

Love At First Night Chapter 286 – 295

Chapter 286

Frank took them to the underground parking lot. Frank drove to the Gita Group. Gary arrived at the Gita Group first. He went to Carlo's office. In the bright and luxurious office, Carlo was reading financial news. Suddenly seeing Gary, Carlo was quite surprised and said, "Gary, why are you here? You are here so early. Is something the matter?" Carlo gave a smile and got up. Gary smiled and said, "Good morning, Mr. Taylor! There's something I need to do, so I came over earlier." He had to be here early. Otherwise, something bad would happen to their company. "Have a seat. We can talk about it slowly!" Carlo pointed at the leather sofa with a gentle smile on his face. He elegantly sat on the sofa and gestured for the secretary to serve two cups of coffee. Gary raised his hand to look at his watch. They almost had no time, but Frank did not call Gary, so Gary could not help but feel a little anxious. Carlo asked with a smile, "Gary, what has happened? Why are you here so early?" Gary nodded and said bluntly, "Mr. Taylor, do you know about your product launch event this morning?" Carlo nodded and smiled, saying, "Yes! Our company's designer has developed new products for this season. I saw them last night and was very satisfied. I was also very surprised. Gina only told me this morning and we decided on today's product launch event at once."

Carlo suddenly looked at Gary in confusion and asked, "Wait a minute, Gary. Our product launch event has yet to be announced to the outside world. The media can't leak it out. How did you know?" Gary looked at Carlo quietly. He was silent for a long time. Judith's works were perfect. He felt them good at a glance! Once this season's autumn products were on the market, the Taylor Group's profits could be imagined. Even Hana couldn't pass through the design drawings review in the first round. This time, Judith's works were passed by them in one go. Gary also liked those works very much. "Gary, why are you silent?" Carlo narrowed his eyes as he looked at Gary. Carlo knew about Gary. Gary would not come here for no reason. Today, Gary's expression clearly showed that he had something to say. Gary smiled elegantly and said, "Mr. Taylor, why don't we wait a moment?" "Why?" Carlo was even more confused. Carlo's secretary brought two cups of coffee in. Gary elegantly picked up his coffee and took a sip. However, he was worried. If this was really done by the Gita Group, they would try their best to stop these design products from launching today. The design industry was competitive and me-too products would appear in the market very quickly. Carlo guessed Gary's intentions while drinking coffee.

Ten minutes passed, and Gary felt a little anxious from waiting. Suddenly, his phone vibrated. Seeing that it was a call from Frank, Gary quickly picked up the phone. "Hey!" "Gary, stop their product launch. Myla has confessed. We are rushing over now." "Alright!" Gary nodded and quickly hung up the phone.

Then, Gary looked up at Carlo, saying, "Mr. Taylor, I'm sorry. You must stop your new product launch event." "Why?" Carlo looked at Gary with a frown. Gary sneered. Today, when he heard that Alissa had come to the Taylor Group, he couldn't wait to see her. But as soon as he arrived at the company, such a thing happened. Gary was indeed a little angry in his heart. That was the first time Gary had taken a fancy to a woman in his life. Alissa was just beautiful and had a good figure. What a pity! Gary's eyes flashed with anger. He took a deep breath before looking at Carlo and replied, "Because your company's new products are stolen from our company." "How is that possible?" Carlo was furious. After being in the design industry for so long, Carlo had never done such shameful things. "Gary, don't slander me. You have to take legal responsibility for what you said." Carlo's face darkened. However, Gary understood Carlo well. At this moment, he met Carlo's gaze fearlessly. Gary sneered and said, "Mr. Taylor, you also know that business is a competitive activity. Although you are Frank's father, our two companies are rivals after all. If our works are stolen by your company, your company should take legal responsibility." Carlo angrily smashed the coffee cup on the table, causing the coffee to splash everywhere. Seeing this, Gary kept calm. Gary was still sitting in a gentle and elegant manner. "Gary, let me tell you, this is impossible. Our company has been developing new products. Our company's designer, Gordon, is also a famous designer. "The profit she brought to our company is obvious to everyone. Her ability is obvious to everyone. How dare you say that our company stole your company's designs?" Gary sneered and stayed calm. "Since you don't believe, why don't we go to the product launch conference and talk about this? The evidence is on the way." As Gary spoke, he stood up and walked out. Carlo frowned. Gina was in charge of the new product launch event this time. He only saw those final products. However, he was very satisfied with the designs. The fashion element was very strong. He even was satisfied with the fabric. If it was really as Gary had said, then not only would the Gita Group be unable to escape blame, but they would also lose their reputation. Carlo quickly chased out and asked Noah to follow him. At this time, Gary had walked to the elevator and glanced at the time. Gina often played tricks, and Carlo was often kept in the dark. If Gary did not step out to stop this matter, the reputation of the Gita Group would be destroyed. The stock market would plummet and the Gita Group would be likely to go bankrupt. Gary told Carlo this matter in advance. This was the only thing he can do for Carlo.

