Chapter 361

Gary drove personally to deliver the gift. If he didn't come personally, Frank would never be at ease. Therefore, even on the weekend, Gary resigned himself to his fate and worked hard. The truck blocked the way, and he could only park the car behind the truck. He saw Judith walking over from afar. When he saw Keven, he frowned and thought, "Why is Mr. Williams also her?" In the business world, few people could see Keven all year round, but he was quite familiar with Judith. Gary opened the door and got out of the car. He looked at Judith and Keven and smiled. "Judy. Mr. Williams," He greeted first. "Mr. Powell, long time no see!" Keven said, smiling. Gary said, "Mr. Williams, it's been a long time indeed since we last met." During the last banquet, Gary had not greeted Keven. "Mr. Williams, it seems that you are quite familiar with Judy," Gary said and glanced at Judith. Keven looked at Judith warmly and smiled. "We've known each other for seven years. She's just like my daughter. If I have nothing to do, I'll come to her house to have a meal." A daughter? Gary felt that it was a little hard to digest the information. He stood there in a daze.

Judith also looked at Keven in shock. But after thinking about it, she felt that it made sense. Keven was rich, but he did not marry and have children. He was a mysterious legend in upper-class society. Nobody knew why he didn't marry. They only knew that he was very rich. In front of the media, Keven did not talk about the matter. Some of the brave reporters asked questions during the interview. But he was able to avoid it easily. If the people in the business world knew that Judith was Keven's daughter, then the stock price of the Taylor Group would rise sharply. Gary suddenly felt that Judith was Frank's good luck. With a big shot like Keven, the future of the Taylor Group would be prosperous! Gary thought happily in his heart. He looked at Judith with a smile as if he was looking at a cash cow. And he was even looking forward to the arrival of the Taylor Group's peak. "Judy, Mr. Taylor and I have prepared some gifts for you. Let me send them into your house." Keven smiled politely. "Mr. Powell, there is no need to trouble you. Take them down first. Later, I will let the workers move them in." Gary glanced at the busy scene in front of Judith's house. Sure enough, he had no way to get in. "Alright." As Gary spoke, he opened the trunk of the car and moved the things down. Judith saw two trees, as well as some small plants, murals, water bamboo, and all sorts of small things. There were also children's toys and dolls. Judith looked at them in disbelief. She thought, "Gary is even more like a father than her children's biological father! How did he stuff so many things in his car?" Although those things were not valuable, they earned Judith's heart. She needed those plants to decorate the yard and the balcony on the half-floor. "Mr. Powell, and also Mr. Taylor, thank you!" Judith smiled. Gary glanced at all kinds of items on the ground and then looked at the furniture that Keven had sent over. The things he sent were nothing! However, those things were all carefully selected by Frank and were his kind intentions. Fortunately, Judith looked happy, and Gary was relieved. "Judy, then I will go back first." "Mr. Powell, stay for lunch," Judith said. "No, I still have something to do. I'll come again in the future." Gary wanted to stay for a meal and ask around about Alissa. Last night, he sent the last message and it was like a stone sinking into the sea. Today, she did not reply to the message.

Chapter 362

“See you next time, Mr. Williams!” Gary said, looking at Keven.
“Alright. Take care!” Keven smiled politely. He would be the first to be unhappy if Gary wanted to stay for a meal.

