

Love At First Night Chapter 358

Chapter 358

Mila looked at Judith lovingly, “Silly girl, the Chaney family is also prestigious in Mayfield. They have two sons and a daughter.

Everyone knows it and even some news had mentioned it.

“Although I don’t know Jason, I have heard of him. I am surprised that Sarah’s baby is his.” When Judith heard that, all the previous suspicions in her heart were dispelled. She had never asked Mila about the past. Mila regarded Judith as her biological daughter, and if Mila wanted, she would tell one day. Mila looked at Judith’s face with pity.

She thought for a moment and asked, “Judy, Mrs. Chaney hit you. You...” Mila wanted to say something but stopped. With Judith’s temper, if Marilyn provoked her, she would retaliate.

She still remembered that after Judith gave birth, she took the child to get a vaccine with Judith. A couple did not queue up but cut in front of them. Even though the couple looked fierce, Judith had fought with them directly at that time. She still clearly remembered Judith’s shrewish look. Judith smiled and said, “Mom, you want to ask me if I hit Mrs. Chaney?” Mila nodded.

Judith shook her head and said, “Mom, I didn’t. I am your daughter and I have not been that shrewish. For Sarah’s future, I only teased Mrs. Chaney a few times and did not say anything else.” “That’s good! Go and rest. You said that you are going to design for Darlene. Do you have any inspiration now?” Judith frowned. If Mila had not mentioned it, she would have forgotten about it. “Mom, there’s no hurry for that. I have had a general inspiration, but I’m not in the mood to design it today. When I'm in a good mood, I will design the best work.” – “Okay!” Mila rubbed Judith's hair lovingly. “My Judy is the best. I will go and cook,” Mila said, picking up the vegetables on the table and walking into the kitchen. Judith looked at Mila's back and suddenly said, “Mom, Mr. Williams will come over for dinner. He wants to eat the fish you cook.” Hearing that, Mila paused slightly. She turned around and saw that Judith had a deep smile on her face. She also smiled and nodded. “Alright!”

Mila walked into the kitchen. However, when she turned around, her eyes turned gloomy. She thought, “Marilyn, you dare to beat my daughter! In the future, I will return it to you. Sarah is a good girl. Marilyn must be blind. Is it because she is old and becomes less and less discerning? As the saying goes, the older, the more experienced. Jason and Sarah were happy with each other, but Marilyn had made trouble separating them, not even wanting her grandson. What has she gone through all these years? She has turned herself into such an unreasonable person.” Mila frowned and shook her head. Her heart ached for Judith. Marilyn had hit her so heavily! Judith watched Mila enter the kitchen, and she turned to the opposite room to clean up the room. She wondered, “Mom did not stop Mr. Williams from coming. Could it be that he had been trying hard to pursue her when I was not at home?” The two little guys, standing at the entrance of the stairs, had gloomy expressions. Emily looked back at Lucas and asked, “Lucas, who's Mrs. Chaney?” Seeing that Emily was willing to talk to him, Lucas smiled and said, “You are not angry with me anymore?” “Since you give me the candy, I won't be angry with you. But you have to tell me who Mrs. Chaney is.” Emily thought, “She dared to bully Mom...”

Chapter 359

She secretly swore in her heart, “One day, I will teach those who bullied Mom a lesson. I will return all the humiliation Mom had suffered to them!” “I don’t know her,” Lucas answered concisely.

When Emily saw that, her little wrinkled out of anger. “Lucas, you...” Emily was so angry that she was speechless. She glared at Lucas’s room, wishing she could see through the door. ” “I will investigate it myself.” As Emily spoke, she blinked her big eyes. She glanced at the kitchen and wanted to ask Mila. But she finally gave up, thinking, “Grandma knows me so well. She won’t tell me about that.” After a while, Emily had another idea. “Uncle Adam loves me the most!” Emily smiled and walked into her room. Judith quickly tidied up the room. It had a large floor-to-ceiling window and was spacious and bright. It would be comfortable to live in. Judith walked to the floor-to-ceiling window and pulled the curtains. Sunlight instantly came in, making the room brighter, Behind her house were also small villas. When Judith came back, she counted that there were ten of them. Her villa was the first on the left. In short, she was very satisfied with the house. When Judith left the room, her phone suddenly rang. She took out the phone and saw that it was from Gary.