Chapter 288

"Gary, wait a moment. I'll go with you." Carlo caught up with Gary, who was about to enter the elevator. Carlo never believed that Gina would do such a thing. If this matter was true, his reputation would be ruined. Gary quickly pressed the button on the elevator and turned back to ask with a smile, "Are you willing to believe what I said?"

Carlo's expression was solemn as he said in a low voice, "I must find out what exactly is going on. I only saw them last night. Now that you mention it, although I'm angry, I can't just ignore it. "As you know, the Gita Group is the fruit of the painstaking labor of my whole lifetime, and I can't allow it to be destroyed. "Moreover, ever since Frank and the three of you set up the Taylor Group, the sales of the Gita Group have been much worse than before. Frank is like a wolf. Maybe one day he will attack me." Carlo looked at Gary. Gary lowered his head slightly and smiled, saying, "Mr. Taylor, you have to admit that Frank is indeed a good businessman, but you are too excessive to say that. No matter how you treat him, he still gives you the respect you deserve." Carlo nodded heavily. His expression was extremely solemn, and great sorrow clouded his eyes. He said, "You also know that my relationship with Frank has always been bad. Frank has a deep grudge against me! "I'm afraid he won't forgive me." Gary gave a sneer, but he did not continue the topic. He understood why Frank was like this. If Frank couldn't find his mother, he would never forgive Carlo for the rest of his life. Everyone was well aware of this. The three of them took the elevator to the tenth floor, where the scene of today's product launch was being set up. Gina, Steve, Eliza, and Gordon, the designer of the Gita Group, were all present. Every member of staff was busy here. Gina and Steve were discussing the details of the drawing on the big screen when they suddenly saw Carlo and Gary enter. When they saw Gary, shock flashed across the faces of Gina and Steve. However, they soon calmed down! However, what puzzled the two of them was why would Gary appear here at this time. "Dad!" Eliza walked toward Carlo with a smile. When Eliza saw Gary, her face blushed. She called out in a gentle tone, "Gary, why are you here?"

After Eliza finished speaking, she slightly pursed her lips. Her light pink lip gloss made her look even more charming. She looked at Gary with obvious affection in her eyes. Gary indifferently replied, "I have something to do here." "Do you want a cup of coffee?" Eliza smiled. "No!" Gary quickly refused. Gary didn't want to drink coffee, instead, he only wanted to watch the drama that would soon happen!

Chapter 289

Gary glanced at the fixed design on the big screen. He sneered in his heart. Sure enough, the Gita Group stole the design of their company. Gina felt worried when she looked at Gary. Carlo shook his head as he watched Eliza. He knew that Eliza liked Gary. However, it seemed that Gary was not interested in Eliza. Romance was one thing and marriage was quite another. Carlo experienced it and had a deep understanding of it. Gina wore a pink tight skirt. She walked over in a charming manner and said, "Gary, why are you coming to our company early in the morning? Are you here to have fun?" Gary smiled and said, "Mrs. Taylor, of course, I'm not here to have fun. Why don't we wait a moment? The really interesting part of the show is yet to come. I believe you will be very interested in it." Gina raised an eyebrow and looked at Gary who was calm. She had an ominous presentiment. "Really?" Gina lowered her head slightly and forced a smile. None of them leaked this matter out, so how could Frank find out? Gina didn't believe that Frank would find it out. Carlo looked at Gina's expression and frowned slightly. Gina's expression was a little different from before. Could it be that what Gary said was true? "Gina..."

