/ Fit For Your Love

Although Olivia didn't want to, she still picked it up after thinking about it.

"Frank."

"Olivia, open the door!"

Frank's angry voice came, accompanied by the sound of knocking on the door.

Olivia frowned, "You're outside?"

"What else? Open the door!"

Frank's fury was going to erupt.

He had thought that he could find her after he came back, but she didn't open the door now.

When did she get this stubborn streak? He really should give her a good lesson tonight! "Sorry, I'm not home."

"What?"

"I'm not at home. I'm at... My fiancé's house."

Olivia paused a while and said.

Frank was her good friend, and she didn't want to lie to him.

Frank was stunned, "Fiancé? Who's your fiancé?"

Why had he never heard of her fiancé? A Person's name quickly crossed his mind, and he immediately asked, "Is it Brayden?"

"Yes."

"Didn't you break up?"

What was going on? "Yes, but we're back together."

"Back together? You... Wait, wait a minute. I'm not talking about this but AK Company. I showed your information to Mr. Smith again and asked him to give you a chance. He agreed. Olivia, he agreed!"

"You can work with those designers at AK Company. What a rare opportunity! Are you really going to resign?"

Olivia clenched her lips to read the newest content, everyone! to admit you into AK Company. After all, what you did yesterday was too impulsive. But after I showed him your previous designs, he Visit to read the newest content, everyone! don't know what's going on between you and Everett, but I just know that you should not act on impulse without due consideration!"

"Think carefully about this opportunity. I've won it for you. Don't you want it?"

Olivia pressed her lips and frowned.

Mr. Smith agreed.

Why did he agree? Because of her designs? But she didn't think her designs could touch him to this extent.

Could it be Everett? No.

How could he help her go to such a good company like AK, especially when he deliberately made things difficult Visit to read the newest content, everyone! why did Mr. Smith agree? This...

Olivia was a little confused.

Frank was still saying, "Olivia, don't be impulsive. Mr. Smith always values talented persons, and the persons who win his favor will have a bright prospect. Otherwise, how can AK Company develop so well?"

"I don't believe you don't know about this!"

Frank really hoped Olivia to work at AK Company.

A person like her would be suitable for a high position.

He didn't want her to miss such a good opportunity.

"Frank, I'm a little confused right now. Can you let me think about it?"

"OK! I'll give you time to think about it, but I have to remind you that opportunities don't wait for people. I've fought for you this time. If you abandon it, then I won't fight for you again."

"That's it. Think about it yourself"

Frank hung up the call.

Olivia listened to the busy tone in her cell phone, clutching the quilt.

Her mind was filled with thoughts.

She really needed to think about it.

After hanging up, Frank took a deep breath, calmed himself down, and left.

Walking out of the apartment building, he got in the car and started the motor.

When he spun the steering wheel, he looked into the rear mirror and saw an Aston Martin parked behind the right.

That was exactly the new model released last year.

There were only 30 cars of the model in the world.

He was slightly surprised.

Although this neighborhood was not a slum, it was also not a rich area.

Such a car parked here was quite eye-catching.

Whose car was this? He looked at the front of the Aston Martin to see if there was anyone inside.

However, the car was parked right under a big banyan tree, which was such a good shelter that he couldn't see clearly.

Frank's lips raised.

He saw a limited edition Bentley here some days ago, and today a limited edition of Aston Martin.

It seemed that there were many undiscovered rich people in this neighborhood.

Frank stepped on the gas and left.

As his car left, the Aston Martin's window slowly lowered, revealing a handsome and cold face.

In the night, the eyes were as black as an abyss.

/ Love Coming from the Least Expected

The next morning, Olivia, Brayden and Belle packed up and went to the airport.

The tickets were already bought on the first day.

A few people went to the airport, took the tickets and went through the security check, and boarded the plane.

An hour later, the plane landed in C City.

Olivia called Elizabeth and asked where she was.

Elizabeth said she was at work.

Olivia asked Elizabeth to take a leave of absence and told Elizabeth that she was getting married and was taking her fiancé and her fiancé's mother to her home today to discuss the wedding.

Elizabeth didn't react for a few seconds when Olivia said she was getting married.

"Get married?"

"Yes. I'll take them to the hotel now. I'll be home in about two or three hours. Mom, take a leave and come back."

"Well... Okay." Elizabeth wanted to ask something else, but when she thought that she would meet Olivia later, she decided to ask Olivia directly, so she hung up the phone and went to the store manager to ask for leave.

Elizabeth now worked in a supermarket.

Although her salary was not high, she could still support her family, and George was working as a private driver for the boss of a company.

