

Love At First Night Chapter 221

Chapter 221

However... Frank quickly shook his head. "Judy, I won't. I haven't been shopping for a long time either. It's so good to go shopping with Lucas." Judith narrowed her eyes and looked at Frank. "This bastard, what is he trying to do? He is a diamond bachelor. I am a married woman with three children. Why does he pester me?" "Let's go, Lucas," Frank said. Judith was unwilling, but it was not up to her. Frank couldn't help but think, "I want to marry Jodie only. She is still as kind and cute as when she was a child. My Jodie has finally returned. If I want to obtain Judy's heart, I have to capture her two sons' hearts first." He had discussed it with Gary when he went back last night. "OK." Lucas could do nothing even if he was unwilling to go. He thought, "Mom works in his company. If I offended him, he may make things difficult for Mom." Lucas could only bear with Frank. But later, Frank and Lucas began a hot discussion. Frank was talkative and would tell Lucas patiently whatever he wanted to know. Judith followed behind them. For the first time, she found that Lucas could also talk so much. It was not that Lucas did not like to talk, but she did not know him well. She was always busy. And Lucas was always obedient. She wondered whether she had ignored Lucas's feelings. She also knew that silent children needed more care. When she had time, she would communicate with Lucas, but Lucas had never chatted with her like this. On the contrary, Eric and Emily were chirping like birds, and their happy voices could be heard at any time. They were not going shopping, but walking along the river. When they reached the place where Sarah committed suicide, Frank brought Lucas across the bridge. Judith had not said a word along the way. She just quietly followed behind the two, and she felt a bit strange. Finally, they went to the bustling Wagon Street. Frank looked at the time all the way. Today, he canceled all his work, just to accompany Judith and Lucas. When he arrived at Wagon Street, Frank glanced at his phone. It was almost eleven o'clock, and it was time for dinner. For the first time, he found that time had passed so quickly. He turned around and looked at Judith, who looked unhappy. She had her head lowered and was quietly following behind them. "It is Jodie. Her personality has not changed much. She will listen silently and not disturb others. Her happy smiles can infect the people around her and make them feel as happy as her." Frank stopped thinking and asked, "Judy, shall we go for lunch?" Judith looked up at him bitterly. She seemed to say, "You have robbed my happy time with Lucas!" "Can I refuse?" She said in a low voice. "No," Frank said with a smile. "Then let's go. Since you treat us, I won't miss it." Judith pursed her lips. Frank looked at her and smiled gently. He wanted to knock her on the forehead like when he was a child. He wanted to tell her, "Don't pout. A soy sauce bottle can be hung on your lips now." "Then I'll take you to eat delicious food." Frank turned around and looked at the surroundings. He often came here. He decided to go to the places he liked. He thought that Judith would like the dishes too. Frank took Judith and Lucas to a high-end restaurant for French food and booked a private room. The environment in the restaurant was good and it was quiet. The popular light music made people feel at ease. After ordering the dishes, Judith went to the bathroom.

Love At First Night Chapter 222

Chapter 222

When Judith went out, she could still hear Frank's cheerful voice. From the first time she met Frank, she knew that he was very dangerous. But now, he was going to provoke her.

Judith suddenly regretted coming to Mayfield. Her plan was in half a year. However, there were always many accidents in one's life.

Judith took in a deep breath and smiled confidently. “Accidents don’t mean anything. There have already been so many accidents in my life.” She followed the sign and went to the bathroom, thinking. In the private room, after Judith left, Lucas suddenly looked at Frank with a gloomy face and asked, “Mr. Taylor, what’s your purpose for being close to my mother? And you even use me as an excuse. Mr. Taylor, you even owe a favor of a child.” Frank was secretly shocked that Lucas suddenly changed his face. “What a good actor. Lucas has been acting all the way to make Judie feel relieved.” Frank looked at the little face that was similar to his and suddenly found that Lucas’s character was also similar to his “Lucas, don’t worry. I won’t hurt you or your mother. Even if I hurt everyone in the world, I won’t hurt her. You can rest assured about this.” Frank promised solemnly. “You want my mother?” Lucas had long wanted to ask this question. Frank smiled and said, “Lucas, you know me.” Hearing this, Lucas knew the answer. He sneered, “If you want to be my father, you have to be the one who loves my mother the most in this world, “For example, Uncle Adam...” “Stop, Lucas!” Frank quickly interrupted him. Frank didn’t want to hear Lucas say that they wanted Adam to be their father. If so, his heart would break into pieces. He, Frank, was their father!

