

Love At First Night Chapter 211

Chapter 211

Frank came to Gary's side. He sat down elegantly, then picked up the paper on the table and read it. Gary looked deeply at Frank and excitement was shining in his eyes. Frank's persistence all these years was right. Maybe it was because he didn't give up that he could be redeemed in this waiting. Gary smiled happily and patted Frank's shoulder heavily. He said, "Frank, your premonition is right. Judith is the daughter of Mrs. Chaney. Congratulations on finding Jodie who has been lost for more than a decade." At this time, Frank had opened the document bag. Gary's words made him overjoyed. He quickly looked at the results. He was holding the file with a trembling hand. He stared at the results and his eyes instantly turned red. He finally found Jodie.

Frank was so excited that his entire body trembled.

This was the first time in more than ten years that he was so excited. He thought, "Jodie, everyone says that you are dead, but I don't believe it. I always believe that you will definitely come back to me. That night, you were lost before you could celebrate my birthday with me.

Our parents often joked that when you grew up, you had to marry me.

At that time, I felt that they were very bored. We were still young. It was too early to say such things.

But you always promised happily that you would marry me when you grew up." Frank was immersed in his memories. He remembered that she was a cute girl with a pair of big eyes. Her eyes always shone brightly when she saw him. Gary looked at the excited Frank and was also very happy for him. Frank had a deep affection for Jodie, and the two families agreed that Frank married Jodie after the two grew up. Frank did not get love from his parents. Instead, he got a trace of warmth from Jodie. Perhaps, after so many years of waiting, Frank had treated Jodie as the only wife in his life.

The office was quiet and Frank's heart was pumping with excitement.

He looked very happy. Gary asked, "Frank, now that you've found her, what are you going to do?"

Frank's biggest enemy was Gina who was scheming. Gina was the one who caused Mila, Frank's mother, to leave. Now no one could find any trace of Mila. Gina always wanted to kill Frank and monopolize the property of the Taylor family. Frank drank a few cups of cold water before he calmed down slightly. He looked at Gary and said, "Other than the two of us, no one else is allowed to know this matter. After | completely deal with Steve, Eliza, and Gina, I will take her home. The three of them can't kill me right now.

"It is because they don't know my Achilles' heel. They can't get the goods on me. "Moreover, if Ann knows that we have found Jodie, she would not let Jodie go. To wait for you to come back and hear the answer she wanted, she did not hesitate to scald Mrs. Chaney. "My mother doesn't come back in so many years. I think it must be because Gina has done something secretly. "Maybe Gina knows the whereabouts of my mother. After I find my mother, I'll take Jodie back to the Chaney's." He was afraid that Ann would do something to hurt Jodie.

Love At First Night Chapter 212

Chapter 212

Gary nodded with a grave look, saying, "Frank, I know what to do now. But I still want to congratulate you. "Not only did you find her, but you also had children with her. Frank, in fact, your insistence on looking for her is right “We all think that she is dead. You are the only one who insists on looking for her. In the end, you finally find her. You’re a lucky dog.” Gary looked at Frank in admiration. As long as one kept moving forward, he could get closer to happiness! Frank smiled happily. He looked at the lights outside the window and suddenly felt that the city was so beautiful. “Yes! I’m very lucky.” This was the happiest night of Frank’s life in more than a decade.

His eyes filled with tears. For so many years, Frank had always believed that Jodie was still alive and had just forgotten her way home. It didn’t matter. As long as he found her, he would take her home. “Gary, thanks for your hard work these past few days.” Frank looked at Gary with a grateful smile. Gary’s face lit up when he heard this. He looked at Frank with a faint smile. At this moment, Frank’s eyes were bright and clear. Gary said, “You’re welcome, Frank. “However, I’m indeed very tired. Why don’t you give me a few days off?” When Frank heard this, he suddenly put on a long face and said, “In your dreams! There are many things to deal with in the company.” Frank thought, “Even I have no time to relax!” When Gary heard this, he sighed. But he suddenly thought of a thing and asked, “By the way, how should we deal with the Cooper family? Sherly has lived with Judith for more than ten years. Although someone helped Judith erase a lot of traces, Sherly would not get the wrong person.”

