you can't regard your marriage as a trifling matter. Have you thought it about? Ann is my daughter, and we don't want her to have an unhappy marriage. If you don't like her, we won't force you." Steve touched his nose. He thought, "You shouldn't ask me this question." Collin should have asked Ann this question because Ann was the one who regarded her marriage as a trifling matter. Obviously, the person Ann liked was Frank, but she insisted on marrying Steve. Now, Carlo threatened Steve with the Gita Group, so Steve had to marry Ann.. With the Gita Group, Steve could have all kinds of women he wanted. He was willing to marry Ann and make her a trophy wife. Steve looked at Carlo and smiled, "Mr. Chaney, don't worry. I'm serious."

= = Steve was willing to marry Ann just because he wanted to get th Ann glanced at Steve and knew that Steve was not willing to marry her. However, she had been set up by Steve and Gina. She must get revenge. Steve was good-looking. His features were strongly defined. He was as handsome as those famous stars. However, he was a womanizer and had many lovers. Frank had always disliked her. In comparison, it would be easier to marry Steve. Jason got up and took his coat. He said coldly, "Since the matter has been resolved, I will leave first." After he finished speaking, he strode out with a long face. "Jason, do you have something on your mind?” Ann turned and asked Jason who was passing by her. Jason stopped and he glanced at Ann coldly, saying, “Mind your own business.” After saying that, Jason left. Ann sadly stood where she was and watched him leave. Ann just saw that Jason had been unhappy recently and wanted to care about him. – However, Jason had always treated her coldly. Marilyn also stood up and her face was full of fatigue. She looked at the crowd and said, “Since the matter has been resolved, let’s go back and rest. Gina, after you set a date, inform us.” Before Gina could say anything, Marilyn hurriedly chased out. “Mom, slow down.” Aiden helped Collin up. After they bid farewell to the Taylors, they went out with Ann. Marilyn ran out and saw Jason taking a taxi. She quickly walked over and stopped Jason. She asked angrily, “Jason, where are you going?” Jason looked at Marilyn coldly and said, “Mom, I have followed your request and break up with Sarah. Don’t interfere in my private life anymore.” After Jason finished speaking, he got in the taxi and asked the driver to leave.

Marilyn shouted as she looked at the taxi that was leaving, “Jason, come back. It’s so late. Where are you going?” She felt sad. She did this for the sake of Jason. Marrying a girl who was born in the purple would help Jason have a bright future.

Marilyn had grown up in this circle and knew how cold the people in this circle were. Only when the Chaney family was enough powerful would they have a good life.

T!!!

Love At First Night Chapter 175

Chapter 175

LOR

Collin, Aiden, and Ann also followed. Collin frowned and asked, “Marilyn, did anything happen to Jason? Recently, it seems that something was going on between you and him. Jason’s attitude towards you is so cold.” Collin felt a little helpless. He got a lot of working affairs every day, and now he even got home affairs to deal with. If Jodie was still there, she would definitely make him happy and let him forget all the troubles.

He missed her a lot! Collin shook his head. It was useless to think about that now. Perhaps he was now aged, he missed Jodie more and more. Marilyn glanced at him and shook her head. “It’s fine. Let’s go home!” Aiden went to get the car. Marilyn walked towards Ann and looked at her coldly. “Ann, tell me. Did Gina arrange everything tonight?” Collin frowned as he heard that. Ann knew that Marilyn had long realized it, but Ann could never admit it in front of Collin. Ann bit her lip uneasily and replied in a low voice, “Mom, I don’t know what happened. When I woke up, it just happened.” When Marilyn heard this, she frowned. It was obvious that Marilyn did not believe Ann’s words. “Ann, I hope that you can behave yourself. I will give you everything you want. But if you have any thoughts that you should not have, don’t blame me for being impolite.” Since she did not want Ann to be an ingrate, she had always been strict with Ann. But Ann was not as innocent as she had imagined. Ann was quite cunning. “Marilyn, how can you talk to Ann like that?” Collin knew that Marilyn had always been straight with her words, but it was very hurtful to be so straightforward. Marilyn glanced at him and said calmly, “Just leave this to me. I will handle it well!” Collin shook his head resignedly and said, “Fine. I won’t interfere. That’s not my thing either.” He just had to concentrate on looking for Jodie! Seeing that Aiden had pulled over, he directly got in the car. Marilyn glanced at Ann and said in an emotionless voice, “Let’s go. We’ll talk about it when we get back.”