Just as Carlo was about to speak, he saw Frank, Myla, Judith, and Edwin walk in. The moment Gina saw Myla, her face instantly turned pale. Steve was also panicking in his heart! Frank walked in front, wearing a straight black suit. He was expressionless. After walking in front of Gina, Frank gave a sneer and said, "I heard that the Gita Group is holding a new product launch today. I have nothing to do, so I brought people from my company to study." Steve said, "The Gita Group is holding a new product launch, but we did not invite you. Please go back!" Frank gave Steve a blank stare.

Frank said, "You don't dare to show them to us. Why?"

Steve frowned and thought, "Why does Frank know the news so quickly?"

Does Myla betray us?" Steve glared at Myla. When Myla met Steve's gaze, she instantly lowered her head, not daring to look at him. When Steve saw this, he instantly understood everything. Myla was unreliable! "Frank, why do you bring people here with a great fanfare?" Carlo was annoyed that Frank had ignored him. Frank looked at Carlo with a mocking smile. His gaze was so cold that no one dared to look him straight in the eye. Frank said in a low and cold tone, "I'm here to catch the thief. I'm waiting for your new product launch event. The reporters are outside. Let them all come in!" "Frank, you..." Carlo looked at Frank. Not only did Frank look like Carlo, but he was also vigorous in work like Carlo. Gina could not help but ask, "Frank, what do you want to do?" Frank pointed at the design on the big screen and sneered, "Mrs. Taylor, why do the designs of our company appear here? Why don't we call the reporters in and talk about it together?"

Chapter 290

Gina trembled slightly when she heard this. Judith looked at the screen and saw that the clothes she designed were on the big screen. That was a windbreaker. When Judith designed it, she liked it very much. It took Judith a week to design this windbreaker. Seeing that her work appeared in the Gita Group, Judith was angry. Judith said, "This dress on the big screen seems beautiful, right? I began to design it on October 1st. I finished it on April 5th. During this period, I modified it countless times. I always worked until 1:30 at night. My mother always knocked on the door and urged me to sleep. "Every piece of clothing here was designed by me through painstaking efforts, but you guys stole them." At this point, Judith looked at Gina and said, "Mrs. Taylor, I'm afraid it's not appropriate to hang my works in your company. They should be in the Taylor Group." Judith looked at Gina coldly. She thought, "Mom has once told me that I should treat others as they treat me." when Frank heard this, he felt distressed. Although Jodie had a hard time, she still worked hard, not giving up. After Frank heard her words, he was sad! Therefore, he would never compromise so easily on this matter. Whoever bullied Jodie would be his enemy! Gina instantly panicked, but she remained calm. She looked at Judith and asked angrily, word by word, "What proof do you have? Are these clothes designed by you? Take out the evidence, or I will sue you for slander." Judith gave a short, derisive laugh. She said in a cold tone, "Do you want evidence? I can give it to you. However, let reporters in first. Don't let them wait too long." Judith wanted to expose Gina's hideous features even if she had to give up her designs. Gina plagiarized Judith's results, but she didn't feel shameful. "Are you threatening me?" Gina could no longer maintain her calm. She glared at Judith. Judith smiled calmly and said, "I dare not threaten you. I am just telling the truth.” “You’re just a small designer who won the position by some shameful means. How dare you threaten me?” Judith coldly interrupted Gina, “Mrs. Taylor, it’s not a threat, but a fact. You are powerful in Mayfield. You have a good reputation in the upper class. Isn’t it more despicable for you to do such a thing? “Also, what do you mean by I got the position by despicable means? “Mrs. Taylor, I have come to this day with my own strength. I will not be bullied for no reason.” In their eyes, did people with the ability have to rise relied on unscrupulous means? How ridiculous! They didn’t know about her, but they cursed her! “In the design industry, it’s impossible to go through the design drawings review in the first round...” Judith said, “Frank is right here. You can ask him yourself, is my work passed because of my ability, or because I seduced him. “I believe that in the face of their own interests, anyone will make the right choice. In the design industry, our works speak for us. “Also, you don’t have the right to cast aspersions on my lifestyle!” “You...” Gina was so angry that her whole body trembled. She thought she was a clever and eloquent person. However, she did not expect Judith to be more eloquent than her. She had never been so ashamed in her life. Gina’s face instantly flushed. She didn’t know what to say.

