/ Fit For Your Love

The nurse came to give Olivia a routine checkup, and Brayden was watching aside.

After the examination, Brayden asked, "How is it?"

"Nothing serious. She's recovering."

"That's good."

As the nurse left, Olivia said, "If the progress remains, I should be discharged soon."

Brayden nodded.

"As long as you're obedient."

Olivia smiled.

"I've been very obedient for the past two days."

Soon she thought of a question and asked, "Has the lawyer been found?"

She hadn't asked since she came back from the police station yesterday. She didn't know what was going on. She had to know.

Brayden's eyes twitched.

"He's found. You don't have to worry about it. I'll take care of it." Olivia nodded.

"Tell me if there are any updates."

She was still worried.

"Okay. As soon as the two of them finished speaking, the door of the ward was knocked on. Olivia looked over and frowned. Not many people knew about her hospitalization.

Who was it? Brayden said, "I'll open the door."

"Yes."

Olivia's eyes were on his back.

Soon, the door opened and a familiar voice came.

"Brayden."

It was Belle's voice.

Why was she here? "Mom."

"Where's Olivia?"

"Inside."

Brayden turned sideways and Belle came in.

When she saw Belle, she got out of bed.

"Auntie."

Belle saw that Olivia was fine without huge injuries.

Except for her pale face, everything else was normal.

Belle breathed a sigh of relief.

Brayden said you Visit to read the newest content, everyone! you. How are you? Are you feeling better?"

"Much better. I should be discharged soon." Hearing what Olivia said, Belle was more relieved.

"That's good. Nice to Visit to read the newest content, everyone! behind Belle.

He said to Olivia, "Lie down on the bed."

Belle hurriedly said, "Yeah, quickly lie on the bed. Why are you standing there? Lie down!"

Olivia was pushed to the bed by two people.

Belle looked at her carefully and asked Brayden, "Where is Olivia's injury? Why didn't you call me in advance?"

It looked like she had been in the hospital for a few days.

Brayden didn't call her until yesterday.

"Her hand was injured."

"Hand? Which hand? Let me see!"

Belle immediately went to check Olivia's hand.

Olivia said, "Auntie, I'm fine. I'm much better now."

"Let me see!"

Since Belle insisted, Olivia had no choice.

Fortunately, Brayden said, "The bone on her left shoulder is a little cracked. It's not convenient to see. She will be in pain."

"Well, then I won't watch it, Olivia. Have a good rest." She tucked Olivia in tightly and her movement was very careful.

Olivia felt warm and asked, "Auntie, when did you arrive?"

"Not long. I was worried about you, so I came over right away."

"I'm glad you're okay." Otherwise, she didn't know what would happen.

Olivia looked at Brayden.

"You can take auntie back to rest before coming back."

Belle said, "It's okay. I'm here to take care of you. Brayden can go and do his work"

After that, he said to Brayden, "If you have anything to do, you can go. I'm here with Olivia"

Her son asked her to come here, so that she could take care of Olivia.

Otherwise, he could have someone else bring over a household register.

"Well, call me if you need anything."

"Go ahead."

Brayden looked at Olivia.

"I'm going out to do something.

I'll be back soon"

"It's okay. Just go."

When Brayden went out, Belle remembered something and said to Olivia, "Olivia, I'll go talk to Brayden and come back soon."

“Okay.”

Belle went out very quickly.

Olivia looked at the closed door of the ward and thought that Belle should be here not only to take care of her, but also to do other things.

Belle ran out and shouted, “Brayden.”

Brayden stopped and turned to look at her.

“Mom, what’s the matter?”

Belle looked at the closed door of the ward and pulled Brayden away a little before speaking, “I heard that Everett was also in the hospital last night. He was in the car accident with Olivia, right?”

“Yes.”

The news of Everett’s hospitalization was sealed off.

Not many people knew.

If Brayden didn’t tell her, she wouldn’t know.