Frank suddenly narrowed his eyes and said, “Didn’t you say that they were buying the shares of the Cooper family? Jodie wants to take revenge. We can secretly help her.” Gary said, “Okay, then I will investigate the situation of the Cooper family. Sherly also comes to our company. “She must want to confirm Judith’s identity. The Coopers probably want to know if Judith White is Judith Cooper, Judith is already a famous designer in Kimshire. “This time, you saw her design philosophy and decisively transferred her back to the headquarters.

“Moreover, with Judith’s talent, she will soon be able to make a name for herself in the design industry.” Frank nodded with a bright smile and said, “Back then, because Jodie said she wanted to be a fashion designer, I devoted myself to the design industry after she was lost. “Even if she didn’t come back, she wouldn’t forget her ideals. “In the end, I finally find her in the design industry. He was the happiest man in the world right now. Excitement was shining in Frank’s eyes, Gary was shocked by the happiness on Frank’s handsome face Frank gave a smile as he sat across from Gary, crossing his legs. It was the first time that Gary saw Frank give a hearty laugh. At this moment, Frank looked very charming. Gary was really happy for him.

Chapter 213

“Interesting...” Gary smiled and continued, “Frank, I have never seen you smile like this since we know each other. It’s beautiful.” Frank looked at him, raised his eyebrows slightly, and explained patiently, “Gary, you don’t understand. Judy gives me a lot of happiness, so strong that I want her so much. She only b That was true. She had always belonged to him.

They met each other under such circumstances seven years ago and had a baby, a representation of their love.

But at that time, he didn’t recognize her. He really regretted it. She had to suffer for seven years! He thought, “Judy, I will make it up for you for the rest of my life.” The soft wind blew in from the window, very comfortable.

Frank was brimming with happiness, very relaxing. Judith said goodbye to Adam after dinner and then headed back home. The yellowish street lamp was on her face, on which there was an innocent smile. It was a smile that no one could look away from when they saw it. The simple suit fully showed her graceful shape. Lucas looked up and found that lights in many houses were on.

The night sky was very bright tonight. Now the lights of thousands of houses answered the stars in the sky.

He glanced at his mother and saw her bright face. He also smiled and said, "Mom, you are very happy whenever you are with Uncle Adam."

He found that Judith's smile was very warm, just like the rising sun, which could warm his body.

People found their anger disappear when they saw her smile. Uncle Adam told him that Judith's smile was very infectious and could give people positive energy.

Judith smiled and nodded. "Lucas, in my entire life, the people I owe the most are Adam and Alissa. They are the ones who have contributed to our happy life. You must remember this when you grow up." Lucas nodded, "Mom, don't worry. You have always told us that we need to be grateful. The three of us will remember their kindness."

Judith smiled and nodded. They chatted all the way home. "Lucas, it's the weekend tomorrow. I don't need to work. I'll show you the new house. I like it very much."

"Mom, is the money enough?" Lucas was a little worried.

Judith frowned, thought for a moment, and said, "Lucas, don't worry. I will check it in the bank tomorrow. If it is not enough, we can get a loan first. I will work hard and pay it back in a few years," "OK!" Lucas nodded. Eric said that he had made enough money over the past six months, but it seemed that Judith had not checked it. Frank had walked on the road several times to completely suppress the excitement in his heart. He then took a shower before going to see Judith and Lucas. Now he was standing at the door of Judith's apartment, with a lot of things he had bought. He frowned slightly when hearing their conversation.

The housing prices in Mayfield had always been high. But how could he help Judy? Judith had just reached the fifth floor when she looked up and saw Frank standing at the door of her house. The dim light at the top of the stairs didn't hide the domineering aura from his tall figure. The corners of his mouth curled into a warm smile as he quietly looked at them.

