Jason called Preston.

He knew Preston valued Olivia very much.

“Jason, what’s the matter?”

“Mr.Smith, Olivia is back.She wants to report her latest developments on the job”

“So soon?”

Preston was surprised, which was rare.

He thought it would take at least a month for Olivia to come back.

“Yes, she just called me and said she would be at AK in about 20 minutes.”

“Okay, I’m outside right now, so I can’t come back for the time being.When she reports to you about her work, you open a video for me.I want to see the results of her work during this period”

“Okay.”

Preston hung up the phone, looked at the time, and called his secretary.

“Postpone the rest of the work.I have to go back to headquarters tomorrow.’

“Okay, Mr.Smith.”

Preston looked at the dark screen and his eyes sparkled.

“Olivia, I look forward to the results of your work.”

After arriving at AK Company, Olivia sorted out the information and went to Jason’s office.

When the assistant came in after making two cups of coffee, Jason unlocked his phone and said to Olivia, “I told Mr.Smith that you were back Visit to read the newest content, everyone! hear it.”

“Okay.’ Jason quickly connected with Preston.

He moved the camera to the direction of Olivia so that Preston could see her.

Olivia looked Visit to read the newest content, everyone! started”

“Okay”

Olivia opened the document in her hand and said, “I went to Q City and found the green embroidery that has been passed down for many years. The green embroidery is elegant in color, vivid in design, meticulous in workmanship and has a strong local flavor. You must have heard of it.”

“Of course. The green embroidery ranks the top of the four embroideries and is very representative.” Preston said.

“Yes, I wanted to know about the green embroidery at first, then the other three embroidery. But, first, time is limited, and second, four embroideries in one design would be too much, so I chose the most representative green embroidery.” Preston looked at her and his eyes shined.

“Are you going to focus on the green embroidery?”

“Yes, the green embroidery has a thousand years of history. It has gone through vicissitudes of life. Until now, what it has left for us is a treasure. I want to use this treasure and show the whole world how beautiful it is.”

What was the most beautiful? Time.

The river of time held something you could never imagine.

These things shocked you.

Preston curled his lips and the smile at the corner of his mouth widened.

“Olivia, you are really as good as I have expected.” he thought to himself.

“Well, do what you want. Be bold and don’t worry.”

“Thank you, Mr. Smith. There’s just one more thing I want to ask you.”

“What?”

“Have you decided on the name of the new brand?”

“Not yet. You got any idea?”

“I have a name in my heart.”

“OK, go ahead.”

“Flower reverie, or FR for short.”

Preston said the two words several times.

“Flower everie, the fantasy of flowers...”

“Yes, clothing is like a flower in the river of time. It can be different flowers. It may be beautiful, enchanting, or quiet, and you can’t help falling in love with it”
Preston looked at Olivia.

Her eyes were bright.

She looked like the flower was in her eyes, so beautiful and attractive.

Suddenly, something hit his heart and it trembled.

Olivia left Jason’s office, went back to the Design department, and began searching for information.

She knew the designs at home well.

She also had a shallow understanding of foreign design, but not very much.

She needed to find a large number of foreign design materials, and then combine the two styles to do her design.

In Jason’s office.

The video wasn’t cut off.

Jason looked at the person in the video and said, “Mr. Smith, Olivia has a good idea.”

He had to admit that Olivia was a very thoughtful and special designer.

Not only did she have ideas, but she also had dreams.

He finally understood why his sister liked her so much.

There was light in her eyes, and people couldn’t help but be infected by her.

Preston’s smiled slightly.

“Do you have a sense of crisis?”

Jason was also an outstanding designer, and he contributed a lot to AK Company.

Jason thought for a moment and said, “I didn’t, but when you said it to me, I have the feeling now.”

Preston's eyes sparkled.

"That means I didn't pick the wrong person."

"Jason, give her all the European fashion information you have."

Jason understood what Preston meant.

The brand they want to make was a combination of Chinese and western, both domestic and foreign.

However, Olivia's design had to be polished on that aspect.

She was in urgent need of this information.

"Okay, I'll organize it right away." When the video was cut off, Preston still Visit to read the newest content, everyone! in his eyes.

"Everett, you really sent me a treasure." He thought.

Olivia was taking notes with a pencil.

She had a habit of taking Visit to read the newest content, everyone! came, and Olivia looked up.

Jason stood at her desk.

She stood up.

"Director."

Jason handed her a thick stack of documents.

"These are the materials I have saved as a designer for so many years. It will be helpful."

Olivia's eyes flashed with surprise.

She took the documents and when she opened the first page, she knew what they were.

The history of European clothing and its design elements.

They were exactly what she needed.

"Thank you, director!"

She didn't expect Jason to deliver what she needed the most. She really appreciated it.

"You're welcome. If you have any questions, just ask me."

"Okay."

Jason left, and Olivia immediately sat down to read the documents.

Her eyes were full of lights.

Like a child with candy, she couldn't help but be happy and excited.

Elizabeth waited until evening.

When she was done, she took a shower and laid on the bed, ready to close her eyes and sleep.

Suddenly, she remembered something and sat up with a whoosh.

Her voice frightened George, who had just fallen asleep, and he sat up.

"What's wrong?" He looked around.

Elizabeth patted him.

"Turn on the lights!"

"What happened?"

George asked, and he turned on lights.

The dark bedroom suddenly brightened.

Elizabeth immediately took the phone to see if there were any missed calls.

George looked at her anxious face and thought something was wrong.

He was nervous as well.

"Honey, what's wrong?"

"Be quiet!"

Elizabeth didn't see any missed calls.

She was a little angry. She called Olivia at noon, but Olivia didn't answer. She thought Olivia might be busy.

And Elizabeth was busy the whole afternoon and so she forgot about it.

But she suddenly remembered that Olivia didn't call her back.

Elizabeth thought her daughter had called her but she missed it. But that was not the case at all.

Olivia didn't call back at all! Elizabeth didn't think there was anything so important that Olivia would ignore her phone and focused on that matter only.

She immediately called Olivia.