Keven could have arrived earlier, but knowing that Gary was also coming, he deliberately got someone to investigate Gary’s whereabouts. So in the end, he and Gary almost arrived at the same time. He thought, “Mila rarely asks me for help. As long as she does, I will spare any effort to help her. I will naturally not let go of such a good opportunity! Mila begins to accept me. It means that she has put down her past.” Gary noticed Judith’s cheek, which was still a little red and swollen. But with Keven around, he could not ask much and drove away. Sarah also came. Mila stood by the window and watched Gary’s car leave. Then, she entered the kitchen with a complicated expression and continued to prepare lunch. Keven brought many people here. They carried out the old furniture and replaced them with new ones. Many people were going in and out of Judith’s house at the moment. In less than an hour, dozens of workers finished everything. The whole house was instantly refreshed and decorated with high-end furniture. The things that Gary brought over were all moved to the living room. Only then did they sit down happily to eat together! Gary drove back to the villa. Frank was waiting for him to come back for lunch. However, it was take-out food. Seeing it, Gary’s mood instantly became bad. “Everything has been delivered?” Frank asked in a low voice. “Yes.” Gary nodded weakly. A trace of displeasure appeared on Frank’s handsome face.

“Have lunch.” He pointed at the takeout on the table. Gary glanced at it, his face full of disdain. “Frank, if I knew you ordered takeout again, I might as well have lunch at Judith's home." Frank sat down and said casually, "The cook has gone home to look after her daughter-in-law. She won't come back for a while. Let's eat take-out first." Gary lazily sat across from Frank. "Frank, look at you. What would you do if I weren't here?" "Don't order a takeout tonight. I'll cook for you!" Gary's tone was filled with helplessness, and he felt pitiful for Frank. "You?" Frank looked at him suspiciously. "What? Haven't you enjoyed the dishes I cooked before?" Gary glared at him. "Fried cucumber with egg without peeling? And the eggs were burnt. And fried beef with chili? I could only see chili. Even pigs don't dare to eat the dishes you cook. I will continue to order takeout, so as not to go to the hospital," As Frank spoke, he picked up his chopsticks and ate casually. At this time, he missed the dumplings made by Judith. He thought, "Judy, what should I do with you?" "It was the first time I cooked, so I couldn't do it well." Gary looked up at Frank, "Frank, do you give people only one chance? I will cook beef for you tonight. It must taste good."

Chapter 363

Frank looked at Gary with an evil smile and did not refute his words. "Have you seen Judy?" He asked in a low tone. "Yes, I saw her, but half of her face was swollen. I think she was beaten by someone." "Who?" Frank suddenly put down his chopsticks and roared. Gary was shocked by him and suddenly raised his head. "Frank, are you going to choke me to death?" Gary spoke vaguely because his mouth was stuffed with food. "Why are you so excited? I just saw her swollen cheek and thought that she was beaten. How would I know who beat her up?" He regretted telling Frank about it.

Frank was indeed a crazy man. When he encountered Judith's matter, he had no rationality. Frank did not speak with a gloomy face. He thought he should have gone by himself. However, Gina's people were outside the villa. The moment he went out, he would soon be followed. Gina had been investigating the relationship between Eric and him. With her personality, she would soon find out that Eric and Lucas were his children. "Keven also went there. He said that Judith was like his daughter and he sent a lot of furniture to her. He even had breakfast there." "Daughter?" Frank was surprised. "Yes. That's what Keven said. Moreover, he treats Judith very well." Gary was also shocked when he heard that. Frank was not in the mood to eat. For him, the food was like wax. After a while, he said, "Keven has a good reputation in the business world. He has hundreds of millions of assets and has yet to find a suitable heir. He started from scratch and does not have any other family." Gary rolled his eyes at him and said unhappily, "These things are not a secret in the business world." Everyone knew Keven's identity, but he did not have a wife or a child. It was the most confusing. Frank raised his eyebrows and said in a cold voice, "He sent Judith a lot of expensive furniture. Aren't the gifts we sent too shabby?" Frank finally realized the problem. Gary smiled strangely. "When I moved those gifts out of the car, you don't know how embarrassed I was. Can't you pick some expensive ones?" Gary thought of Keven's smile and wanted to hit the wall. It was so embarrassing! Frank looked at him. "Didn't you say it? Judith won't accept a precious gift." Besides, the gifts he chose were all things that girls liked. Didn't those videos always say that girls liked small cute plants? Gary thought about it. He did say that. "The international exhibition will be held on Tuesday. You have said you are going to take Judith there. I'll arrange it for you on Monday." He was always responsible for his work. Now that he thought about it, it was better to mention it. "OK." Frank nodded with an indifferent expression. He had been looking forward to the arrival of that day. He would take Judith with him alone and he felt very happy about it. He couldn't even remember how many times he had secretly laughed in his heart. Frank asked, "Will Edwin and Patrick come?" Gary shook his head and said, "Edwin won't. He said that he met a computer expert recently. He couldn't even find the IP address of the other party. It was a great failure for him. Therefore, he was supposed to be at home searching for the IP address while resting. It had been several days, but he found nothing." Frank frowned slightly. Last time, they knew that Gina had stolen Judith's design. Someone had told them through a special method.