She was very surprised and asked, "Mr. Taylor, why are you here?"

Chapter 214

Why could she always see him? What exactly was wrong with him? Frank gently stared at her surprised little face. Her eyes were as bright as when she was little. No wonder he felt a sense of familiarity when he first met her. He thought, "Judy, it's me. I'm Frank. Have you forgotten everything?" "Judy, I came to see Lucas. Sorry I didn't have time to treat him to a meal." Frank found an excuse. Knowing the truth, he just wanted to see her as soon as possible. Judith frowned, silent. "Hello, Mr. Taylor!" Lucas also greeted him. Frank looked at him and smiled. "Lucas, you did not call me like that. Why do you call me Mr. Taylor now?" In fact, he wanted Lucas to call him Dad, but now it was not the right time. He could take them home a few months later. The home belonged to them. Judy liked glass rooms, and rooms on the top floor of his villa were exactly glass ones. Now he finally realized that as long as he moved in the right direction, he would be closer to happiness, even if it was a hard journey. "Because you are my mother's boss." Lucas's tone was indifferent. So was his handsome face. Frank smiled. "Lucas, just call me Frank from now on.” Lucas nodded but said nothing. Judith walked up to him, took out the key to open the door. Frank took a step back. He followed them in after the door was open, with those stuff in his hands. He went to the supermarket to buy a lot of things with Gary, which was an excuse for his coming to see her. Otherwise, he would not be able to sleep tonight. He put the things on the tea table and said, “Judy, I’m here to see you. Have you recovered?” In fact, it was the happiest day of his life. He came over just to tell her that she was Judy, the girl he had been looking for for more than ten years. However, he could not say it now. Gina, that vicious woman, would definitely hurt Judith and Lucas if she knew the truth. He had escaped death again and again to find evidence. He would put them into jail when the right time arrived.

Judith gave him a glass of water and smiled. “Mr. Taylor, I am much better now. Thank you for coming to see me.” “Judy, it’s nothing.” His gaze followed her all the time, with an emotion that Judith could not understand. Perhaps few people could see through such a deep and unfathomable man. Frank looked up at Lucas who was sitting at the side, asking, “Lucas, what do you want to do tomorrow?” Lucas glanced at his mother and replied, “See the new house with my Mom.” Frank nodded, looked at Judith, and said, “Judy, I’m free tomorrow. Shall go with you? If you need interior design, I can recommend to you a professional team...” “Mr. Taylor, thank you for your kindness. But there is no need. The house is quite good.” Judith interrupted him with a smile. She didn’t know what was wrong with Frank. She had a feeling that he was deliberately being nice to her! Even though she found it was impossible, she couldn’t explain all this.

Moreover, with three children to raise, she couldn’t afford the design.

“Alright!” Frank lowered his eyes slightly and restrained the disappointment in his eyes.

Love At First Night Chapter 215

Chapter 215

“Mom, I’m going to take a bath.” Lucas stood up, glanced at Frank, and said, “Good night, Frank.” “Good night!” Frank replied with a smile. But he didn’t want to leave. Lucas gave him a deep look before walking to the bathroom. Frank sat quietly, showing no sign to leave. Suddenly, there were sounds from his belly. He looked at Judith awkwardly and Judith looked at him in shock. Why hadn’t he eaten yet? Was he coming here to have dinner?

“You...”

They spoke at the same time. Frank looked at her and said in a pleasant voice, “Judy, you say first.” Judith glanced at his belly and asked, “Mr. Taylor, haven’t you had dinner?” “No!” Frank nodded. This question was exactly what he had been expecting. He didn’t feel hungry when waiting for news from Gary. Now his stomach sold him out. But the rumble came at the right time, giving him another excuse to stay. “Then you...” “Judy, make me something to eat. I just got off work and forgot to eat.” It was a wonderful excuse! Now he had more time to stay with her. He had been looking for her for more than ten years. Fortunately, he found her in the most beautiful years of his life.

