

Love At First Night Chapter 3

Chapter 3

Seven years later. Mayfield Airport.

There was a six-year-old boy in a white T-shirt and blue jeans, with a pair of sunglasses on his handsome little face. His pink lips were slightly pursed. The little boy was protected by a group of bodyguards. He walked out of the airport exit. Behind him was a beautiful woman in a black dress. Her wavy hair was simple but fashionable. She carefully protected the little boy. “Look, he is here. It’s the famous child star, Eric White.” “He is so cool!” “Even the way he walks is cool!” Eric’s fans kept screaming. At the exit of the airport, a lot of people were taking photos of Eric with their phone. Eric, the child star who had recently become famous throughout the country, was only six years old, but he was very well-known. He smiled at his fans around him and thanked them warmly before getting in a black van. With no more of the noise outside, Eric quickly took out his phone and dialed a phone number with his thin fingers.

One, two, Eric muttered in his mind, and before he could say the number three, the phone call was answered. Eric’s mouth curled up slightly, and he said in a soft voice, “Mom, where are you?”

On the highway to the city center. In a taxi.

“Eric, mom is on the highway.” The woman who answered the phone was wearing a simple and elegant dress. Her face was delicate and pretty. Her beautiful curly hair was dyed a charming light brown, which made her look mature. “Good. Mom, you must remember to come and watch my performance.” Eric’s voice was soft and pleasant. The woman’s plump lips curved up slightly, and she smiled happily. “Okay, I will come to you later. Remember to send the location to me.” “Okay, mom!” The woman smiled and hung up. The smile at the corner of her mouth slowly disappeared. She looked out the window at everything she was familiar with. Her eyes gradually turned cold and her mind gradually drifted away. It had been seven years, and she had finally returned to the city that had torn her apart. On the day she graduated from university, she was dragged to a luxurious banquet by the Cooper family. She was drugged by Sherly. In the end, after a night with Mr. Kent, she was pregnant with rare triplets. When she returned to the Cooper family’s villa and heard the conversation between Sherly and her foster mother, she ran out of the villa and never came back for seven years. She was not the Cooper family’s biological daughter. When she was six years old, she was adopted by the Cooper family after being hit by a car. Although it was said that she was adopted, the life she had in this family was even worse than a servant. She once thought that after she graduated from university, she could find a job to be free from the control of the Cooper family. However, she did not expect that after she graduated from university, what awaited her was a snare.

She was pregnant because of that snare. Maybe the man’s genes were really good so that she had triplets. Two sons and one daughter. Back then, no matter how she tried to grasp her life, she couldn’t succeed. However, youth was a ceremonious banquet that would end plainly. In seven years, she became calm and strong. And after that night, she wanted to escape the city. Judith was not badly injured during that car accident. And the person who hit her had now become her good friend. It was all her credit that Judith could have what she had today. Judith had been gone for seven years, and it was time for her to come back now. She knew that some things could not be avoided. She wouldn’t let go of those who had hurt her and she decided to find her biological parents. She had to find them.