Being a private driver paid well, but his salary was sent to Sydney every month.

Therefore, the family was living in straitened circumstance.

But the money they earned was enough to live on for life.

It just Visit to read the newest content, everyone! Belle, "Auntie, we'll go to the hotel later and put our luggage away. After packing, we'll go to my house."

"Sure. Belle had no objections. Belle Visit to read the newest content, everyone! to know that she was getting married, so she didn't call home until now.

Brayden didn't ask anything, and Olivia decided everything.

Because he knew exactly what Olivia was thinking.

Having a father who lost five million, even though he was framed by Everett, wasn't necessarily a good thing.

She was doing this to protect him.

He was touched.

Several people went to the hotel, and Brayden booked two rooms in the row, one for Belle, the other for him and Olivia.

Belle didn't say anything, neither did Olivia.

However, when Brayden and Olivia returned to their room, Brayden said, "Don't worry, I'll sleep on the sofa tonight."

The reason he had booked a room with her was to tell his mother that he and Olivia had done everything.

He wanted everyone who wanted to know the current situation, especially Everett. Olivia knew what Brayden was doing, and that was what she wanted.

"I'm not worried"

After washing up and resting for a while, they went to eat something.

Olivia called Elizabeth and asked if she was back.

Elizabeth said she was going back, and she had just bought some food.

She also told Olivia that she could not come back for the time being and she could not come back until night.

Olivia said it was okay and hung up.

After she hung up the phone, she said to Brayden, "Go to my house and don't bring anything with you, and don't mention the betrothal gifts. Even if my parents ask, you can say that we don't care about this. If they ask if there's going to be a big wedding, you say no wedding. A family sitting down together for a meal is fine."

"Then, tell auntie about this and let her know."

Brayden didn't say anything.

He looked at her and asked after a few seconds, "Are you really not going to do it?"

The bride price didn't matter, he would give it to her in his own way.

But even if it was not a big wedding, a small one was a must.

"No. If I do, they'll notice. I don't want them to know that I'm married to a rich man."

If they knew, it would be the same as before. She didn't want to. She really didn't want to. Brayden's eyes were full of pity for her. He knew she was heartbroken by what happened last time.

"Okay, I promise you, but I have a request."

"Say it"

"After we get married, we go abroad and have a small wedding. Only my friend and your friend will attend."

"Is that OK?"

Fit For Your Love Chapter 103

/ Fit For Your Love

He had to give her a wedding. Whether it was big or small.

"Okay. Olivia agreed. This was a normal request, nor did it affect anything. So she would not refuse."

Brayden smiled.

After Brayden told Belle about Olivia's family, Belle understood.

They took a taxi to Olivia's parents' house and didn't bring anything. Olivia knocked on the door.

"Coming!"

Before Elizabeth came out, she looked at herself to see if there was anything wrong with her.

After making sure that everything was fine, she went to the door, opened the peephole and looked out.

She was wondering what Olivia's future husband looked like or if he was rich.

It would be great if he was rich.

Elizabeth saw Brayden standing behind Olivia.

He was tall.

He looked gentle, and his temperament was outstanding.

He looked like a child of a rich family! How nice! She would put an end to the days of hard work! Elizabeth hurriedly opened the door and smiled happily.

"Come in and have a seat!"

Then she took out the slippers, bent over and put them in front of Brayden and Belle.

Belle was embarrassed to see Olivia's mother putting the slippers for her.

She said, "I'll do it myself"

"It's nothing."

Elizabeth looked at Belle and Brayden.

They looked noble judged by the clothes and the temperament.

Her hard days were over! Elizabeth hurried to make tea, and Olivia led Belle and Brayden in.

Belle looked around.

It was a very ordinary decoration, and the furniture and appliances were ordinary.

Obviously, this was what Olivia called a very ordinary family.

Brayden was also looking around, Visit to read the newest content, everyone! didn't care about Olivia's family.

He only cared about her.

Elizabeth put the tea in front of the two of them and said with Visit to read the newest content, everyone! early spring.I don't know if it suits you or not."

Belle smiled.

"It's good.Everything is good."

Elizabeth looked at Brayden and Brayden said, "Spring tea is the best."

Elizabeth immediately smiled and her eyes narrowed.

This boy was really sweet.

At first glance, she knew he was a child from an intellectual family.

He was much better than Everett.

She liked him.

Very much! Olivia introduced the two of them.

"Auntie, Brayden, this is my mother' Then she said to Elizabeth, "Mom, this is my flancé Brayden and this is his mother"

Belle said, "Hello"

Brayden called, "Auntie."

Elizabeth kept nodding.

"Good.So good!"