Chapter 364

As for the virus against the news agency, that person seemed to be secretly helping Frank and also helped Judith take revenge. Frank said casually, "The person is very mysterious. He has helped us twice. It would be great if we could find him. He is such a skilled technician. Our company needs him. You should also find some time to investigate." Gary almost spat out the food in his mouth. He quickly chewed it a few times and swallowed it. Then he looked at Frank angrily, "Frank, don't go too far. You're in love now, but I'm still single. Give me some time and let me have a chance to date. "Every weekend, when I go back home, my mother would always talk my ear off. "I'm not much younger than you and twenty-seven years old this year. As a golden bachelor, I can find a young beauty and spend the rest of my life with her. "So, let Edwin investigate. His speed will be ten times faster than mine." Gary complained in his heart, "Edwin's son is almost seven years old, and his wife is still in his mother's home. No one knows where he is." When Frank heard Gary's nagging, he put on a gloomy face. He thought, "Did I let him be busy with work?" He frowned and looked at Gary indifferently. "The beauty you mentioned is Alissa, right?" "Yes." Gary glared at Frank. He had a feeling for Alissa. It was a pity that she had a boyfriend. Frank sneered and said in a mocking tone, "She has a boyfriend. It'll hurt your self-esteem to snatch someone else's love. Can you let go of your self-esteem that would collapse at the touch?" "You want to hear the truth?" Gary pursed his lips and looked up at Frank seriously. "You can tell me a lie. Anyway, you are lying to yourself, not me." Frank didn't give him any face. He was willing to say a few more words when he was with Gary. With Edwin, they may not say a word a day. "It's boring to chat with you," Gary said. He thought for a while and finally said with sincerity, "Frank, I feel that the four of us have always been living in a daze. "After all these years, I finally met a woman who moved me, but she has a boyfriend. "Even if I have extraordinary courage to take a step, she may not be willing to consider me. I have no chance." Gary was hot-blooded, and he was afraid that eventually, he would hurt himself badly. Just as Frank said, his self esteem would crumble at the touch and he could not stand it. Frank rarely saw Gary being serious and he couldn't help but laugh. Gary's mood became even worse. He roared, "Frank, it wasn't easy for me to meet a woman I like and to get serious once. Are you trying to make fun of me?" Frank's smile faded slightly. "Gary, I smiled because you were serious. "You said that you fell in love with Alissa at first sight. And you still have a chance. You haven't even worked hard, and you have extinguished your initial enthusiasm. "Can you strive for happiness like this?" Frank had always known what he wanted. He never let himself be confused. Since he had made up his mind, he had enough courage to persevere. He was now close to the result.