Chapter 291

Frank glanced at Edwin. Edwin nodded and played the recording. Myla’s words entered Carlo’s ears. After the recording was played, the whole place was silent. Gina and Steve didn’t know where to put themselves. Carlo shouted angrily, “Gina, tell me the truth, what exactly is going on? I also thought those works you showed me last night were perfect. Could it be that this is the designer’s fault?” Now that Frank and others had come looking for him. They could even be able to tell the date of the design and have the recording as evidence. It was obvious that this matter was true. Gina bit her lower lip when she heard Carlo’s roar. She said, “Carlo, I...” Carlo interrupted her, “What else do you want to say? I have been in business for my entire life. I have never been as embarrassed as I am today.” “Dad...” “Shut up!” Carlo glared at Steve. “You and your mother have discussed everything beforehand. You also know about it, right?” Steve instantly lowered his head, not daring to look straight into Carlo’s eyes. Carlo was so angry that he had suffered rather troubling chest pains. “Dad, don’t be angry. This may be a misunderstanding.” Eliza looked at Carlo worriedly. Carlo suffered from hypertension and couldn’t be jarred anymore. Frank said with an evil smile on his face, “You said it was a misunderstanding. Then let this misunderstanding go deeper! Edwin, let the reporters in and call the police to check Myla’s account.” *Mr. Taylor...” Myla looked at Frank anxiously. Didn’t they promise that they would not call the police? When Gina heard this, she was really anxious. Once this matter was exposed, her reputation would be destroyed. In the future, how could she survive in this circle? Frank had a handle on Gina this time. Gina had been fighting with Frank in secret for so long, and this was the first time she was on the back foot. Gina suddenly changed her expression and said with a guilty face, “Frank, I’m sorry. Please forgive me! I will never do this again. After all, we are a family! “For your father’s sake, please spare us. The Gita Group is the fruit of the painstaking labor of your father’s whole lifetime!” ..

Gina thought, “Along the way, I have encountered countless opponents and I deal with them one by one. Judith and Frank are no match for me.

I can't ruin my reputation. I can only live better than anyone else and be stronger than anyone else in order to control others."

Chapter 292

"Yes! He indeed devoted his whole life to the company." Frank glanced at Carlo and said in a mocking tone. Carlo saw the ridicule in Frank's eyes and felt even sadder. The feud between Frank and him, as son and father, was something he never wanted to face in his life. "Frank, let's keep a lid on this matter. Your mother and I set up the company together..." "Don't mention my mother!" Frank suddenly roared angrily. His black eyes were filled with flame with rage. Judith, who was standing beside him, was startled by his outburst of anger. All other people present also suddenly froze in a daze. Judith had never seen this side of Frank. She could clearly feel the strong hatred he showed towards Carlo. "Frank, I..." Carlo hadn't expected that Frank would have such a big reaction when he mentioned his mother. Frank looked at Carlo with a cold smile on his face. "What right do you have to mention my mother? My mother went missing because of the woman standing beside you right now. My mother is now living a wandering life alone. As a son, I don't even know where my mother is. I don't want to hear you talk about my mother ever again." Frank sneered as he suppressed the pain in his heart. The coldness in his eyes sent a chill down the spine of everyone present. Gina was especially afraid and her entire body trembled uncontrollably. Carlo lowered his head in shame. It turned out that he did not even have the right to mention Mila. Edwin and Gary looked at Frank worriedly. Judith also looked at him worriedly. "Is his mother missing? Where did his mother go?" Frank suddenly smiled bitterly. "Actually, you reminded me that you owed my mother a lot. I will definitely let you pay for that." Gina couldn't help but take a step back. This little bastard was simply too terrifying! They had argued before, but he had never been so intimidating. Frank suddenly took a step forward and walked to Gina. His eyes were full of evil. "Gina, it's okay if you want me to let you go this time. But next time, you will die even more miserably. I can assure you that I will remember everything you have done to me. When the time comes, I will let you pay the price. I won't pursue this matter anymore. But if these designs appear in your launch, don't blame me for being cruel." Carlo nodded and said, "Frank, don't worry. I promise you that we won't use these designs." "It would be best if that was the case." Frank smiled coldly. If Carlo ate his words, Frank wouldn't mind destroying Carlo's lifetime of hard work. Frank turned around and looked at Judith apologetically. "Let's go!" Judith nodded. In fact, she was not satisfied with the result, but what could she do? This was Frank's father's company. It was impossible for them to sue Carlo. She was already quite relieved to be able to stop this new product launch. At least her future plans were not disrupted. However, she really hated how Mrs. Taylor tried to make profits by hook or by crook. The group left in a hurry.