She was so elated.

When Everett first came here, he was alone.

He didn't bring anyone with him which showed that he didn't care about Olivia's family at all.

Now that this boy brought his mother with him, it was obvious that he cared about Olivia.

It was just...

Elizabeth looked beside them and realized that they didn't seem to have anything with them.

Did they just come here without any gift? Elizabeth looked at Olivia, questioning her with her eyes.

Although Everett came alone with no parents, he brought a lot of things.

They were all high-end stuff.

Today, this bot brought his mother with him and the two of them looked very well-dressed, which meant they knew the etiquettes.

Olivia said, "Mom, I've known Brayden for a long time.We decided to get married soon.Just these days."

Olivia knew what Elizabeth was thinking, but she pretended not to see.

Only in this way could this be areal home.

Elizabeth frowned but did not flare up.

"Get married? So soon?"

She looked at Belle and Brayden.

The meaning in her eyes was obvious.

It was OK that they two got married, but they just came to inform her? Brayden put down his teacup, crossed his fingers, and looked at Elizabeth with sincere eyes.

“Yes, auntie, Olivia and I really love each other. We decided to get married. We came to discuss with you about it”

Elizabeth laughed and said, “I am fine with you getting married. Olivia’s father and I never interfere with children’s marriage. They can marry whoever they like.”

“But we must discuss about something else...”

As she spoke, she rubbed her hands, looked at Belle and asked meaningfully, “Is that right, Brayden’s mother?”

Belle was stunned, and then said, “Yes, I came this time with Brayden to discuss about something.”

“Hehe, good, good!”

“Have you thought about the betrothal gifts and stuff?”

“?”

Fit For Your Love Chapter 104

/ Fit For Your Love

The atmosphere froze immediately.

Belle frowned slightly, and Brayden frowned as well.

Seeing their expression, Elizabeth’s smile faded, but she still maintained the basic courtesy and said, “We pay attention to customs. There should be betrothal gifts, cars, and houses.”

“Of course, Olivia has been married once, so we wouldn’t be that picky. Let’s just do it as usual. We don’t ask for a large number of betrothal gifts, just two hundred thousand dollars. As for other gifts...”

Elizabeth paused, and she glanced at the two and showed her palm.

“Five hundred thousand dollars, not very much.’ For poor people, a few hundred thousand was really a large sum.

But for the rich, a few hundred thousand was nothing at all.

Just like Everett.

So, for the two of them in front of her, she thought the seven hundred thousand was not much.

If Olivia hadn't been married once, she would have asked for more.

Brayden's face darkened.

Belle was also unhappy.

It was like a deal to sell her daughter as Elizabeth said.

Elizabeth continued, "We are just an ordinary family. Olivia still has a sister studying abroad, so we don't have much marriage dowry. If you can't afford the house and the car, it would still be okay. As long as you two are happy"

It seemed that she was really sensible and considerate.

Brayden curled his lips and looked at Elizabeth with a cold smile.

"Auntie, I'm sorry. I didn't think of giving the betrothal gifts."

Originally, he wanted to give some money to the two elders without letting others know, but now it seemed that it was not necessary.

Elizabeth's face turned gloomy immediately.

She raised her eyebrows and looked at Belle.

"Hey, your son said not to give betrothal gifts. How about you?"

Belle looked at her with faint Visit to read the newest content, everyone! funny!"

"It's the first time I've ever seen that a man want to marry a woman without spending a single cent!"

After that, she Visit to read the newest content, everyone! don't agree with this marriage"

Olivia knew that Elizabeth would say that when she started to ask for money.

"Mom, this..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Brayden interrupted her.

"Auntie, I'll marry her no matter what you said"

His voice was cold and forceful, and his eyes were sharp.

The living room was quiet.

Olivia looked at Brayden, confused.

She didn't expect him to say that, not to mention what did he mean.

Belle didn't understand either.

Elizabeth was even more confused.

Of course, she didn't need to understand.

She widened her eyes and said angrily, "What did you say? No matter what I said? Who are you? When is it your turn to decide my daughter's marriage?"

"Let me tell you, my daughter's marriage should in regard to her parents' orders! If I don't agree, Olivia can't marry you!"

"Then please give me back the five million that Olivia borrowed from me."

"Five million? When did Olivia borrow..."

Elizabeth stopped, covered her mouth, and pointed at Brayden.

"You..."

Then she looked at Olivia, her eyes filled with shock and disbelief.

After Brayden said that, Olivia understood what he meant and nodded.

"Well, I borrowed the five million dollars from him"

Brayden said, "Olivia can't afford it. And I'm not in good health. No one else wants to marry me, so I'll marry her, and I take it as buying her."

