

Fit For Your Love Chapter 201

/ Fit For Your Love

Belle subconsciously looked at Everett.

Everett picked up his teacup and drank tea, as if the topic had nothing to do with him.

Belle said, "They haven't come back yet."

Melody's eyes moved and she asked, "Not back yet?"

When she looked at Everett, the man was drinking tea and his thick eyelashes covered his eyes.

She was unable to know his mood through his eyes.

"Yes, they are quite busy. So they would arrive by afternoon." Melody smiled.

"Tomorrow is their engagement ceremony. Isn't it late to come back this afternoon?" Belle sighed.

"I can't help it either. They're too busy. Fortunately, I've prepared everything, as long as the new couple arrive." Melody nodded.

"You're right."

She picked up her teacup and took a sip.

Her eyes slightly narrowed.

She didn't think it was a good thing that they couldn't come back earlier for their engagement. Belle looked at Melody and Everett, then fixed his eyes on Melody's face.

"Have you chosen your day yet?" Melody paused, curled her lips and looked at Everett.

"You need to ask Everett." Belle looked at Everett.

He was quiet, but there was an aura about him that could not be ignored.

Just like he was the king and they were his subjects.

He was the only decision maker.

Everett put down the teacup and looked into Belle's eyes.

"I'll inform you if I make my decision."

"All right."

The condensed and frozen atmosphere was broken.

Melody and Belle continued to talk.

Not long after, Everett's phone rang.

The two of them looked at him.

Everett took out his phone, looked at the screen, and said to Belle and Melody, "I'll take the call."

Melody, "Okay."

Everett went out with his phone.

As they watched him leave, Belle said, "Everett is always so busy"

It was honored for a businessman to be as successful as him.

But Everett never slackened and kept diligent for ten years.

Melody's eyes sparkled.

"That's why I love him." He was so charming that she was obsessed with both his external appearance and inside personality and she couldn't help it.

So, even though Melody knew that Everett and Olivia had done many things that she and Everett had not done, she still loved him.

Even more.

Belle looked at Melody with complicated feelings.

The Westons and the Johnsons were in a close relationship.

Everett and Melody had known each other since they were young and were good friends.

Before Everett got married, everyone knew that Melody was Everett's beloved girl.

But when he suddenly got married three years ago and the bride wasn't Melody, they were all shocked.

Then a year later, Everett gave up his own child for Melody, which shocked them again.

During that period, no one could understand his mind.

Fortunately, Everett and Melody got engaged and everything went back to normal.

But it all broke down again two years later.

Olivia appeared.

They couldn't see through Everett again.

Who is his true love, Olivia or Melody? Or even both? Everett stood outside by the mowed lawn with one hand in his pocket and stroked the answer button.

"Mr. Weston, Miss Hadley is back.'

"When?"

"It was one o'clock in the morning yesterday"

"Back to Capital City?"

"No, Q City."

"Okay."

Everett put his cell phone in his pocket and looked up into the distance with narrowed eyes.

Melody and Everett had lunch with Belle, then went back.

Belle sent them away until the car was out of sight before returning to the living room.

She looked at the time.

It was 1: 20 pm.

Brayden said that he would arrive this afternoon, but he hadn't come back yet.

Feeling curious, Belle called Brayden.

A taxi was driving on the road, and Brayden was leaning back in his chair, his eyes closed.

Suddenly, his phone rang.

He opened his eyes, took his phone, and saw the name on the screen.

He swiped the answer button and looked out the window.

“Mom”

“Brayden, are you back?”

“I’m on the way.”

“That’s good. I thought you weren’t back yet. When will you get home?”

Brayden looked at the watch and said, “About ten minutes.”

“Soon, you haven’t had lunch, have you? I will make some for you now”

“Thank you, mom.”

After hanging up, Belle went to the kitchen immediately.

Brayden put his phone aside and lowered the window.

As soon as the window was lowered, a Bentley drove past him from the opposite direction.

He looked into the rearview mirror.

The black Bentley quickly disappeared from his sight, but he could still tell that it was Everett’s car.

Brayden looked ahead.

This road led to the Jameses.

If he was right, Everett had gone to Belle’s house.

Everett looked into the mirror at the taxi getting farther and farther away.

He turned away his eyes and looked ahead, his black eyes emotionless.

Brayden got home quickly.

Belle heard the sound and ran out immediately.

Seeing the driver take down the luggage, she hurried over.

"I'll take it"

She took the suitcase and called to the person inside, "Nanny Zhang, come and take the suitcase in."

"Yes, madam."

Nanny Zhang came out quickly and took the suitcase away.

Belle looked at Brayden and said, "Let me take a good look at you."

This time was different.

She was worried since she hadn't seen him for a few days.

Belle found that Brayden had lost weight.

"Brayden, you look like you have lost some weight?" Belle touched his face and frowned.

Brayden took her hands off and said, "Was Everett here?"

Belle paused and said, "How do you know?"

"I saw his car on the way-" Belle thought about the time.

Yes, Brayden came back not long after Everett and Melody had left.