Chapter 365

This time, Gary smiled. He suddenly said confidently, “Frank, you finally spoke some good words. I am instantly confident again. *I’ve investigated Edward. He is not much stronger than me.” Gary’s eyes were as clear as water, and he smiled slightly, yet he was confident and determined Frank had been waiting for Judith for ten years. Gary thought that he could also have a happy ending. “Then I wish you success in advance.” After Frank finished speaking, he stood up and his shadow enveloped Gary. A faint smile perfectly merged into his handsome face. Gary could not help but think, “How good-looking he is!” Frank’s pleasing appearance was even attractive to him. Gary shook his head to make his mind clear.. He could not betray his heart for Alissa! Frank said, “Throw away the trash. I’m going to the Taylor’s.” Gary stood up instantly. “I’ll go with you. I’m afraid that the old witch will eat you!” Frank frowned and was speechless. He thought, “Will she dare?” He was going back to get the video. “Frank, wait for me,” Gary said as he quickly tidied up the table. It was boring for him to be alone at home. He preferred going to see the evil face of the “old witch”. Even if he would feel disgusted, the boring weekend could be more interesting because of it.

Frank didn’t say anything, stood in place, and waited for him. Gary was fast. After packing up, he followed Frank out. On the other hand, Judith and the others had finished their lunch. Judith did not go out but was tidying up the room at home. Sarah, Lucas, and Emily helped her. Mila sent Keven out. They walked side by side. The grass exuded a unique fragrance and a faint lingered around them. Keven smiled gently as he looked at Mila. He asked, “Mila, have you made enough preparations for your return ?” Mila stopped and found that they were far away from her home. She smiled and nodded. “Keven, I have enough courage to face the past. It’s hard on you...” “Mila, I am willing to do it. There is nothing bitter.” Keven interrupted her. If he had succeeded earlier in the past and had today’s achievements, he would have married Mila and she would not have suffered so much. Her appearance was enough to make him happy for the rest of his life. Mila looked at him and smiled gratefully, “Keven, I don’t want to think about anything right now. I’m just worried about the safety of Judith and Lucas, and Emily. “Judith had a hard time. I feel sorry for her. If it weren’t for her, Lucas; and Emily, I wouldn’t have been able to recover so quickly. Keven understood Mila’s worry. He looked back at the house and saw a busy figure on the balcony on the second floor. “I also like Judy very much. Among the girls nowadays, it is rare to see one working so hard and kind-hearted.” In fact, Keven had an idea long ago. He just happened to have a chance today, so he told Mila about it. He said, “Mila, I have an idea. I want to take Judith as my daughter and let the media report it. Not many people dare to bully my daughter.”

Chapter 366

When Mila heard that, she was quite surprised. She then said solemnly, “Keven, we can’t joke about it. Judy was hurt badly by the Coopers back then.” Keven said with a reassuring smile, “Mila, look at me. Do you think I’m joking?” Mila saw his expression and she couldn’t help but smile. “In any case, I’ll rely on Judy for the rest of my life.” “What about me?” Keven looked at her with a jealous expression. Mila’s face instantly turned a little blushed. “You are the same.” Her words made Keven indescribably excited. “Mila, you are willing to marry me?” Keven said excitedly as he held onto Mila’s hand. He had waited for her and protected her for so many years. Finally, he was able to see the outcome. He always felt that as long as he made a choice, he would live a meaningful life. And if he wanted something, he would have to sacrifice to some extent. Everything he had paid would be returned in another way. Mila nodded and looked at him with excitement but she felt distressed. All these years, she was in pain, and he was in pain with her. “Keven, I’m sorry. All these years, I’ve kept you waiting like this.” She looked guilty, her eyes watery. Keven smiled gently. He looked at her calmly and joked, “Mila, look, I’ve been old and you are finally willing to marry me. But all my waiting was worth it.” Mila smiled bitterly, but also blissfully. “I didn’t expect that I would live a new life.”. All these years, one of them had been in pain, while the other had been watching. Her life had failed enough, and she couldn’t let Keven be in pain for the rest of his life. Keven quickly took out his phone and looked at the calendar. Mila saw it and asked, “Why are you so excited?” Keven looked at her with a mysterious gaze, but he did not say anything. He continued to look at the calendar. All of a sudden, he said excitedly, “Mila, today is a good day. Let’s go get the marriage certificate. I’ll make it up to you for a grand wedding later.” Mila did not know what to say.