Frank took a deep breath and maintained a perfect smile. “Lucas, I will do better than Adam. You can keep watching.” “Okay. You are handsome and rich enough. However, will your family allow you to marry a woman with children?”

Lucas’s tone was low and sounded like an adult.

Frank was slightly stunned and asked in disbelief, “Lucas, you don’t have to worry about this!” Looking at Lucas’s handsome face, Frank was proud in his heart. “I am so strong and I can even make Judith pregnant with twins! And both of the children are so smart!” Every time he thought of this, he was too excited to calm down. “Mr. Taylor, you have to think about it. If you hurt my mother, you will have to pay the price, the worst price.” Lucas warned coldly. At this moment, Frank could even feel the strong cruelty of Lucas, a child. Lucas was so similar to him. If he cultivated Lucas as his successor, Lucas would definitely be the king of the business world in the future. Frank said seriously, “Lucas, you can supervise me until you are satisfied But you have to help me I want to see your mother often.”

Lucas put on an evil smile as if a little devil was coming into the world.

“I told you. You have to be sincere and rely on your own efforts. My mother is the best and gentlest mother in this world. “Not everyone has the fortune to have my mother.”

Love At First Night Chapter 223

Chapter 223

“If you don’t treat my mother well, stop dreaming of being my father.” Frank felt strange, “This kid was stubborn enough. However, I was able to talk to him face to face like this. I feel as if I am flying in the sky at this moment. I am so happy!”

Judith came out of the bathroom. She met Collin, who also came here. He was dressed in a suit, and as soon as he reached the door, he suddenly slipped and fell to the ground. “Ouch!” Collin cried out in pain.

Judith happened to see this, and she quickened her pace to walk over. Collin felt a sharp pain coming from his waist. He struggled with a painful expression but could not get up. Judith helped him up and asked, “Sir, are you alright? Did you hurt anywhere?” Collin bent his waist and shook his head with a pained expression. He looked at Judith. Suddenly, he was stunned. Judith’s bright and clear eyes were so familiar. Collin wondered, “Why did her eyes look like Jodie’s? Her delicate facial features were also so familiar to Jodie's." Collin quickly smiled and said, "Thank you. I'm fine. Miss, may I know your name?" Seeing that he was sincere, Judith smiled and said, "It's good that you're fine. I still have things to do, so I have to leave." She nodded at Collin politely and did not answer his question.

"Miss, wait a minute..." But Judith did not look back. Collin wanted to chase after her and ask clearly. But after walking a few steps, he felt that his waist was very painful. He could only stop and look at the culprit. It turned out to be a banana peel that made him slip. He took out his phone and called Jason. "Dad," Jason answered the call quickly. "Jason, come to the bathroom. I think I saw your sister. I fell and hurt my waist. Come over quickly and chase after her." Jason was confused when he received the call, but he still ran to the bathroom as fast as he could. "Dad, are you alright?" Jason asked worriedly. Collin pointed in the direction Judith had left and said anxiously, "Jason, hurry up and chase after her. A girl in a gray casual suit looks much like your sister. Hurry up and chase her." Jason touched his forehead helplessly. His face was pale and haggard. These days, he was in a bad mood and was drunk every night. Seeing his father like this again, he felt even more irritated. He said helplessly, "Dad, don't be like this. You met Jude five or six times a month, but none of them were Jude "The paternity test reports have piled up. It's been more than ten years. Dad, Jude may.. "Shut up. Judy will be fine. She is your sister. Do you really want her to die?" Collin roared angrily. Seeing that Jason was not chasing after the girl, he limped forward. As long as there was a glimmer of hope, he would find his daughter back. Otherwise, he would regret it for the rest of his life. "Dad! Don't be like this, okay?" Jason had been upset these past few days. His mood today wasn't any better. Frustrated, he ran over to grab his father and said helplessly, "Dad, listen. I also hope Jude can come back, but Jude has been lost for more than ten years and can't be found. "Dad, why are you not willing to accept reality? Mom has already done it."