Ann nodded and followed her with a sullen face. Gina returned home gloomily. What happened tonight caught her off guard. Why would it be Steve? This must be related to Frank. Her ideal daughter-in-law was not Ann. However, with Carlo around, she couldn’t lose her temper. She could only hold back her anger and go to sleep, but she failed to fall asleep all night. As for Judith, after changing her clothes in the hotel, she sat in the room waiting for Frank. She had no idea about the incident between Steve and Ann. So, she slept very well that night and slept until dawn. The next day, she went to work refreshed, but she found that Frank and Gary were out. During lunch, Edwin told her that something had happened in the Kimshire branch and that Gary and Frank had been there early in the morning. The matter between Ann and Steve had not been reported. However, it was already well known in the Line group of the socialites. The unbearable videos had been spread in the group. Ann was very uneasy when she saw those videos. Steve was recognized, but Ann was not. Everyone was discussing who that girl was. But Ann knew it clearly that she was just the girl and it would not be long before she was guessed.

Love At First Night Chapter 176

Chapter 176

It was the day for the employment application at the Taylor Group. Although she could not marry Frank, she also wanted to enter the Taylor Group with her capability. Ann had made up her mind that she must let Frank know how capable she was. So she went on her way to the personnel department of the Taylor Group well-prepared early in the morning. As an orphan girl, she had always been living her days in fear. She never knew what would happen in the next moment, nor did she understand why fate treated her like this. She had never gotten what she wanted.

After experiencing all kinds of changes in life, she had now shed the initial impetuosity and looked at the world in a humble manner. Ann entered the Taylor Group with a heavy heart, where she met Sherly at the door. Seeing the file in Ann's hand, Sherly glanced at Ann with disdain. She mocked, "So Miss Chaney stop living off her parents and wants to work now?" Sherly also came because of the recruitment information. She was upset that Hana had always occupied the position of design director. Now that finally there was a vacancy, there would be another designer transferred from the branch company, and it was very likely to be Judith. That was also why she came to the Taylor Group to apply for a job. She wanted to prove that Judith White was exactly Judith Cooper. Ann also looked back at her coldly and said sarcastically, "Same here. What? Give up on leeching off your parents now?" "What has it got to do with you?" What Sherly hated the most was the identity of Ann, a phony adopted from an orphanage. Ann used to be arrogant in front of Sherly, which made Sherly dislike her very much. When Sherly saw Ann, she would think of Judith and her mood would be inexplicably bad. Especially last night at the banquet, Judith had got Darlene's recognition. Thinking of that, Sherly was even more jealous. Sherly glared at Ann. Others might not understand Ann, but Sherly knew her well. In front of other people, Ann was arrogant and domineering. However, in front of the Chaney's, Ann always acted like a gentle sheep. Especially when she was with Frank, she was a total goody-two-shoes. Sherly couldn't help but feel angry at the thought of Ann's pretentious behaviors. "Then you don't have the right to ask me why I am here," Ann shouted at her sullenly and walked to the elevator. Steve had tormented her long last night. When she got up, her waist and back still ached. When she thought of what happened last night, she felt endless regrets and aggrievement. Sherly looked angrily at Ann's back. With Ann here, would she be able to get in? Fortunately, she had already made arrangements in advance! Sherly smiled secretly and followed. The elevator came and Sherly walked in on her 10cm high heels. Ann, who was standing aside, looked pale. Sherly glanced at her. Although they often argued, it was not to the point of ignoring each other. Sherly asked, "Oh right, Ann. You guys stayed with the Taylors last night. Who was the woman with Steve in the video?"

When Ann heard this, her calm mind was filled with a myriad of thoughts and fear. This matter was a ticking time bomb. She didn't even know if Frank knew. She quickly roared back nervously, "How would I know? Why don't you ask Steve about it?" Her relationship with Steve had not been announced yet. She regretted what she had done right after she went home last night.

Love At First Night Chapter 177

Chapter 177

Sherly was stunned by Ann's roar. "You can just say you don't know. Why are you shouting at me?" Sherly glared back at her fiercely and then turned away angrily. There were only them in the elevator. Thus the atmosphere instantly became a little strange. When the elevator arrived, Ann walked out first. Sherly followed behind her. They went to the hall and saw that the applicants had queued up in a long line. "Fuck! Is the Taylor Group that good? So many applicants have come for three positions!" Sherly instantly lost her confidence. "If you don't have the confidence, go back. Don't make a fool of yourself here." Ann glanced at her. Ann felt worried in recalling the design that Darlene had assigned her, of which the theme was autumn. It wasn't finished yet. The question setter was weird, no wonder why the theme was so strange. Ann wondered Judith would hand in the design before her. She was under a lot of pressure this time, but it was also a rare opportunity. If she succeeded, she would be famous throughout this opportunity. As Ann was speaking, she saw Judith, Edwin, and Myla walking over. Judith did not expect that Ann and Sherly were also the applicants. She remembered that Sherly also studied design and Sherly's family also owned a clothing company. Why would she come here? "Oh! Here comes the newly promoted director." Sherly looked at Judith with disdain, and the corners of her mouth curled into a mocking smile.