Although the waiting was painful, he received a good result. He thought, “Judy, thank you for coming back like this. Judy looked like a strong career woman when she worked, but she behaved like a child in daily life, gentle and cheerful, just like when she was little. Especially when she was with Adam and the kids, the smile on her face was very sunny. Judith looked at him awkwardly and said, “I only have noodles at home now.” “Then I’ll eat noodles.” Frank looked at her quietly. No wonder he felt that her eyes were very familiar when the first time he saw her. It turned out that her big bright eyes had long been put in the depths of his soul, mixing with his bone. That was why he felt them so familiar.

Judith nodded reluctantly and got up. Since he had already said so, how could she say no? Perhaps all women in Mayfield wanted to cook for him! But she didn't. This man must be born to torture her. From the first day she met him, she was involved in his bad things. "Wait for a while. I'll go cook the noodles." After Judith finished speaking, she walked toward the open kitchen. As Frank looked at her back, the corners of his lips curved up. She had always been very kind. The world had let her down, but that didn't change her kindness. Looking at the busy figures in the kitchen, he felt satisfied and happy. He calmly took out his phone, turned on the video, and recorded her. From the video, he could see gorgeous luster emitting from the faint smile on her red lips. When the water on the induction cooker boiled, she took out a handful of noodles and put them into the pot. She stood there and waited, watching all the noodles slide into the pot. Then she walked to the refrigerator and took out a tomato and two eggs. She bought them when she went to the supermarket last time. She took the kitchen knife and the chopping board from the knife rack, washed the tomato, and then began to chop. Frank recorded everything she was doing.

Love At First Night Chapter 216

Chapter 216

It's said that one would find his beloved girl the most beautiful one when she was cooking for him in the kitchen. Now he found it was true.

He wore a gentle smile throughout the recording. He smiled much more than he had done in the past ten years.

Lucas came out without making much sound. He squinted slightly when seeing Frank recording his mother,

What was Frank trying to do ?

Although they looked definitely like father and son, the way Frank treated his mother was weird. A bang came. Lucas deliberately' knocked on the door. Only then did Frank realize that Lucas was here. He quickly saved the video and put the phone on the coffee table. He turned around and was slightly relieved to see that Lucas was changing his shoes. He was too engrossed just now. Fortunately, Lucas didn't see that. Seeing Lucas come out, Judith said, "Lucas, get a cup of hot water and dry your hair. Don't catch a cold." "Okay, mom!" Lucas returned to the table, poured a cup of hot water, and drained some. He gave a strange look to Frank who was smiling and turned back to the bathroom to dry his hair. Frank looked at his little back and felt a little distressed. What a good kid!

His behavior was just like an adult's, very sweet. Eric was also a good boy, but he was more outgoing.

Deep inside Frank's heart, there was an indescribable emotion emerging. At this time, Judith had already cooked noodles. It was tomato and egg noodles, which took only a little time. She served the noodles and placed them in front of Frank, "Mr. Taylor, they are tomato and egg noodles. Get some to meet your need." Her tone was indifferent, even carrying a sense of alienation and courtesy. "Alright! But are there really only noodles?" Frank looked at her, his eyes unfathomable. Judith suddenly raised her eyebrows and looked at him, "Frank, it's at night. At least you have noodles to eat. You should feel happy! Don't be so picky. Eat quickly and go back to your house." She looked at him with a cold face. His insatiable desire had worn down her. "I am indeed very happy!" He gave her a gentle smile and lowered his head to eat the noodles. Judith was stunned by the gentle smile and somewhat touched at his words. She narrowed her eyes slightly. There was something wrong with Frank. He was overacting! Judith looked at Frank, who was enjoying the noodles. She had always been a good cook. When she was in the Cooper family, other family members would never wait for her to eat together, and the servants would not leave her meals. So she had to cook for herself every time she went home. Gradually, she became a good cook. After having babies, she spent a lot of time learning to cook. Frank really liked the noodles. The ravioli she prepared the last time was very delicious, but the noodles were more than that. He looked very satisfied, but Judith was confused. Suddenly, Judith's phone rang. She took a look and saw that it was from her mother. She glanced at Frank and said, "I'll answer the phone." With that, she walked over to the kitchen to answer it. Frank looked up at her back. Who was it? Why did she make it so mysterious? Was it Adam again?