Love At First Night Chapter 224

Chapter 224

“Then have you accepted it? Didn’t Jodie bring you and Aiden happiness?”
“She is so smart and beautiful, and she knows how to make people happy. She will be fine.” Collin did not believe that Jodie would be gone just like that. One day, he would find her.

Jason bit his lower lip hard. Even so, his lips were still pale and he also looked pained. “If Jude is still alive, I really want to find her. She is my younger sister who I have doted on since I was young. Frank has used all his connections, but he can’t find her.” Jason took a deep breath and said, “Dad, I’ll take you to the hospital first.” “Alright.” Collin could only nod his head. If he went to chase now, he was afraid that the girl had already gone far away. He sighed deeply. “It’s been so many years. I wonder if Jodie is well. We eat and dress well every day. I feel guilty every day when I pick up the bowl. I don’t know where she is suffering.” Hearing this, Jodie also sighed deeply. If Jude hadn’t been lost, they wouldn’t have been in such pain. Ann did not ease their longing. Looking at Ann, he was even more worried. “Dad, if Jude is really alive, she will come back to us one day. It’s useless to worry every day.” Everyone else liked to call her Jodie, and he and Aiden liked to call her Judy. Jason nodded and didn’t say anything. He was old, and he didn’t know when he would have to wait. Collin was heartbroken. The Chaney family had always been wealthy. After they had two sons, Marilyn gave birth to a daughter after a few years. They were so happy that they couldn’t even control themselves. As a father, Collin had been partial towards Jodie since the day she was born. For him, his daughter was always more considerate than his sons. What was the use of his two sons? They were always busy outside all day, not even having time to accompany him for a meal. However, his daughter was different. No matter how busy she was, she still thought about her parents. Jodie was a living example. No matter how busy she was, she would come back and talk to her parents Collin shook his head painfully, telling himself not to think too much. But the girl he saw today was too familiar. Jason supported him. Collin's back looked lonely and fragile. Judith returned to the private room and did not take what happened just now seriously She accompanied Lucas to eat happily Frank looked at Judith and Lucas and felt an inexplicable sense of relief. He had agreed with Lucas and asked Lucas to give him a chance to chase his mother Unexpectedly, Lucas agreed readily Frank felt that Lucas was deeper than what he saw on the surface Lucas was very smart. He didn't show himself all and was simply a little fox that was hidden deep inside Only by being with Jodie, Frank would have a home He had waited for so many years and he finally had a home. Gary's words reminded him that Jodie had grown up now, and she had lost her memories She was no longer the previous Jodie

She was outstanding, and every man could chase her. So, even if he revealed his identity, Judy may not fall in love with him.

Frank knew it clearly in his heart. And now he could only take it step by step and enter her heart in his own way.

Chapter 225

He got emotional after hearing what Gary said last night. He felt like he was shaken by some power "Frank, what the hell are you thinking? Do you know anything about love? Why do you keep falling for that?" "I tell you what, don't play with your feelings, okay? You'll lose if she doesn't love you back when you are in a relationship. And sometimes, you'll get hurt very badly if you pour too many feelings into it. You have to make her feel your love. You have to prove that she can rely on you by your action "Gary had said, Gary's words still resonated in his ears. He seemed to know what to do next "Mom, I had enough. Go and eat your dinner!” Lucas glanced at his mother. His mom always acted like this. She put her children first and then she’ll pick up her meal.