There was a high chance that they would bump into each other.

"Yes, he came with Melody."

"What was he doing here?"

Belle looked at his indifferent eyes and sighed.

"You never asked Everett when he came here before. Now you want to ask him why he came." Brayden looked at her.

"Because he's my rival in love."

Everything was different. Belle frowned.

“Brayden, Everett and Melody are getting married this year.I think...” Brayden interrupted her.

“Mom, don’t jump to any conclusions before things are over:”

Especially when it came to Everett.

Belle moved her lips and said, “Go upstairs and wash up first.I’ll go to the kitchen.”

The meal was not ready yet.

“Okay”

Brayden went upstairs and Belle went to the kitchen.

Half an hour later, the food was served.

Belle looked upstairs.

Brayden was still there.

She went upstairs.

She wondered if the Brayden was sleeping.

Outside Brayden’s bedroom, she tentatively knocked on the door and said in a low voice, “Brayden, the meal is ready.’

“OK, mom, come in for a while.”

So he wasn’t resting.

“Okay” Belle opened the door and went in.

Brayden handed her two red certificates.Belle was surprised.

“These are...”

“Keep my marriage certificates with Olivia for me.”

Olivia arrived in Q City at 3: 20 pm the next day.

It was over an hour and a half longer than expected.

She called Donald.

"Sorry, master, my flight has been delayed for more than an hour. I just got off the plane."

"It doesn't matter."

An appointment has been set at 5:00 pm, Q&H Restaurant."

"Okay, I'm going to the hotel now. I'll go to the Q&H Restaurant after I tidy up."

"Okay, contact me when you get there."

"Okay."

Olivia hung up the phone and walked out of the airport.

She stopped a taxi and went to the hotel.

She had already booked the hotel in advance, so she could check in directly.

She calculated the time and figured it should just be enough for her to go to hotel, tidy herself up, and then go to Q&H Restaurant.

Maybe, not enough.

Olivia said to the driver, "Sir, I have an emergency. Can you drive faster?"

"Sure."

Within half an hour, the car stopped at the hotel.

Olivia got off and checked in.

By the time she got to her room, it was already four o'clock.

In a hurry, she opened her suitcase, took her clothes out and went to the bathroom.

She quickly came out, put on some light makeup, took her bag, and went to Q&H Restaurant.

Q&H Restaurant was in Q City, a high-end restaurant.

When Olivia arrived, Donald and his friends were already inside.

Olivia rushed in and said apologetically, "Sorry, I'm late."

Donald immediately introduced, "Mr. Miller, this is my private disciple Olivia, a good and hardworking child."

Spencer looked at Olivia and reached out.

"Hello, Miss Hadley." Olivia held his hand.

"Hello, Mr. Miller."

Donald said to Olivia, "Olivia, Mr. Miller's ancestors made palace jade hairpins. Over the years, jewelry, gold and silver have all been involved in his business."

Olivia immediately said, "Then I have to try my best to learn from Mr. Miller." Spencer didn't expect her to be so direct.

He laughed.

"Mr. Johnson, your apprentice is quite a talent."

"That's right. Don't you see who is her master?"

"You old monkey, you are not modest at all."

Everyone said and laughed.

The atmosphere was good.

At this moment, at P&L Restaurant, the Capital City.

The banquet hall was full of people, all relatives and friends of the Westons, the Smith family.

At the front table sat Wade, Shepherd, Reid, Cristina, Leona, Everett, Melody, Belle and Kingsley.

It could be said that all the important people should be present were here.

The host stood on the stage with a microphone and the people below listened, whispering from time to time.

"I heard that Brayden's fiancée is his uncle's ex-wife. Do you know about that?"

"I heard about it, but I don't know about the details."

"I don't think that's possible. How can the Westons accept a woman who had married one member of the family before?"

"I don't think it's possible either, but we haven't seen the bride yet. Could the rumor be true?"

Otherwise, why didn't the bride make her presence?

"Let's wait first. Maybe the bride has been hiding and won't show up until later."

The host said about 20 minutes before finally announced, "Please invite our newlywed couple to the stage."

Immediately, the lights dimmed and a halo hit the backstage.

/ Fit For Your Love

Everyone looked at the halo and waited for the couple to appear.

Melody also looked at the light.

Her hands curled up on her knees.

The engagement.

Brayden and Olivia's engagement.

She believed that no one was more eager to see Olivia and Brayden appear at this moment than she was.

Everett, who was sitting next to her, held the glass with his eyes half-closed.

His fingers slowly stoke the glass.

Leona looked at him to see his expression.

However, Everett was expressionless.

His angular face still looked indifferent and heartless, no different from usual.

Leona frowned.

Didn't he care about it? But why was she still uneasy? Brayden, in a white suit, appeared in the light, handsome and extraordinary.

However, he was the only one who came out.

There was no bride.

The people sitting around started to whisper to each other.

“Where’s the bride?”

“Why doesn’t bride appear?”

“Yes, why is the groom alone?”

The host gave the microphone to Brayden.

Brayden took it and went on stage with a gentle smile on his face.