She hesitated for a moment and picked up the phone. “Mr. Powell.” “Judy, I’ve brought a gift over. Send me the address.” “OK.” After Judith finished speaking, she hung up the phone. She opened Line and sent the location to Gary. She exhaled and walked to the kitchen. Mila was handling the fish. Judith said, “Mom, our company’s Mr. Powell will send a gift later.” Mila’s action paused slightly. She looked at Judith and was confused. “Mr. Powell? Is it Gary?” She smiled and said, “Judy, then I will prepare more dishes. Later, let him have a meal together!” “Okay! Mom, let me help you!” Judith said and walked in. Mila quickly said, “No need. I can do it alone. Go and tidy up the living room. You have to greet guests later.” “Okay!” Judith obediently walked out. Mila glanced at Judith’s back and thought about something. She picked up her phone and sent a message to Keven. “Keven, Gary is coming soon.” Keven was on the way to Judith’s home. He sat in the luxurious car, wearing a dark black suit and exuding a gentle and elegant temperament. He set a special alert for Mila’s message. He glanced at Line, his gaze gentle. “Mila, don’t be afraid. I’m here!” When Mila saw the message, she smiled. “Don’t be afraid, I am here!” These few words made her feel guilty and distressed. She could only apologize to Keven. However, in the future... Mila smiled. There was a hint of affection in her smile. Perhaps, she had enough confidence to accept Keven. She looked down and continued cooking. She always remembered that Keven didn’t eat pepper or coriander. Last night, she knew that he would come, so she didn’t add them to the dishes.

Chapter 360

Keven was happy when eating last night, so Mila decided to cook for him today. At noon, Keven, who was always punctual, arrived at Judith’s home on time. There was a truck from the furniture company parked in front of the house. Judith opened the door and went out. “Mr. Williams, you are here.” “Judy, ask Lucas and Emily to come out first. They’ll move out the old furniture and then move in the new ones. The new furniture is all processed in advance and can be used at any time.” Keven laughed. Judith was grateful.

“Okay! Mr. Williams, thank you!” Judith beckoned her son and daughter to come out and asked them to play in the yard. Lucas and Emily obediently ran out and went to the side to have fun. Judith made a way for the workers. They had just moved in, and many of the furniture had not been used, and there was nothing inside. Changing the furniture now would not be troublesome. “Mr. Williams, I was just joking last night. But you have taken it seriously.” Keven smiled happily, “Judy, whether you are joking or not, I will give the furniture to you sooner or later. Didn’t I tell you that I am rich? Don’t save the money for me.” Judith was amused by his words. She smiled and asked, “Mr. Williams, how can you flaunt your wealth like this?”

“Why not? What I said is the truth!” “That’s right. You are a real estate tycoon,” Judith said with a smile. She thought, “Mr. Williams is such a rich and kind person. How can Mom make him wait for her for so many years?”

Judith suddenly asked in a mysterious tone, “Mr. Williams, have you and my mother met again? My mother didn’t put any pepper in the fish she made last night. It was specially prepared for you. You and she...” Judith wanted to say something but stopped. She gestured in front of Keven with her two fingers.

Keven smiled and looked at her mysteriously, “Little girl, it’s not easy for me in this life. I’ve waited for your mother to marry me for so long and I am old. Your mother gives me a little chance now, so I need to take the opportunity to please her. I’ll use my sincerity to move her.”

Judith kept nodding. “Mr. Williams, I am on your side. If my mother agrees to marry you, I’ll also agree with both hands raised.”

“Really?” Keven narrowed his eyes. “Yes! Mr. Williams, it’s real.” Judith nodded heavily. “I’ll be very happy about my mother’s happiness.” “Girl, I like your kindness and filial piety.” Keven was overjoyed.

Suddenly, he saw a black car driving toward him. He narrowed his eyes and said, “Judy, someone is coming!”

Judith saw that it was Gary’s car. She smiled.

“Mr. Williams, it’s Mr. Powell from my company. I’ll go over and take a look.” “I’ll go with you. It just so happens that I know him too. Let’s go over and greet him.” “Alright!” Judith nodded. They walked toward Gary’s car.