on it. He could see that inside was a platinum famous watch. He found it somewhat familiar.

Love At First Night Chapter 217

Chapter 217

Frank glanced at Judith, who was talking on the phone. He picked up the watch and looked at the familiar patterns on the back. Suddenly his eyes shrank. It was his watch, a custom-made one. He didn't find it after waking up that day. Obviously, it was taken away by the woman who had been with him that night. There was also a ring from his mother. He had always cherished it. But it also disappeared that night. He looked inside the box but did not see the ring. It turned out that Judy just put it under a coffee table. She had never wanted to find Lucas's father at all. Was that night so humiliating for her? No! Frank soon found it was impossible. He pursed his lips slightly. She was designed by the Cooper family that night. However, she did not feel humiliated by the unexpected pregnancy but worked hard to raise the children. Frank couldn't figure out the answer. He picked up the bowl and drank the soup. When Judith returned, he stood up and looked at her. The combination of his tall figure and handsome face gave him a sense of nobility whenever he moved, with his charming brows, and deep and sharp eyes. The evil smile on the corners of his mouth was dazzling, "Judy, it's too late. I will go back first. You should rest early." "OK! Take care. I won't see you off." Judith nodded, wishing he could leave as soon as possible. Frank raised his eyebrows slightly and deliberately asked, "What? Judy, you don't want me to leave?" Judith was speechless. Her big eyes were wide open as she stared at him. Did she show any sign of that? She could clearly feel that there were words on her face to urge him to leave as soon as possible. "Mr. Taylor, you haven't full yet, right? How about I make you another bowl of noodles?" Her tone was full of malicious intent, and a trace of craftiness flashed in her eyes. She really wanted to stuff him, to the point that she needed to call an ambulance for him. "Alright! I'm still a little bit hungry." Frank said, about to sit down. He really meant it! Judith quickly said, "Frank, hurry up and leave. There are no more noodles. You've eaten all of them. You should leave now." Frank's lips curved into a devilish smile. She looked really cute when she was anxious. "Judy, then I'll buy some tomorrow. See you tomorrow." Frank smiled slyly, and then turned around elegantly, very pleased. Judith looked at his back, wanting to smash the bowl on him. He wanted to come tomorrow night! Frank said goodbye to Lucas in the bathroom before he left. Judith looked at his back and blushed with anger. She tried to play tricks on him but he took them. Perhaps she would never learn her lesson until falling in the same place again. He would come back tomorrow! What was he trying to do? "Mom, wash and sleep." Lucas stood not far away and said. Judith snapped out of her daze, nodded, and walked toward the bathroom. Under the neon lights, cars came and went. Frank walked back all the way, he felt very happy even if it took a long time. He had been giggling along the way. One could only live once.

Fortunately, he treasured time, and time also treated him well in return. After the long simple journey of life, he found the beautiful scenery at the end of it.

Early the next morning, Judith woke up early. She got changed and went out after preparing breakfast and finishing it with her son.

Love At First Night Chapter 218

Chapter 218

After she got changed, she looked for something in her suitcase. She fumbled for a while and suddenly saw a platinum ring in the corner. She looked at it with some doubt, and then something bad instantly occurred to her. But when did she put this ring in her suitcase? She thought about it and found that she did not take it when she left that night. Now its appearance reminded her of the humiliating thing that night. Judith narrowed her eyes. Since she was back, why not do something? She was no longer the former Judith Cooper. She had now transformed herself.