“I’m sorry, everyone, my fiancée is shy and embarrassed to come out to see everyone. When we get married next year, you will definitely see her”

Hearing this sentence, the guests had different reactions on their faces.

How could the bride not show up in the engagement? Was the rumor real that Brayden’s fiancée was his uncle’s ex- wife? For a moment, countless eyes fell on the people at the front table.

The Westons members were all at that table.

How could they allow their younger generation to hold an engagement only with the groom but without the bride? However, the people sitting at Wade’s table was extremely calm, as if they had already agreed to this result.

However, if the guests look closely, they would find that their calmness was superficial.

They were equally shocked.

Cristina looked at Belle with a question in his eyes: what was going on? Everyone thought that Brayden and Olivia would appear together today.

Why was there only one now? What about the other one? Belle smiled bitterly, which meant she would talk about it later.

Cristina suppressed her doubts and looked at Brayden.

Brayden did not look displeased at all.

Instead, he was very happy with a smile in his eyes.

It seemed like his reason was the truth.

Olivia didn’t appear only because she was shy not because of anything else.

But Cristina knew.

It was not the truth.

There must be another reason.

Thinking of this, she looked at Everett.

At this moment, she was not the only one who looked at Everett, but also Leona and Melody.

At this table, except for Wade, Belle, and Kingsley, no one knew that Brayden was the only one to attend the engagement today.

Even Leona and Melody didn't know.

So, after hearing Brayden's words, the two of them became uneasy.

Leona frowned and tried to suppress her emotions.

She looked embarrassed.

She realized that why he was so calm tonight and didn't do anything.

So it wasn't that he didn't take any action, but that he had already done it! Melody looked at Everett.

Her hands clenched.

Numerous emotions welled up in her eyes.

Everett, was that because of you? Because of you, Olivia did not appear.

For a moment, the atmosphere at the table became strange.

The men at the table sensed that the atmosphere was not right.

They saw Melody look at Everett and make eye contact with Everett.

Everyone looked at Everett.

Now, all eyes except for Wade's were on Everett were at this table.

Everett raised his eyes and looked across the face of the people who looked at him.

Finally, his eyes fell on Melody's face.

“What?”

Melody curled her lips.

She turned to look at Brayden on the stage.

He was wearing a white suit, standing there with the handsome figure, and the light shone on his face.

He smiled happily.

Melody pinched her nails into her palms, and her eyes pierced Brayden like a sword.

Brayden, how could you smile so happy even if you were here alone? The party ended at nearly 10 pm.

Brayden, Belle and Kingsley sent the guests away one by one.

Wade left soon after dinner because he was old.

Cristina should send Wade back, so he went back with the Old Master.

Shepherd had a lot of things to do, and he asked for leave for the dinner today.

In the end, Reid, Leona, Everett, Melody, Belle, Brayden and Kingsley were left.

Brayden looked at Leona and Reid.

“Grandpa and grandma, it’s getting late. You should go back and rest early.” Reid nodded.

“You’ve worked hard. Go home and rest early-”

“Okay, thank you, grandpa.” Reid looked at Leona.

“Let’s go.”

Leona had been forced a smile for the whole night.

Now she couldn’t hold on.

Hearing his words, she looked at Belle and said.

"Belle, call me when you're done.' Tonight, she wanted to ask Belle what was going on.

However, Belle and Brayden were busy entertaining guests, so she had no chance to ask.

Now Visit to read the newest content, everyone! her curiosity anymore.

Belle knew what Leona was going to ask so she said, "Okay, mom.'

Leona and Reid got in the car and Visit to read the newest content, everyone! and Everett.

"You can go back too."

The smile on Melody's face faded at that moment.

"Well, sis, bye."

"Okay" Melody and Everett got in the car.

Brayden was standing in front of the hotel, watching the Bentley disappear.

Belle breathed a sigh of relief because the engagement was finally completed.

She looked at Brayden and said softly, "Brayden, let's go home too.'

Brayden looked at Belle and said.

"Mom, thank you for tonight""

Though without her daughter-in-law present, she was not angry or unhappy at all.

She always helped him entertain guests with a smile on her face.

He was very grateful. Belle smiled.

"Silly child, stop talking nonsense. As long as you are happy, I will be relieved."

Perhaps in the eyes of outsiders tonight, Brayden's happiness was forced.

But she knew it wasn't.

He was really happy.

She was proud that she could make her son happy.

They got in the car and left the hotel.

On the other hand, the Bentley was in a cold atmosphere.

Everett did not speak, and Melody did not, either.

One leaned back in his chair and closed his eyes.

The other looked out the window.

Just like that, they were silent all the way to Grand Imperial Garden.

When the car stopped, Everett opened his eyes and got out of the car.

Melody also got out of the car.

But she was faster than Everett, so she got out of the car and went in quickly.

Everett looked at her walk in.

The living room was brightened as Melody entered.

When the lights lit up the entire villa, Melody turned around and looked at Everett.

“You have already known that Olivia would not appear at the engagement party tonight, right?”