“Tell me exactly what happened.”

Brayden looked up at the ward in front of him and his eyes deepened.

“Olivia had an accident. Everett followed Olivia and saved her. Then he had a car accident.” Brayden clarified the whole thing with a sentence.

However, Belle knew that it was not that simple.

She didn’t probe into the accident but said, “Is Everett also in this hospital?”

“No.”

“Which hospital is he in?”

“City Hospital-”

Belle nodded.

"I see.Go for your work."

"Okay."

Brayden left.

Belle stood there for a while and went back to the ward.

After leaving the hospital, Brayden went to the airport and picked up aman.

Lawyer Song.

He was introduced by Melody.

Soon, the two of them got into the car.

Lawyer Song said, "Miss Johnson has already explained the situation to me.Mr.James can take me directly to the Visit to read the newest content, everyone! he was not afraid that she would not be able to find a lawyer or that this matter would not be solved.

Two Visit to read the newest content, everyone! of the police station.

Lawyer Song said to Brayden, "I understand the case.Don't worry, Mr.James.I will handle it as you required."

"Okay, thank you."

"You're welcome."

The two of them left.

Assoonas the two people left, Everett received a call from Mr.Cruz.

"Mr.Weston, Miss Johnson asked Spencer of Spencer & Perez Law Firm to handle this case."

Everett looked at Melody.

She was standing on the balcony.

She was tall, with one hand on her chest and a phone in her hand.

There seemed to be something pleasant, and she smiled.

"Contact Spencer & Perez, double the price, and deal with this case according to my request."

“Okay.”

After hanging up, Everett put his phone aside and looked at Melody.

Melody heard what she wanted to hear and said, “I see.”

She then hung up the phone.

After the proposal, she asked Belle to come over, and the next step was to see them get the license.Great.

“Brayden, you finally know what to do.”

She turned around and walked in.

But she suddenly stopped.

Everett looked at her for a long time.

His eyes were like a calm lake.

But Melody seemed to be gripped by something, unable to move.

She clenched her phone, smiled and walked in.

“Why keep looking at me?”

She sat on the bed and looked into his dark eyes.

Everett looked at the tension in her eyes and said, “Don’t you want me to see you?”

Melody smiled even more and her eyes deepened.

“How’s that possible? It’s just that you haven’t looked at me so seriously in along time.I’m flattered”

“Really?”

“Of course, you’ve been looking at other things lately.I’m jealous”

The two looked at each other.The atmosphere was delicate.

Suddenly, Everett’s phone rang.

Melody got up.

"Your phone is ringing."

Everett turned around and went out.

Everett took the phone, looked at her back and said, "Melody, it's time for you to do your own thing.' Melody froze.

After Brayden and the lawyer separated, he made a phone call.

"You go to Olivia's house in C City and ask Elizabeth to give you the account book."

"When should I go?"

"Now.'

"Okay, I'll go now.'

"If she doesn't give it to you, just say I ask for it.If she has any problems, ask her to call me."

"No problem."

As long as he got the household register, he would go with Olivia to get the marriage certificate.

He didn't care about picking the right date anymore.

All he wanted now was to get his license with her as earlier as possible.

To be really together.

Belle took care of Olivia in the hospital and asked her why she was here.

Olivia explained but left out what happened with Everett during this time.

Belle didn't ask either, and they all wanted to avoid talking about Everett.

When Brayden came back, Olivia said, "Auntie, you should go back and rest.Come back tonight.'

Belle didn't refuse and said, "I'll come tonight."

"Okay."

Belle left, but instead of going back to the hotel, she went to the city hospital.

Since she knew that Everett was also in the hospital, and she was here already, it was impossible for her to leave without stopping by first.

The car soon stopped at the city hospital.

Belle looked at the hospital and frowned.

She didn't know which ward Everett was.

Belle called Brayden.

Not long after, the phone was connected and Brayden's voice came, "Mom, what's the matter?"