She thought about it, and then a touch of cunning crossed her beautiful big eyes. She thought, "Julissa, you hit me with your car and made me lose my family. You ruined my life. Now I will let you pay everything back!" She got up, and a strong hatred appeared on her face. She glanced at Lucas and found that he was still washing up. She then took out another phone from the interlayer of the suitcase. Julissa had never changed her phone number these years. She turned on her phone, quickly typed a message, and sent it over. Adam prepared this SIM card for her. No one could find her information via it. After sending the message, she turned off her phone and put it back in the interlayer. The Cooper's was as luxurious and noble as seven years ago. On the weekend, Julissa received a message when she was enjoying her breakfast with her family at home and chatted. She just glanced at it as she thought it was from the service provider. But then she quickly picked up the phone and saw that it was from an unknown number. “You hit someone and ran. Do you think you can escape?” Julissa trembled in fear because of these simple words. The phone fell on the table and bounced down, making a crisp sound.

Sherly and Baron looked at her in surprise. Her face was pale and there was obvious fear in her eyes. Sherly asked doubtfully, “Mom, what’s wrong?” His words pulled Julissa back from her daze. A trace of panic appeared on her elegant face as she struggled to pull out a smile, “It’s nothing. You guys have breakfast. I didn’t hold it steadily.” She slowly lowered her head and picked up the phone on the ground and then walked upstairs. As she turned around, her face was filled with worry and fear. After doing that guilty thing, she had always felt uneasy. But that happened a few years ago. She had done many bad things, but she still lived a prosperous life. Gradually, she did not believe that she needed to pay the price one day. However, this strange message reminded her that her happy life was coming to an end. It must be Judith! No, she knew nothing about what happened back then. Only the Coopers knew that. Who could she be? Was that woman Judith? She looked exactly like Judith. Julissa did not believe that two persons would look so similar. Julissa returned to the room upstairs, uneasy. When she opened the door, everything extremely luxurious inside could be seen.

Scott stood in front of the bright mirror, putting on a tie. Although he was already middle-aged, he looked still handsome with his thick black hair, extremely charming.

Love At First Night Chapter 219

Chapter 219

Julissa glanced at Scott and asked doubtfully. "Scott, are you going out this weekend?" Scott didn't turn around and replied indifferently. "This weekend, I'll visit a friend." Every weekend, Scott would go out for a day on the grounds of meeting friends. Sometimes, he would not even return at night Julissa was already in a bad mood. When she saw that Scott did not even look at her, she became much angrier. She shouted angrily, "Every Saturday, you will go out and not even come back. Who are you going to visit?" Scott had finished putting on his tie. He turned around and looked at Julissa, who was hysterical. He frowned and said unhappily, "Julissa, can't you be a little gentler? I have to work on weekdays. And I want to see friends on the weekend and relax. Do you even care about this?" "But you don't need to go every weekend."

Julissa had doubts in her heart. She and Scott was a couple in adversity. She had always been confident in her appearance and believed that Scott would not betray her. Scott usually went to work and didn't have much time to accompany her. Even during the weekend, he only accompanied her for half a day. The rest of his time was spent on work and meeting friends. "Julissa, I have to work hard and socialize. If I don't make friends and sign the contracts, how can I learn the money for you and Sherl to buy luxury goods? "I am so tired every day, just to satisfy your vanity. I want to go out on the weekend to relax. Are you so against it?"

