/ Fit For Your Love

Olivia received a call from Elizabeth at night.

Seeing Elizabeth's phone call, Olivia paused for a while and answered it.

Belle saw her answer the phone and said, "I'm going downstairs to buy some fresh fruit."

"Okay, auntie." Belle left the ward.

Olivia put the phone in her ear, "Mom."

"Olivia, I want to ask you something. Did Mr. James say that you would go to get your marriage certificate on the ninth of next month?"

"Well, what's wrong?"

"There was a man outside the door who said that he was here to get the household register, and he said it was Mr. James who asked him to do it. He said that you should get the certificate in advance. I remember you were talking about the ninth of next month, why suddenly changed? This man must be a liar!"

"I'll send that person away now. He's actually tricking me..." Elizabeth was about to hang up when Olivia called her, "Mom, wait."

"What's wrong?"

"That man didn't lie to you. He's telling the truth. I'm going to get the certificate in advance with Brayden."

After proposing to her last night, Brayden said that he would go to get the certificate when the household register was sent over.

He said he would care about the date any longer.

She said her household register was at her mom's place.

He said he would take care of it.

She didn't ask more then.

This morning, Belle came, and she didn't think more about the household register.

However, now her mother said that someone went to get it, so she thought it would be someone Visit to read the newest content, everyone! register.

"Ah? Is it really Mr. James's man? But... Well, didn't you say the ninth of next month? Why is it so early?"

"Well, we want Visit to read the newest content, everyone! mind." Elizabeth thought of something and exclaimed, "Olivia, are you pregnant?"

Then they were in a hurry to get married! Olivia clenched her phone.

"No, mom. Give that person my household register."

"Oh, okay, I'll give it to him. You guys get the certificate quickly, don't delay!"

She would be relieved if her daughter got it earlier.

Elizabeth immediately took out the household register and handed it to the person standing outside the door.

"I'm sorry, I forgot the place I saved it for a long period untouched. I looked for it for a while, sorry to make you wait."

"It's okay." The man took the household register and said, "If you have any questions, you can call Mr. James. I'll go first."

"Okay!"

She didn't dare to call Brayden. She could only confirm it with Olivia.

It felt great! Elizabeth thought she could finally be relieved.

Olivia listened to the busy tone on her phone and hung up.

Brayden probably didn't want to let Everett know it, so he sent someone to her house to get the household register.

But, could they get the certificate successfully in this way? Brayden went back to the hotel and discussed the work schedule with his assistant.

He sent someone to the Hadley to get the household register.

If nothing unexpected happened, it would be delivered to him early tomorrow morning.

But tomorrow was Saturday, and the civil affairs bureau would work on Monday, so they had to wait two days.

In the next two days, he would start working one after another, and then go to the civil affairs bureau with Olivia on Monday to get the certificate.

After getting the certificate, he would go to work and asked his mother to take care of Olivia here.

As long as he got the certificate, he would be relieved.

The phone rang.

Brayden took the phone, looked at the screen, and went to the balcony to answer it.

"I got it.I'll send it to you tomorrow morning."

"Okay." After hanging up the phone, Brayden gripped his hand tightly.

Two days, he just needed to wait another two days.

Brayden went to the hospital after his work.

"Mom, I'll stay here tonight.You go back to the hotel."

Belle knew Brayden wanted to stay with Olivia and nodded.

"Okay.I'll come back tomorrow morning."

"Olivia, have a good rest"

"So do you."

After Belle left, Brayden sat by the bed and gently touched her face.

"How are you? Are you feeling better?"

"Much better."

Olivia looked at Brayden and said, "My mom called me."

Brayden paused and looked at her, waiting for her to continue.

"Mom said you sent someone to get my ID card."

"Yeah, it should be here tomorrow morning."

"Sorry I didn't tell you in advance.Are you angry?"

Brayden looked into her eyes.Olivia shook her head.

"No.You told me you would see to it" Brayden smiled.

"You trust me so much?"

"Yes."

She trusted him.

Brayden cuddled her and rested his chin on her head.

"Olivia, we're going to get married on Monday.Everett won't know about it."