"It doesn't matter to me if you don't agree. You give me back the five million, then I won't marry Olivia."

Elizabeth said quickly, "No! No! She will marry you!"

"This is what Olivia owes you. She should do that!"

She laughed awkwardly and stared at Olivia.

“Olivia, why didn’t you say it earlier? If you had said it earlier, I wouldn’t have said anything about the betrothal gifts. I’m so embarrassed now!”

After that, she looked at Belle and Brayden and smiled apologetically, “Ms. Weston my son, I’m really sorry!”

Belle did not say anything, but she showed a more distant expression.

By now, she had known what kind of a person Elizabeth is.

It was just...

She looked at Olivia, her heart aching.

Why didn’t she show any trace of sadness?

Fit For Your Love Chapter 105

/ Fit For Your Love

Brayden didn’t want to stay here any longer, not to mention to see Elizabeth’s face.

He got up and said coldly, “We will inform you after we decide the wedding day, and we will have dinner together.”

With that, he pulled Olivia up and strode away.

Belle also got up and left.

Elizabeth stiffened.

But she quickly came to her senses and chased after them.

“Ms. Weston, and my son-in-law, please have a meal with us!”

“Please have a meal with us!”

No one paid any attention to her.

Soon, they entered the elevator and blocked Elizabeth out.

Elizabeth looked at the closed elevator door, anxious and angry, walking back and forth at the elevator door.

She never thought that Brayden would be the person Olivia owed to.

Why didn’t Olivia tell her? If she had said that, she wouldn’t have to say those words.

How infuriating! Brayden, Olivia and Belle walked out of the living compound, stopped a taxi and left.

No one said a word all the way to the hotel.

Belle went back to her room, and Brayden and Olivia went back to their's room.

As soon as the door closed, Brayden hugged Olivia tightly into his arms.

She had not spoken since she left the house, and she remained silent until now.

He knew she was upset.

His heart ached.

He really didn't expect her mother to be like this.

He could not imagine what kind of life she had been living for so many years.

Olivia felt the strength of his arms and curved her lips.

"I'm fine."

She knew he thought she was upset and he wanted to comfort her.

But she wasn't.

Really.

She just felt a Visit to read the newest content, everyone! said those words, and she treated you like an animal outside, She didn't respect you at all, Olivia, I..."

Olivia looked at the Visit to read the newest content, everyone! "Brayden, I'm not my mother's biological daughter" Brayden paused and his eyes widened slightly.

Not her biological daughter? What did that mean? Olivia looked out the window, narrowed her eyes and said, "Two years ago, when I came home after my miscarriage, I overheard my parents talking. I was not their biological daughter. I was the daughter of my father's sister."

Her voice was light and her expression was calm, as if she was talking about someone else.

Brayden's heart tightened and then ached.

Two years ago, she Visit to read the newest content, everyone! her parents' biological.

At that time, she...

Brayden closed his eyes and dared not think any further.

Because, when he thought about it, his heart hurt like it was torn.

"Olivia..."

He wanted to say something to comfort her, but he found himself unable to say anything.

He could tighten his arms, hold her tight, very tight.

Olivia knew what he was thinking.

She raised her lips and patted him on the back.

"It's okay. Although I'm not my parents' biological daughter, it's not easy for them to raise me."

"I'm very satisfied.' They raised her and gave her a family.

That was enough.

Brayden let go of her and looked into her eyes, seeing that she was smiling as usual.

But, at this moment, he would rather she was not smiling.

Brayden booked tickets for the next morning.

Originally, he didn't want to stay in this city any longer.

It seemed that if he stayed here, the air would suffocate him.

But it was tired to return right now.

He didn't want Olivia to be so tired.

After booking the plane tickets, he went to Belle to tell her to go back tomorrow, and at the same time asked her to choose the date as soon as possible, the sooner the better.

He could not wait to marry Olivia and take her abroad.

And to make her happy.

Belle understood Brayden's feeling.

His heart ached for Olivia.

And her heart ached, too.

Anyone who saw that scene today would be upset.

“Brayden, mom has chosen a day before. The ninth day of next lunar month is the best”

“The ninth day of next month...” It meant that they still had to wait.

“Yes, about a month later’ Brayden frowned.

“Haven’t we had a good day lately?”

“No, that’s the best day.”

She had chosen the day a long time ago.

It was a really good day.

“Brayden, mom knows you’re in a hurry, but this marriage is not a joke. It is important.’

Brayden frowned for a moment and said, “Okay, I’ll wait just for a month.”

“That day, we will get the marriage certificates.”