Judith knew Sherly. As the beloved daughter of the Cooper family, Sherly had always been arrogant. With a professional smile on her face, Judith said in a flat tone, "Ms. Cooper also wants to work in the Taylor Group?" No emotions could be told from such a faint sentence. "What? You can be here. Why can't I?" Sherly glanced at Judith with an unfriendly expression. She must find out whether Judith White was Judith Cooper or not. As for Ann, she only stood quietly aside. With one hand in his pocket, Edwin smiled. "Ms. Cooper, please be polite. This is the Taylor Group, not the Cooper Enterprise. If you are here to cause trouble, please leave. We don't accept biting dogs." Edwin was famous for being sharp-tongued in the circle. Many girls had received the most unforgettable damage from him. "Edwin, you..." Sherly was so angry that her eyes were wide open as she glared at Edwin. Her eyes immediately reddened, but she quieted down. She really wanted to work in the Taylor Group. They recruited people only because they had expanded their business this year. Many people had longed for a position in the Taylor Group. None of their employees could be underestimated

The people who came to apply were called in one by one and came out very quickly. They all left with disappointed expressions. Judith knew about the recruitment this time. This year's autumn clothing design had been decided. The people who were to be recruited at the moment were for the Market Department and the Sales Department. They needed to communicate with the customer service staff. Those people would also be in her team. They needed three people. One of them should be very familiar with the fabric and be able to accurately grasp the trend of the fabric.

Judith had been too busy to handle all the things alone, meantime they had expanded the business. So the Taylor Group announced the recruitment information. In all, these three people had to be familiar with the market and clear about the trend of every season. Judith took a look. There were still many people waiting for the interview. She glanced at Edwin. She had to go to the meeting anyway. The design of the new autumn products had been recognized and therefore they had to make the overall development strategy and market plan in advance.

Judith said, “Edwin, let’s go!”

Love At First Night Chapter 178

Chapter 178

“OK!” Edwin nodded calmly and glanced at Ann with his clear eyes before leaving, Myla gave Sherly a cheering gesture and left with Judith,

Ann, on the other hand, did not say anything from the beginning to the end, Ann did not dare to look at Edwin at all. He was Frank’s secretary and friend. He knew everything about Frank, He must know what happened last night. How she hoped what happened last night was just a dream, Ann and Sherly stood in place, not saying a word. Watching one left after another with disappointment, they were quite unsettled,

The recruitment requirements of the Taylor Group were extremely high. Although they both knew about design, because of their wealthy families, they had never officially worked as an employee. But they knew the trend of new products in every season well. Judith only focused on her work and didn't take the recruitment to heart. When it was time to get off work, she got off work on time. However, just as she stepped out of the company, she was blocked by a woman. "Ms. White, can I have a minute?"

Judith realized that it was the woman who had splashed wine on her last night. Jolie carefully looked at Judith as if she had never been arrogant and impolite to Judith. Unexpectedly, after only one night, her face was now haggard and pale, and her expression was extremely nervous. When Judith thought about how Jolie had deliberately splashed red wine on her, Judith's expression turned extremely cold. "There's nothing I want to talk to you about." Jolie anxiously looked at Judith and nervously said, "Ms. White, I know that I was in the wrong at the banquet. I can apologize. I'm sorry, I'm really sorry! Please ask Mr. Taylor to reconsider the cooperation with the Kent family." Hearing this, Judith frowned in confusion. Judith wondered, "What does she mean? Why does Jolie come to me for the contract? What does it have to do with me?" Judith, who had been busy all this time, did not know what had happened in the circle today. Frank had terminated all the cooperation with the Kent family. Frank had been, as always, decisive and ruthless in the business world. Judith was about to speak, but a cold voice came from behind. "Miss Kent, this has nothing to do with Ms. White. You've begged the wrong person." It was Edwin. Judith quickly turned back to look at Edwin, who had changed into a gray hoodie. It was the clothes made by Adam's company. Judith could tell at a glance. Jolie quickly looked at Edwin. All of the orders today were given by Edwin. The Kent family had always relied on cooperation with the Taylor Group. She had never thought that a glass of red wine and a few oral personal attacks would make her family bankrupt. She rushed to Edwin and cried, “Edwin...” “Go away!” Edwin did not give her a chance to speak, He glanced at Judith and said, “Ms. White, leave this to me!”

Judith nodded her head in confusion. She wanted to ask Edwin about what happened, but Jolie was here. Moreover, she still had things to do, so she really had to go. She said goodbye to Edwin, “Goodbye, Edwin!” Edwin nodded and glanced at Jolie as Judith left.

Looking at Judith’s back, Edwin felt that she looked particularly thin under the setting sun. But she was strong as well. His gaze was complicated and his beautiful eyes narrowed slightly. The most difficult thing in the world was to think for others wholeheartedly.