The smell of him eased her and she closed her eyes, saying, "Okay."

The next day, the doctor asked Olivia to get an x-ray to see how her bones were healing.

Belle and Brayden followed her, waiting for the result.

Half an Visit to read the newest content, everyone! ward.

Brayden found the doctor and asked, "How's the result?"

"Good.She can be discharged tomorrow."

"Great.Thank you."

"You're welcome."

Brayden returned to the ward.

Olivia saw him and Visit to read the newest content, everyone! a little nervous.

She was afraid that the doctor would ask her to continue staying in the hospital.

Brayden wanted to have a joke with her, but her anxious face made him give up.

"The doctor said that you're recovering well and can be discharged tomorrow."

"Really?"

Olivia couldn't believe it.

She thought it would take days at best.

She didn't expect to be discharged so soon.

"Really, I won't lie to you." Olivia smiled.

She could finally leave the hospital.

The next morning, Olivia had a full body examination and was discharged in the afternoon.

She was beaming with pleasure.

Brayden was happy to see her being happy.

Belle was glad to see them so happy, but she was also worried.

She wanted them to be happy forever, but she was worried about what Everett might do.

They walked out of the hospital and ran into a woman.

She was dressed in plain clothes, holding a thermos in her hand.

It was Ms Parker.

Olivia greeted, "Ms Parker."

The woman followed her voice and saw her. She asked in surprise.

"Miss Hadley, why are you here?"

She thought of something and quickly added, "You came to see the old master too?"

Olivia frowned.

"Is master sick?"

Seeing her completely unaware look, Ms Parker said, "You don't know?"

"No. What's wrong with master?"

"Heart attack. He nearly died."

Heart attack? Olivia was worried.

"Where's he? I want to see him."

"It's in the inpatient department. Let's go. I'm also delivering food to him."

Then she raised the thermos in her hand.

Olivia said to Brayden and Belle, "Brayden, auntie, you go back. I'm going to see the master."

He'd been healthy but suddenly had a heart attack. She had to see him.

Brayden said, "Mom, I'll go with Olivia."

Belle nodded.

"Okay."

After Belle left the hospital.

Olivia introduced Brayden to Ms Parker, "This is my fiancé."

Ms Parker nodded.

"Your fiancé is so handsome. You're a good match." Brayden thanked her.

Olivia asked, "Why did the master suddenly have a heart attack? Wasn't he all fine before?"

"He got a call and fell down after it. Fortunately, I was there, otherwise he wouldn't have made it." Olivia clenched her hand.

Call, what call?

Fit For Your Love Chapter 173

Several people came to the ward while talking. The nurse was preparing injections for Donald when Ms Parker walked over.

"Look who's here to see you-"

Donald looked over and frowned when he saw Olivia.

There was no joy or warmth on his face.

This expression made Olivia's heart tighten slightly.

She walked over and stopped in front of the bed.

"Sir, are you okay?"

Donald withdrew his gaze and said, "I'm okay."

Ms Parker could tell that Donald was not looking good.

She was confused.

What was wrong? Didn't he like Olivia very much? She looked at Olivia, who didn't seem right either.

Ms Parker said, "You can have a nice talk. I'll get some hot water."

Donald, "Yeah."

Brayden looked at Olivia.

"I'm going to buy something. I came in a hurry, so I didn't buy anything."

Olivia, "Okay."

Brayden could also tell that Donald was abnormal.

So, he decided to give them a chance to talk. Ms Parker and Brayden left the ward.

Olivia sat down and looked at Donald's pale face.

"Sir, I heard from Ms Parker that you fainted after receiving a phone call. Is something wrong?"

Olivia felt that the call was about Bill.

Even if it was not about Bill, Visit to read the newest content, everyone! would not be like this today.

Donald looked at her, and saw the doubt in her eyes, as if she really did not Visit to read the newest content, everyone! a fainter voice, "Miss Hadley, you don't have to come to see me. I'm lying here because I deserve it."

He didn't put the blame on others.

He said it as if he had done something wrong and shouldn't have trusted her.

Olivia frowned.

"Can you tell me what happened?"