She would never be too busy to take good care of her children, “You had enough? I thought you could eat more!” said Judith, laughing. Lucas replied, smiling, “Mom, we had breakfast this morning, remember?”

Judith nodded, “Oh, I remember. Just a sec, I’ll finish mine.” Frank turned to her and told her not to eat in a hurry. Judith replied with a slight nod. Jason took Collin to the hospital. The doctor examined him and it turned out to be a slight injury, nothing to be worried about

He was told that he could recover soon if he got some rest.

Jason drove him back home so that he could have a rest. Collin sat in silence along the way, knitting his brows. He had a sense that he saw his daughter today. He felt strongly about it this time, He gazed at Jason and didn’t tell him about his thoughts because he knew Jason wouldn’t help him check on her

He had been there many times. Numerous paternity tests had been done. His actions lead to his son’s conviction that their dad might be a psychopath. “Never mind. I’ll go and check by myself another day,” he thought. He knew the restaurant’s manager. He thought he could ask him for help. Collin asked abruptly, “Jason, how are you lately? Something has been bothering you? I saw you have been acting strange lately. You don’t talk to your mom and you just drink all day. What happened to you? Be honest with me!”

Jason wished they could talk about other things than his depressing life. He answered in a gloomy tone, “Nothing is going on with me I’m fine.”

Jason didn't find it useful to tell him what was going on. His dad was afraid of his mom. He could do nothing if Marilyn said no. He knew about his mom. His mom could be so callous sometimes that she would rather give up on her grandchildren. As for himself, his consciousness was full of guilt as a man for failing to protect his family. Jason smiled at his dad reluctantly, a pain tipping in his heart. He sank into thoughts, «Sarah must have given up on our unborn baby. I was so useless. I was not good to her when my mom acted that way. Of course, she will give up on me too. I have caused her so much pain, She was his one and only one for almost two decades. She was modest and kind. She had a kind heart and would always cheer him up. Whenever he came from work she was there for him with a happy smile on her face so that he never felt any stress or exhaustion of the day.

No one in the world would give him that kind of satisfaction except her, Unfortunately, his mom stood against their marriage. What odds with his life to stumble upon such a preposterous thing! Jason felt like he was doomed,

He sighed with a sheer He made up his mind already. Without Sarah, he was nobody. So He decided to stay unmarried for the rest of his life. No one would force him to get married, including his mom.

Chapter 226

They finished eating lunch. Frank insisted on taking Lucas to the shopping mall. Judith didn't want to go but could come up with any excuses. Frank was in charge today. She couldn't decide what to do, Frank arranged everything. Besides, she didn't know how to say no to him. She wanted to spare herself from this, but it would be an irresponsible act for her child. And she didn't want to become an irresponsible adult in front of her child. In the end, they decided to go to the shopping mall. When they were in it, they saw lots of toys and clothes displayed for kids. On the third and fourth floors, there were fashionable outfits for women. It was a huge and lively shopping center Frank took Lucas to the toy store. Judith looked at them with delight. Frank and Lucas were getting along very well as if they were close friends. She even didn't get a chance to join in their conversation. So she began to observe Frank's good-looking face instead. He was tall. He had nice hair and a very handsome look. When he opened his teeth and smiled, he would become even more handsome. Lots of women in the mall cast furtive glances at him. Few of them could resist not looking at him. Judith pursed her lips and said, "Lucas, I'll go to the restroom, don't look for me!" These were the most said words of her today. "Okay, Mom! We will wait here," Lucas responded without looking at her.

Judith glanced at Frank. And their eyes met, smiling at each other. Judith didn't know what to say. She turned away her eyes and left. "Judith, what are you doing here?"

All of sudden, a familiar came voice behind her. Judith noticed and found out it was Ann. She was with her mom. Judith said to herself, <Why do I keep running into them? Everywhere I go, they just appear out of nowhere! Oh God help me out of thistl

Judith smiled at them out of politeness. And she went up to them reluctantly. "I just came here for shopping. Is it not okay?" she replied coldly. Ann seemed surprised to see her. She looked around, her eyes searching for Frank for she knew Frank wasn't at home She wanted to know if Frank was hanging out with Judith.