"Brayden, I've come to see your uncle. Do you know which ward he's in?"

Brayden's voice paused for two seconds.

"I don't know."

"Don't know?"

"Well, I can call Visit to read the newest content, everyone! called Everett.

The phone went through.

"Sis."

"Everett, I'm in Green Lake. Right now I'm outside the city hospital. Which ward are you in? I'm here to Visit to read the newest content, everyone! in Belle's heart, Everett was still her little brother.

It was silent in the phone. Belle was confused.

"Everett?"

"Room 8761, 23Rd floor, third building, inpatient department."

"Okay, I'll come up now."

Belle hung up and walked into the inpatient department.

Everett squinted at the darkened screen. Belle quickly came to the ward and knocked on the door.

"Everett."

"Come in" Belle opened the door and went in.

There was no one else in the ward except Everett.

She was surprised.

"You're alone here by yourself?"

"Melody is out.' Belle nodded.

That was more like it.

She thought he was alone.

"Brayden said Olivia had a car accident and asked me to take care of her.

I just found out that you were in a car accident too.

How are you? Where did you hurt yourself? Are you feeling better?"

Belle looked at him and frowned when she saw his hanging hand.

He hurt his hand too.

Everett's eyes moved slightly.

"Nothing serious."

"Really?"

Everett was always reserved.

He didn't say anything about pain, nor did he smile when he was happy.

There were times when she didn't know whether he was happy or not.

Was he in pain or not?

"Yes."

Belle saw that he looked okay.

It was much better than Olivia.

She believed it.

There shouldn't be a big problem.

Just, "Everett, I heard a report a while ago. I wanted to ask you about it."

Everett looked at her.

The dark eyes seemed to pierce through and into Belle's heart.

"Mmm."

Belle's eyes twitched due to his look, but still she asked, "The report says you and Melody are getting married this year, right?"

It suddenly fell silent in the ward.

Belle became nervous.

Fit For Your Love Chapter 169

/ Fit For Your Love

Just when she thought Everett wouldn't answer, Everett answered. Belle was stunned when she heard him agreed.

She thought that he wouldn't answer, and even if he did, he wouldn't agree it.

She didn't expect this answer.

"What's the problem?"

After hearing the deep voice, Belle came back to herself.

"No, I was just asking. We all thought you weren't going to marry Melody.' She didn't expect it so quickly.

It was like a fake.

Belle quickly smiled and said, "You and Melody got married this year, and Brayden would marry Olivia next year. That's great"

As Everett's sister, she wanted her brother to be happy.

As Brayden's mother, she also wanted her son to be happy.

She wanted all of them to be happy.

For her, if Everett married Melody and Brayden married Olivia, this result would be the best.

However, she heard, "Brayden and Olivia are not matchable."

The smile on Belle's face froze.

Everett looked at her and said slowly, "I won't let them be together."

Belle's facial expression changed.

Everyone knew that Everett was interfering Brayden and Olivia's affair, but it was the first time Everett was so straightforward in front of her.

"Everett, I think they are a perfect match."

"That's your thought." Belle frowned.

She could tell his attitude from his tone.

He was serious.

"Everett, I know you think it's inappropriate for Olivia to marry Brayden because Visit to read the newest content, everyone! from you. She has a long life. Even if she doesn't marry Brayden, she will marry another man. Would you forbid her getting married again?"

Everett's Visit to read the newest content, everyone! them surged.

"She's not fit to get married again."

"Everett, you..."

Belle's eyes widened, unable to believe what she had heard.

He should want Olivia to be alone forever.

Was he crazy? The sound of high heels came.

Belle guessed who it was and got up.

"Everett, that's not the right idea. I want you to reconsider it calmly and decide whether you should control Olivia's life or not."

After that, Belle left.

She only came here to see him, and she wanted to chat with him. She didn't expect this to happen.

"Sis?"

Melody stopped and looked at Belle coming out of the ward.