Chapter 293

After Frank had left, Carlo took a step forward, raised his hand, and ruthlessly slapped Gina in the face. The sudden slap made Gina look at Carlo in disbelief. Carlo had never hit her in all these years. Eliza and Steve looked at their father in disbelief. And Gordon quickly left with the other staff members. "Honey... You!" Disbelief and fear choked Gina's words. Carlo's face was so gloomy that she could only swallow the rest of her words. "Dad..." "Shut up!" Carlo glared at Steve with his bloodshot eyes. Steve lowered his head and pursed his lips, not daring to make a sound. Carlo slowly retracted his gaze from Steve and looked back at Gina angrily. "I have been doing business for my entire life. I have never been more embarrassed and humiliated. 'The market is like a battlefield.' A small mistake can ruin everything. 'If Frank didn't take into account the relationship between him and me, allowed you to launch these designs, and then showed the public the evidence, how serious the consequences would be? Have you ever thought about it?" Carlo roared. Gina blinked her eyes in fear. They had been married for many years, and she had never seen Carlo so angry. She then shouted defiantly, "I am doing this for the sake of the company. Frank's company has already developed new products for the next season, and our company has not made any progress yet. "Designs that can impress Frank must be extraordinary. If there is a ready-made one, why should we need to work so hard? "In this circle, such things happen all the time. Seizing the opportunity is victory. "Being caught by Frank is just bad luck. But how did Frank's company know about this? "Is there a traitor in our company?" The faces of all the staff members flashed across Gina's mind. Anyone could be the suspect. Carlo was so angry that his blood pressure rose. His eyes dulled and he took a few steps back. He staggered a few steps, and with the help of Eliza, he barely managed to stabilize himself. "Dad! Don't be angry. It has already happened and it has already been resolved. You need to take care of yourself." Eliza looked at Carlo worriedly. Carlo closed his eyes to ease his emotions. Gina also looked at Carlo worriedly. He could die now! He hadn't written the will yet! The Gita Group must belong to Steve. After a while, Carlo finally recovered. He suddenly opened his eyes and glared at Gina. "From today onwards, you are no longer the CEO. I will find another person to take over your job." Gina widened her eyes in disbelief. Why did she marry Carlo? Because she wanted his property. She wanted to be Mrs. Taylor, so she could be in charge of the Gita Group. Removing her from the position of CEO was taking everything from her! "No, honey, I know I am wrong. I won't make the same mistake. Don't kick me out of the company, okay?" Gina held Carlo's hand, crying and begging.