She was certain that she had something to do with it.

But she didn't know what it was.

She hoped that the Old Master would tell her.

Donald stopped talking and closed his eyes.

Obviously, he didn't want to say it.

Olivia looked at Donald and said after a while, "Please have a good rest."

She then got up and went out.

Ms Parker was making a phone call outside when she saw Olivia come out.

Therefore, Ms Parker said to the person on the phone, "I'll call you later."

After hanging up the phone, Ms Parker walked over.

"Miss Hadley, what happened to him?"

As she spoke, she looked at the closed door of the ward.

He was fine before.

Why was his face so pale today? Olivia looked at Ms Parker, still frowning.

"Ms Parker, do you know whose phone call he answered before he fainted?"

"I don't know. I was helping him pack up at that time. I don't know who called him."

Olivia lowered her eyes and thought.

Since he didn't want to talk and Ms Parker didn't know, Olivia could only let Ms Parker ask him.

"Ms Parker, you..."

"Oh, I remember!"

Ms Parker suddenly interrupted her.

"I don't know who called him, but I heard what he said the other day, something about life imprisonment." Olivia clenched her hand.

“Life imprisonment?”

“Yes, I don’t know what it means. I heard him say those two words and something about abatement from penalty. And...”

Olivia closed her eyes.

She already knew what it was.

“Ms Parker, I see. Please take good care of him in the hospital. I’m busy, so I’m leaving now.”

“Oh. Okay.” Olivia left quickly.

Ms Parker looked at her hurried figure, feeling confused.

Was it urgent? Her face even darkened.

Olivia quickly called Brayden.

Brayden was paying for something when he heard his phone ring.

He answered, “Olivia.”

Fit For Your Love Chapter 174

“Brayden, have you found the lawyer for Bill’s case?”

“Yeah. What’s wrong?”

“Give me that lawyer’s number. I have a question for him.” Hearing her unusual tone, Brayden clenched his phone and asked, “What’s wrong? What happened?”

“Don’t ask me anything. Give me the lawyer’s number. I’ll talk to you later.”

“Okay.” She was worried.

Although Brayden wanted to know what happened, he still asked nothing and sent her the lawyer’s phone number. Olivia received the number and called it immediately.

“Hello, who is it?”

“I’m Olivia, the victim of the Bill’s case.”

“Miss Hadley? What’s the matter with you?”

"You're in charge of Bill's case now, right?"

"Yes, I'm in charge."

"So what's going on?"

"The documents are ready. The next step will be the trial"

Olivia pinched her fingernails into her palms.

"Why is the court in session? My intention is to give the lenient disposal, I think they will accept it and not go to court."

But the lawyer actually said to wait for the trial to begin.

Did that mean that they refused to accept the lenient disposal? There was no sound on the phone.

Olivia clenched her phone and suppressed the Visit to read the newest content, everyone! me.'

"Miss Hadley, I'm sorry. Mr. Weston offered me twice the price to take this case. I'm doing what Mr. Weston wants now.' Olivia felt a rush Visit to read the newest content, everyone! and she felt dizzy.

She retreated to the wall, her eyes red, her whole body tensed up, and she even trembled.

"That's it, thank you."

She quickly hung up and called Everett.

She was furious and she wanted to curse him.

But was it useful for her to do this? It was useless.

No use at all.

She wanted to find the source of everything.

Everett.

She could only make him satisfied then other things could be settled.

Olivia calmed herself down and kept telling herself not to be impulsive.

Then, as she listened to the beep, her nails dug into her flesh inch by inch.

The call went through.

Olivia immediately asked, "What do you want to do?"

Her voice was incomparably calm.

Calmer than she thought.

But this calmness was like a taut string that could break at any moment.

Everett remained silent.

Olivia's eyes turned red.

"Speak."

"Everett, I've already told you that after this period of time, I'll go back to Paris. I won't marry Brayden, and I won't marry other men. What else do you want me to do?"

"Say it, what do you want me to do to let me go?"

Olivia almost yelled out the last sentence.

She really couldn't help it.

He controlled her and forbade her from doing many things.