Scott shouted angrily, picked up his business bag, and left. The sound of the door closing made Julissa jump in fright. Scott slammed the door and left. Julissa looked at his back and gripped her phone tightly, trembling in anger. "Scott, you bastard! I propped up this family step by step. How can you shout at me?" Julissa roared angrily and sat on the sofa again. Her eyes were closed, her slender body leaned against the sofa, and her chest heaved up and down, Julissa suddenly glanced at her phone. She had originally come to talk with Scott about the text message. But they fought out of anger and she forgot about it completely Back then, Scott was timid. She was the one who drove the car and hit Judith. If she told Scott about this, with his timid personality, he would probably be in big trouble. Scott had never allowed her to mention this thing in front of him all this time. He didn't treat Judith well because Judith's existence kept reminding him that the Coopers were criminals. Julissa gradually calmed down. She thought, "I can't panic. Even if I tell Scott about it, he would not be able to solve it. I had better solve it privately on my own." She picked up her phone and called her secretary, Joe Hawker. "Joe, help me investigate a phone number. I'll send it to you on Line." Then, Julissa hung up the phone and sent the phone number to Joe. She sat in the room and waited for the news anxiously. She was not afraid of anything, but the matter of Judith would destroy the entire Cooper family. Back then, she had passed through the bustling area of Mayfield. The child who appeared there was not simple. In order to cover up this matter, she did not dare to look through the news about searching for a child. More than ten years ago, communication was not as developed as it was now. They hid deep in the mountains and forests for a few years and knew nothing about the outside world.

Love At First Night Chapter 220

Chapter 220

Therefore, Julissa had never investigated Judith's identity. Once she investigated, someone would notice her. This matter was the thing that she feared the most. Julissa tightened her grip on the phone nervously as she waited for Joe's call. Judith put on a gray leisure suit and sports shoes and looked young and beautiful. She would like to go out with Lucas. But when she opened the door, she was instantly dumbfounded. She wondered, "Why is Frank standing here?" His perfect lips, faint smile, and handsome face were all pleasing to the eyes. Frank brought two large bags of things, including noodles, instant food, and a lot of other things. He said in a gentle voice, "Judy, Lucas, good morning!" "Good morning, Frank.” Lucas greeted him indifferently. Judith said angrily, “Mr. Taylor, didn’t you wake up? You are at the wrong place early in the morning.” Frank smiled and said, “Judy, I was at ease and slept well last night.” She was his dream for the rest of his life. He finally found her. So he could certainly sleep well. Judith was speechless. Frank looked down at the things in his hand, then looked up and smiled wickedly. “Judy, didn’t you say that I ate all your noodles? I will bring you some.” Judith could say nothing. He knew clearly that her words were just an excuse. But he took it seriously. Frank looked at her helpless and pretty face, smiling. He said with an evil gaze, “Judy, step aside first. I’ll bring things in. Lucas said he would eat with me today.” Lucas was speechless, too. He looked deeply at Frank, who was lying in front of him. “Is it good to lie in front of a child? When did I promise him?” Judith looked down at Lucas and asked silently, “When did you promise him? Why didn’t I know?” Lucas shrugged his shoulders helplessly at Judith. “I had never promised him.” Seeing that Frank insisted on coming in, Judith could only make way. Frank looked at her with a faint smile and walked in with his things. Judith and Lucas could only follow in. Frank seemed to have returned to his own home. He put the things on the table, and then put them into the refrigerator. The refrigerator was originally empty but instantly stuffed full by him. Frank thought with satisfaction, “They are enough for several meals. Judy, from today onwards, I will be the one to protect you.” She was his childhood sweetheart, as well as his wife. While waiting for her, his love for her became stronger and stronger. After doing everything, Frank turned around and looked at Judith and Lucas not far away. He smiled and said, “Judy, where are we going now?”

Judith looked at him and complained in mind, “I only promised him to treat Lucas to a meal. I didn’t mean that he could stay with Lucas for the whole day. Why is he so free?”

22 cm As the president of a company, shouldn't he accompany his partners to play golf and socialize during the weekends? How can he have the time to accompany Lucas and me?" Judith was puzzled, but she could not ask Frank directly. She had not figured out Frank's purpose. She said, "I want to go shopping with Lucas. It's boring. Mr. Taylor, please go back and rest." Men never liked to go shopping, especially men like Frank.

Judith said it on purpose.