She gaped at Keven who was excited. She had just agreed, and she still needed some time to consider their marriage. Keven did not care about Mila’s expression. It was the first time she had expressed her feelings for him. If he did not take the opportunity, Mila would regret it after a few days. At that time, he might cry to death. He had been an orphan since he was young and didn’t even have a family. He looked back at Judith and smiled. He thought, “The girl would always make people lucky! Today is the beat!” . He looked at Mila and said excitedly, “Mila, today is a good day for everything! I will recognize Judy as my daughter and put our names in the same Household Registry!” Mila saw his sincere expression and knew what he had hoped for all these years. She said, “Then we need Judy to agree.” .... .. Keven put on an evil smile. “Mila, you still don’t know that Judith has betrayed you a long time ago. She said that as long as you are happy, she will not object to us being together!” “That little girl...” Mila spoke in a doting tone. She was also delighted. Keven pulled Mila and walked back. In his eyes, he and Mila had been in love all these years. He had her in his youth, and he had no regrets in his life. If he married her, then his life would be perfect

Love At First Night Chapter 367

Chapter 367

Judith was placing the plants that Gary had sent over on the flower racks on the balcony. When looking down, she was startled. She quickly put down the flower pot and walked to the side to look down. – “Wow!” Judith thought, “Mr. Williams is really efficient. He has been pursuing Mom for so many years. Has he achieved his dream?”

“Girl, come down!” Keven beckoned to Judith. Judith pointed to herself and asked with a mysterious smile, “Mr. Williams, are you sure you want me to come down now?” “Of course. Come down quickly! I have something to tell you!” Keven shouted with a smile. He was like a young man who had just bloomed in love. He smiled brightly and tenderly and looked several years younger. Judith smiled, turned to wash her hands, and went downstairs. Lucas, Emily, and Sarah were tidying up in the hall on the first floor. Keven saw Judith come down. He smiled and asked, “Judy, are you willing to be my daughter?” Words failed Judith. She looked at Keven in disbelief. She did not expect that the first thing he said when he saw her was that. It wasn’t “do you want to”, nor was “Can you”, but it was “Are you willing to”. “Wow!” Emily was happy and marveled. She liked Keven very much. Lucas just stood expressionless at the side. He felt proud in his heart, “As long as people stay with Mommy for some time, they will find that she is kind and considerate!” Judith stared blankly at Keven for a while and then looked at Mila who was smiling. She smiled and said, “Mr. Williams, are you joking?” “Judy, do I look like I’m joking?” Keven asked. He looked at Judith with sincerity. He had no children and no one could inherit his hundreds of millions of assets. If he could have a daughter like Judith, and with Mila, he would have no regrets in this life. Keven continued, “Judy, we have known each other for seven years and you know my character. I have no children. If I can have a clever and kind daughter like you, I will have no regrets in my life.” That was right. Judith indeed knew Keven very well. She thought, “He has been waiting for Mom all his life. I have a mother and still need a father.” Judith smiled and said, “I’m willing. I just happen to need a father.” Keven laughed happily. Mila also looked at Judith and smiled. “Judy, well done! You have fulfilled Keven’s dream.”

Judith smiled and said, “Mom, the person who fulfilled Mr. Williams’s dream was you. All these years, he has been protecting you. You have thought it through and wanted to be with him. It is the most correct choice.” Mila nodded. It was not that difficult to put down everything in the past and accept a new life. Previously, she was too persistent. “Judy, why are you still calling me Mr. Williams? You have to call me Dad in the future.” Keven corrected. “OK.

Dad!” Judith agreed with him and called out happily. “I am here!” Keven had an indescribable excitement surging from the depths of his heart. But Judith felt an inexplicable heartache. She knew that Keven was an orphan. In this life, she had never called someone father, and no one had called him father.