"This shopping mall is unlike any other mall, you know. I thought only the super-rich can offer to come. I am surprised seeing you, Judith Manlyn said with a sarcastic tone, which made Judith uncomfortable Marilyn's attitude reminded Judith of Sarah Sarah even planned suicide because of her Recalling what happened made her furious She was well aware of Marilyn's hostility to her because of Frank But her hostility was inexplicable

Judith was lost in bewildering thoughts, wondering how on earth Sarah was not wanted by her grandmother. She cast a cold glance at Marilyn and put up a sneering smile She said, "Excuse me, Marilyn, I don't like your tone and your attitude! If I was not mistaken, you consider yourself as the super-rich type who has good education and good manners Where are your high manners? What a shame!"

Judith continued with anger on her face, "Yes, I know there are a lot of wealthy people here for shopping But I don't see any written rules saying that I can't! So tell me, Marilyn, Why shouldn't I be here?"

Love At First Night Chapter 227

Chapter 227

Marilyn frowned when she heard what Judith said. Especially when she looked at Judith's clear and bright eyes. It was like they could see through people's thoughts. Seeing Judith being so eye-catching, Ann was a little upset. While Marilyn suddenly felt a burning sensation on her face.

There was not a single swear word in Judith's words, but Marilyn felt like she had been insulted by Judith. Seeing Marilyn being like that, Ann said, "Mom, don't lower yourself to the same level as that kind of people who live at the bottom of society. Other than having a glib tongue, they could only get what they want by those lowly methods."

Judith did not wait for Marilyn to speak but refuted coldly, "Ann, what do you mean that kind of people? Do you mean people like you who love to throw their weight around and always take revenge on others for the sake of the things they can't get? Is that what you meant?" "I know the Chaney family is rich, but I will not be envious, or jealous. I don't rely on the Chaney family. So, if you want to show off, you can make it on TV and show off in front of the whole country: You will get tons of people that envy you." After Judith finished speaking, she did not leave. Instead, she stood there lazily. She'd love to see what kind of expressions that Ann and Marilyn would have on their faces. Judith's eyes were as clear as water as if nothing in the world could taint them. And her cherry lips were as tender as honey She was glowing!

Suddenly the quietness was broken.

The sound of hand-clapping came from the elevator entrance. Judith, Marilyn, and Ann followed the sound. It was Edwin. With his body perfectly outlined by the self-fitting well-tailored casual attire, he looked tall and straight, meantime highly dignified. He eyed Judith with a gentle smile. He had never seen Judith being like this. She was so charming! "Edwin." Ann's face turned pale.

"What a coincidence. Judith, are you also here for shopping?" His voice was warm and gentle. Edwin fixed his eyes on Judith's, which were as sparkling as obsidian that he could even see his figure reflecting in them clearly Judith nodded with a smile. "Yes! Edwin, I have nothing to do on the weekend, so I came out to take a stroll and familiarize myself with Mayfield." "Judith, in non-working time, just call me Edwin!" Edwin could still recall the first time he saw her. Her starry eyes and the faint smile on her face were just memorable. "Oh. OK.. Judith was a little confused because they were not close. As the two chatted, Marilyn and Ann seemed to have been forgotten. Seeing that Judith was popular with men, Ann was very jealous. She had originally thought that Marilyn's words would hurt Judith, but now she and Marilyn were the embarrassed ones. What was even more embarrassing was that Edwin saw it. In the eyes of outsiders, Ann had always looked gentle and innocent! However, what happened today just broke her many years of pretense. What was worse, Frank, Gary, and Edwin were buddies. Edwin would definitely tell the other two what he saw

Love At First Night Chapter 228

Chapter 228

Marilyn roared, “Edwin, don’t believe this girl! Don’t forget that your mother Rita is strict with the choice of your future girlfriend. Such kind of girl...” “What kind?” Edwin suddenly turned around and interrupted her. He looked at Marilyn with a sharp and disdainful look. Marilyn was born into a wealthy family and had always been flattered for most of her life. Such disdainful eyes just got her lost her temper. Irritated to see Edwin’s cold and disdainful gaze, Marilyn couldn’t help say loudly, “Edwin, those are words from a gentleman? What is that look in your eyes?” As for the younger generation, they had always been respectful to her. She knew their parents. She had watched them grow up since she was young. However, all of them had gone against her for Judith now. Marilyn felt quite upset about that. Judith was simply a vixen!