Chapter 294

Carlo said with a cold face, "It's settled. You are unrepentant. Your selfish actions will only pose a risk to the company. "I will ask the IT Department to delete all the related data and I will supervise the whole process personally." After Carlo finished speaking, he turned and left, heading straight to the IT Department. Gina quickly wiped away the tears on her face and fiercely looked at the back of Carlo as he walked away. This old bastard! She even begged him in tears, but he was still so stonehearted. Gina was a vindictive and vengeful person. "Frank, Judith, just you wait!". "Mom, what should we do?" Steve looked at Gina worriedly. He had always been reliant on Gina. Without Gina in the company, he would have difficulty making decisions on a lot of things. A cold glint flashed across Gina's eyes as she smiled. "Steve, don't worry! Your father will let me come back after he cools down." She knew how to get around Carlo. She would find a way to persuade Carlo after he stopped being angry. After all, they had been married for more than ten years. "Okay!" Steve nodded. He knew that Gina had always been shrewd, and she would come back eventually. "Mother, how can you do such a thing? Our relationship with Frank is not good already, and doing so will only make Frank hate us even more..." "Shut your mouth!" Gina quickly interrupted Eliza angrily. "Remember, Frank is not your brother. He is not our family. He is our enemy. He is the enemy who will fight with us for the Gita Group. "I'm doing all this for you two. Eliza, you should focus on the study of design. You don't have to participate in the company's affairs. Now, send me home." Gina knew that her daughter Eliza was a soft-hearted person, so it would be better to keep Eliza from many of the things they were doing. Gary happened to hear Gina's words as soon as he returned. He could not help but frown. Mrs. Taylor's words sounded a little strange. However, he couldn't tell what was wrong. But he didn't have enough time to think this through because he needed to find Carlo. Actually, he had reached the parking lot, but he took a second thought and turned back. He really worried that Gina would make trouble. He had to make sure the IT Department had deleted all the data about Judith's designs. On the way back, Edwin deliberately took Myla to another car and let Frank and Judith sit in the same car. Frank opened the door of the passenger seat for Judith. Judith glanced at Frank, did not say anything, and got in the car. Frank quickly got in as well. Judith was fastening her seatbelt when Frank suddenly hugged her. Judith froze. "Frank, you, what are you..." Judith lost track of her words. Frank held her in his arms very tightly. She could feel how painful he was right now. "Judy, I'm sorry!" Frank closed his eyes, looking pained. Fortunately, he had her by his side today. Otherwise, he would definitely lose control. He hated hearing his father mention his mother.

"Judy, I promise that when the time comes, I will let them pay for what you have suffered today." Judith was somewhat at a loss after hearing his words. She was actually quite satisfied with the settlement. "Frank, don't be like this! ..." Judith did not finish speaking because she was stopped by a kiss. Frank's cool lips and magnified handsome face stupefied Judith. Judith widened her beautiful eyes in surprise. She opened her lips slightly because of the shock and Frank grabbed the opportunity to stick his tongue into her mouth. Frank kissed Judith deeply. This was his dream lover that he had waited for for many years. He felt like he did not want to let her go anymore.

Judith was exasperated! She bit Frank hard. The sudden, heart-wrenching pain woke Frank up. He tasted the faint smell of blood and smiled slightly. He stopped, but he did not move away. Instead, he gently rubbed his nose against hers and smiled. "Judy, you just left a mark on me. From now on, I am yours." "You..." Judith was so angry that she wanted to raise her hand to slap him. However, when she saw the pain in his eyes, she hesitated: She pushed Frank away, giving herself a chance to catch her breath. She widened her beautiful eyes and glared at him. "Frank, open your eyes and see who I am. I am Judith, not the lover you are waiting for. Although we have similar names, I'm not her. Bear that in mind, okay? "If you dare to do this again, I won't meet you in private again." "This bastard, that was my first kiss after that night!" Judith cursed in her mind. "What a sharp-tongued little wild cat," Frank said with a smile. As he spoke, he bent over once more. Judith immediately put her hands on his chest to stop him. She stared at Frank vigilantly. Frank suddenly smiled mischievously. He looked at Judith with gleaming eyes and said in a low and enchanting tone, "Judy, I just want to help you fasten your seat belt." Frank was secretly happy inside because Judy didn't give him a slap. Also, he noticed the compassion in her eyes. Judy was worried about him. Hearing his words, Judith put down her hands, her face burning, "I, I'll do it myself!" But before she could finish speaking, Frank had already helped her fasten her seat belt. He elegantly straightened his body and started the car with a gentle smile on his face. Judith glanced at Frank and saw his gentle facial expression. He had recovered from those volatile emotions. A warm heart was the most powerful. Without a warm heart, no matter how hard the armor one had, he could not fight against the sorrow and pain from inside. She had also lived in pain. So, she could feel that Frank had an uneasy soul. She felt like they were the same kind of people. They would be touched and moved by even a single sincere hug. And when they felt vulnerable, they would hide alone, unwilling to let anyone see their pain. However, they were also different. Frank, who was born with acuity and insight, was more sensitive to others' emotions. Frank didn't hear Judith speak when he was driving. So, he took the initiative to speak, "Judy, let's go pick up Eric, and then we'll eat together." When Judith heard this, she suddenly turned to look at Frank and said word by word, "Frank, I will go pick up Eric, not we!"