She was like a bird in a cage that he caught and he could tease her as much as he wanted.

But she was not a bird, she was a human! A Human being!

"Do you think I'll believe you?"

Finally, his voice came. Olivia looked up and smiled.

"If you don't believe me, what do you want me to do then you could believe me?"

"Separate from Brayden, I'll tell the lawyer to handle Bill's case as you wish."

The smile on Olivia's lips disappeared. She looked ahead, suddenly calming down.

"Then you won't interfere in my life, right?"

Fit For Your Love Chapter 175

/ Fit For Your Love

There was no sound in the phone.

It seemed that in an instant, the whole world was quiet, leaving only her and him.

Olivia listened to the silence, feeling unusually calm.

“Everett, tell me, as long as Brayden and I are separated, you will not interfere in my life.”

“You will disappear completely from my world.’ A long time later, Everett’s voice came from the other end of the phone.

He just said yes.

Olivia clenched her phone and her eyes was filled with determination that she had never had before.

“Okay, Everett, remember what you promised me today.’

“Don’t go back on your word”

“Otherwise, I don’t know what I will do.”

Brayden stored around the corner with a fruit basket in his hand, watching the man who walked into the elevator lean against the wall.

She really didn’t want to marry him.

But he didn’t blame her.

He didn’t protect her well.

Everett put his phone on the small table.

He looked at the darkened screen and his eyeballs moved slowly.

Olivia walked out of the hospital and the sun was shining brightly on her head.

She stopped, closed her eyes and stood for a while before she called Brayden.

The phone was connected.

Brayden’s voice came through.

“Olivia, where are you?”

“I’m outside the hospital. Where are you?”

"I just sent something to my grandfather"

Olivia turned to look at the building of the inpatient department.

"When did you go up?"

"Minutes ago.What about you? Why are you outside?"

"I just went downstairs, and Visit to read the newest content, everyone! down now.Wait for me outside."

"Okay."

Not long after, Brayden came down.

Olivia looked at him.

Under the sun, he was wearing a white shirt and Visit to read the newest content, everyone! as he walked towards her.

"Brayden, I thought about marrying you, but we are destined to be separated .I'm sorry"

"What's wrong? Why are you looking at me?"

Brayden looked at her, his hand on her face.Olivia shook her head.

"Let's go back to the hotel."

"Okay."

As If he didn't see anything unusual in her eyes, Brayden held her hand and walked into the car.

Belle stayed at the same hotel as them, but she stayed on the fifth floor, and he and Olivia stayed on the seventh floor.

However, Belle did not call the two of them or wail outside their dochr.

It gave them enough time and space to do their own thing.

When the two of them returned to the hotel, Brayden put down the things and said, "I have your household register now.Tomorrow morning, we will go and get the marriage certificate"

As he spoke, he took out the household register and showed it to her with a smile on his face.

Olivia looked at his smile, her Angers curled up and her lips curved.

“Okay.”

Brayden looked at her smile and clenched his hand.

In the evening, the three of them had dinner, and Brayden told his mother what they would do next.

“Mom, you can go back tomorrow. Don’t worry about it here.”

Belle was stunned and quickly responded.

“Go back? Who will take care of Olivia if I go back?”

“Didn’t he ask me to take care of Olivia while he is working until Olivia was fully recovered?”

Belle thought. Olivia also looked at Brayden.

Brayden smiled and said, “I didn’t expect Olivia would be discharged so soon. I was relieved. Besides, aren’t you going to arrange the engagement party on the ninth day of this month?”

It was not long before the engagement party. Belle nodded, but asked again.

“You really don’t need me here?”

She felt that Everett wouldn’t do anything while she was here.

If she wasn’t here, Everett would do whatever he wanted.

This was what she was most worried about.

“No, Olivia and I will get the marriage certificate the day after tomorrow, and I won’t worry about anything after that.”

Belle nodded at his words.

“He is right”

“As long as the two of them get the certificate, no one can stop them from being together.’ After dinner, Belle returned to the hotel.

Brayden looked at Olivia.

“Go out for a walk?”

“OK! This night might be the last night for them.” She would agree to anything he wanted.