Completely different from what he used to be, Edwin smiled coldly and leaned slightly to the side, having Marilyn fully enveloped by his tall figure. Marilyn instantly felt a sense of oppression coming from above, “Mrs. Chaney, I always thought that you were a sensible person. “But what you have done today really surprised me. Judith is the director of the Taylor Group. You can just politely say hello to her when you guys meet. Why did you say so? Is she a sinner because she comes here?” “Mrs. Chaney, not only the rich deserve the respect. Normal people like us also have emotions. We will also feel hurt if we are attacked, even if it is a verbal attack!” Edwin’s tone was flat. But to Marilyn, each word was like a stab to the heart. She had to agree with Edwin’s words. She was well-educated and she was a noble lady! Once seeing Judith, she just failed to control herself! She had even lost the bearing she had always had! “Edwin, how can you speak to Marilyn with such an attitude? Marilyn and Rita are good friends. You should show some respects.” Ann gritted her teeth as she looked at Edwin. She had long disliked Edwin. Edwin had been going against her all the time since he became Frank’s secretary. Edwin had not only stopped her from entering Frank’s office but also told Frank about everything she didn’t want him to know. Edwin curled his lips into a mocking smile. “Ann, if you want others to respect you, you should respect them first”

“Edwin...”

“Please excuse us.” Edwin did not want to hear another word from Ann. Ann had always been soft on the outside but vicious on the inside. The reason he hated Ann was simple. Edwin remembered that one time at his family banquet, all the guests were his mother’s good friends. Ann had broken an antique. She didn’t admit it but passed the buck to his cousin. Since then, Ann was on his blacklist

After all, good and evil would always be rewarded. Ann had violated Edwin’s bottom line, so he hated her.

Chapter 229

“Edwin, I’ll call Rita later and tell her about this...” “Whatever. Marilyn. Rita is a reasonable person. She will not twist the truth because of jealousy.” Edwin’s last sentence was very straightforward. “Edwin, you...” Marilyn trembled with anger. She shot Judith a glare and then pulled Ann away. Edwin’s attitude suddenly changed when he glanced at Judith. He asked with a warm smile, “Where are you going, Judith?” Judith smiled apologetically. “Edwin, I want to go to the bathroom. Sorry!” Judith left quickly. Edwin smiled faintly. He looked at Judith’s back and narrowed his eyes. Keeping low key when conducting oneself, one would be more and more stable. While staying high profile in doing things, one would be more and more excellent. Judith was exactly the kind of person who kept a low key in conducting herself but high profile in doing things. When she was despised, she could laugh it off and fight back with confidence. She had made the best of life! Edwin found it a pity that he couldn't stay a little longer. He had something else to do today. He glanced in the direction where Judith had left and curled his lips. Turning around, his slender figure gracefully left. At the same time, Frank and Lucas came over. But none of them saw each other. When Judith came out of the bathroom, Edwin had left. She was a little amazed that she saw the other side of Edwin today. Over the years, she had formed a habit of enriching herself rather than pleasing others. As long as she was capable, she could walk tall. As for Edwin, he actually smiled today.

What a rare sight!

"Mom, where have you been?" Lucas and Frank had waited for a long time but didn't see her come back, so they could only come out for her. Frank looked at her with a half-smile. He was like, "Judith, are you constipated?" Judith didn't reply but held her forehead. She said, "Sorry, I was delayed by a small accident." "What is it?" Frank frowned and asked.