Belle saw Melody, calmed down, and walked over.

"Melody."

Melody looked at her face, then at the closed door and said, "Why are you here?"

"I'm here to take care of Olivia. When I know that Everett was experienced a car accident, I'm here to see him."

Melody's eyes twitched and she smiled, "You didn't even tell me in advance. I'm not here. Let's chat for a while, ok?"

"No, I have to deal with something of Brayden. I'm worried about Olivia being alone in the hospital. Let's talk next time." Melody saw that Belle was in a bad mood, but she didn't expose her.

She then said, "It's really improper for Olivia to be alone."

"Then I'll go first."

"Ok." Belle left.

Melody looked at her back and walked into the ward.

"I think sister was in a bad mood when she left. What did you say to annoy her?"

Melody came over, put down her bag, sat on the bed, and looked at Everett.

Everett was looking at the document in his laptop.

When he heard her, he raised his eyes and looked at her.

"General talks." Melody smiled.

"Would it make the sister so angry?"

"Or else?"

Melody looked at his dark eyes and thin lips, she smiled hard.

"Everett, you are getting a bad man."

"Oh?"

Melody leaned closer and wrapped her arms around his neck. Her red lips pressed against his thin lips and she looked into his eyes.

"But I like you more since you become like this."

Belle called Wade after getting in the car.

She was worried, and uneasy after thinking about it for many times. So, she had to call her grandfather.

“Hi, Belle.”

“Grandpa, I’m in Green Lake now. I just met Everett and talked to him. He told me directly that he wouldn’t let Olivia and Brayden be together. Besides, he wanted to interfere with Olivia’s marriage.”

“I don’t know what to do.”

She was afraid that Everett would go even further if he continued like this.

“You went to Everett?”

“No, Brayden called me last night and asked me to...”

Belle told Wade what Brayden had told her last night and what she knew here.

After that, there was no sound in the phone.

But Belle knew that Wade was listening.

She didn’t rush her grandfather into answering.

There was no other way.

Only her grandfather could control Everett.

After a while, Wade’s voice sounded, “I see.”

Then he hung up the phone.

Belle frowned at the beep sound.

“Grandpa knows, and then what?”

Wade hung up the phone and looked into the distance and frowned.

Olivia asked Brayden to bring her phone and her laptop from the hotel.

She had read Secrets of Green Embroidery and had an Visit to read the newest content, everyone! down.

Brayden went to the hotel and brought what she wanted.

As soon as she got her laptop, Olivia began to get busy with Visit to read the newest content, everyone! agree to her, but she put up with it for a few days, and it would be unreasonable if he didn't agree.

When Belle came back, Olivia was still busy.

"What's Olivia doing?"

Belle couldn't help asking Brayden.

As soon as she came in, she saw Olivia drawing on a piece of white paper with a pen.

"She's doing design. Let's not disturb her:"

Brayden said in a low voice.

Belle looked at the pencil in Olivia's hand and understood.

She put down her bag and took Brayden out.

"Tell me, what are your plans now?"

The conversation with Everett weighed heavily on her heart.

Brayden looked at Belle and asked, "Did he tell you anything?"

He could tell that the two of them had talked the look on his mother's face, but he didn't know exactly what they had said.

Belle sighed.

"Yes, we had talked."

"What did you say?"

Belle looked at Brayden with mixed feelings.

"He said he wouldn't let Olivia be with you, and he wouldn't let Olivia get married to any man.' Brayden smiled, but this smile was different from those in the past.

It was cold.

"Mom, what kind of ex-husband would ban his ex-wife from marrying another person after divorce?"

"Do you know why he said that?"

Belle didn't say anything, but she already had an answer in her heart.

"Because he likes Olivia, and he can't accept Olivia marrying another man" Belle frowned.

"But I asked him today if he would marry Melody this year, and he said yes."

Brayden smiled and said, "He said yes, then I hope so."

"I'm afraid he won't marry Melody."