Love At First Night Chapter 179

Chapter 179

Frank would do anything for Judith.

As Judith walked away, Edwin glanced at Jolie, warning her in a cold tone, “Ms. Kent, it’s too late. Stop making a fool of yourself. The person who asked you to provoke Judith was to blame.”

After Edwin finished speaking, he left in a relaxed manner.

He stared at the setting sun. Only by enduring all the pain would one truly understand the fickleness of human nature.

Frank had been hurt a lot. That was why he never allowed anyone to hurt the people he cared about. To protect his friend, he could break a contract worth tens of millions without hesitation.

Jolie stood there in a daze for a while. She crossed her arms and slowly squatted on the ground, looking lonely and helpless.

The people passing by glanced at her and left in a hurry.

She looked painful. This terrible thing caught her off guard. She had thought her father was joking. It was just a glass of red wine. How could Frank terminate all the contracts with them?

But this morning, when Jolie was still asleep, her father woke her up and slapped her in the face.

She did not know what had happened.

But then her sister came in and told her everything in tears. Jolie got to realize how serious it was. Her family went bankrupt overnight. It made her feel great pain. She destroyed her family. Sherly had encouraged Jolie to humiliate Judith. Sherly always spoke ill of people behind their backs, and Jolie was easily fooled by her.

Jolie had realized her mistake.

She sat on the side of the road, crying miserably. The whole day, she and her father were busy looking for help. Unfortunately, no one was willing to help them. Instead, they humiliated her. Only then did she understand the fickleness of human nature. Judith went home and got down to business. Her son would come tomorrow. She was pressed for time.

After she got everything prepared, she made herself dinner. After that, she sat next to the computer with a cup of coffee, thinking about the topic that Darlene talked about.

She knew that Darlene was famous in the fashion world and had a high reputation.

If she could become Darlene's apprentice, she would be famous, too.

Judith was trying to know more about Darlene.

She had found a lot of information about Darlene online.

Darlene had never been married. When Darlene was young, she had been in a relationship. However, her boyfriend betrayed her. From then on, she had lived alone. Beyond that, her life was quite perfect. She knew what she wanted to do, and she had been striving for her goal all her life. Judith glanced over all kinds of information about Darlene. Finally, she found one of the posts on Darlene's Twitter.

There was a beautiful picture of Darlene with four lines of words written on it.

Love At First Night Chapter 180

Chapter 180

"People who live muddle-headed are easy to be happy, while people who live sober are easy to get worried." These few words seemed to have described Darlene's entire life. Judith gently stroked her chin and quietly stared at the words. Sometimes, the things lost in life never really belonged to you. Love wouldn't last. The biggest regret of Darlene's life was her romantic relationship. But why was the topic "Autumn"? Judith continued to search for information about Darlene, It was already ten o'clock in the evening, but she hadn't found anything special, Judith leaned back on the back of the chair with a strawberry lollipop in her mouth. She sorted out the information she had gathered in her mind. She decided to keep trying tomorrow. Suddenly, her phone rang. It was from her mother. Judith quickly picked it up. "Hello! Mom." "Judy, I've packed all of Lucas' things. He will come over tomorrow morning. I will get back after Emily's art exhibition is over. "Emily's two paintings were chosen by the exhibition. When Emily grows a little older, she can organize her own art exhibition. An art teacher takes a fancy to Emily's work. Emily has been very happy these past few days." Judith was also very happy, "Mom, thank you. The house is great. It only needs a little renovation. "We can move into our new home soon." Judith was overjoyed when she thought of the house. "Okay! I will send our things there little by little. Give me the address later. "I've applied plane service for Lucas. Don't worry." "Okay, Mom." Judith smiled happily. With her mother and children around, she was always full of energy. "Judy, Lucas wants to speak to you." "Alright!" "Mom!" Lucas said on the other side of the line. "Lucas," Judith smiled and replied, "I will pick you up at the airport on time tomorrow." "Okay, mom, good night," Lucas said affectionately. "Good night, baby." Judith smiled. She hung up the phone. She turned off the computer happily and got ready to sleep. The next day, Judith arrived at the company on time. Frank and Gary hadn't come back. Only Edwin was there. Judith walked over and smiled, "Good morning, Edwin!" "Good morning, Ms. White." Edwin smiled at Judith. Judith smiled back politely. "Edwin, I will finish my work this morning, and I want to ask for half a day off." Frank was not here, so she had to tell Edwin. "Alright!" Edwin readily agreed. Looking at Judith's smiling face, he smiled, too. Frank and Gary would come back today. "Thank you!" Judith smiled and nodded.

"Wow! I've never been here. Ann, this place is really luxurious!" An excited voice came from behind Edwin and Judith. They both turned around.