Just now, he and Lucas were engrossed in choosing the toys. After they bought the one they wanted, they discovered that Judith had not returned yet. "Nothing! Mr. Taylor, let's go back!" Judith felt a little guilty. She could not get rid of Frank, so she could only hide from him.

When Frank heard this, he instantly looked outside strangely. Who had she just met? "No, Judy, you promised to let Lucas eat dinner with me. Let's go get something to eat!" Frank said firmly. His deep gaze lazily landed on Judith, who was slightly stunned. No matter who she had met just now, she would have to have dinner with him tonight! He had stayed with them for a whole day today. He was very happy and must share with them his happiness. Because of Gina's intervention, he had once lost Mila and indirectly lost Jodie. But now, Jodie had returned! She had even brought back a big surprise for him! Judith looked at him helplessly and asked, "Mr. Taylor, I don't know why you are so interested in a married woman, but today, we..."

"Judy, you are overthinking, Frank suddenly interrupted her with a mischievous smile.

Well...

Would he be interested in a married woman?

Of course not. But if she was a married woman, he would not let go! The prerequisite was that it had to be her! He would never let anyone touch his girl.

Love At First Night Chapter 230

Chapter 230

Judith was instantly rendered speechless by his words. It was just a meal. What was she thinking? She blushed and tried to explain, "I just don't understand what Mr. Taylor is doing." Frank looked at her with his black eyes and smiled meaningfully. "You see, Judy. That's what I meant you were overthinking. It's just a meal! Nothing else." Judith didn't know what to say. What the hell. She just couldn't figure out what he was doing. No man would pester a married woman, no, a woman with a child, as he did. How could she ignore his intentions? Lucas glanced at Judith. He was also very curious about what Frank was doing. Frank was very good to him, and it seemed that he was deliberately narrowing the gap between them. Lucas smiled and said, “Mom, Frank is right. It’s just a meal! Let’s get something to eat before we get back.” “Lucas!” Judith looked at Lucas in disbelief. Did Lucas want to have dinner with Frank? “Judy, it’s nothing more than a dinner,” Frank said, looking at her with a deep smile. But his smile, in Judith’s eyes, was always so malicious. Judith took out her mobile phone to have a look at the time. It was almost three o’clock now. Sarah would probably open her stall around four o’clock. She could go there to eat and take a look at Sarah. Judith turned to Frank and said, “Then I’ll take you to a barbecue stall. Mr. Taylor, your treat!” When Frank heard this, his beautiful brows furrowed. “Judy, are you sure that you want to go to a barbecue stall instead of ripping me off in some Michelin–starred restaurants?” Judith raised her eyebrows and smiled. “Mr. Taylor, how do I dare to do so? You are my boss, OK? Let’s go. This way.”

After that, she went forward to lead the way. She had never mentioned going to the new house. Adam had asked someone to help her with the transfer procedure of the house recently, but she didn’t want Frank to know where it was! For some reason, she didn’t want him to know about it from the bottom of her heart. She wondered what Frank was up to. Frank and Lucas smiled at each other. Seeing that Judith did not refuse, Frank felt reassured. He talked and laughed with Lucas behind Judith. Meanwhile, Ann had returned home with Marilyn. Marilyn was too angry to say a word all the way. She said that she would call Rita, but she was so furious that she forgot about it. The Chaney’s villa was furnished in the European style which was luxurious and comfortable. It was mixed with the essence of European–style decoration. The furniture was all made of Sapele. With precious marble pillars and reliefs all around, one could see that the decoration was the best of the best. There were golden and luxurious decorations everywhere. Marilyn buried herself deeply in a customized light yellow luxurious sofa with her eyes closed. She was agitated “Mom, have some water. Don’t be angry anymore. It’s all Judith’s fault. As long as she appears, nothing good will happen,” Ann said as she handed the water to Marilyn. Marilyn took the water and said coldly, “I understand who is right and who is wrong. Take a rest. I feel like being alone right now.” Marilyn did not look at Ann. After drinking a mouthful of water, she placed the cup on the table and continued
