Chapter 307

Wearing a long cinched green dress with a v-neck design, Melody was elegant and sexy. She walked over and looked at Sissi.

"How are you? Do you still feel bad?"

Melody's eyes were gentle, and she behaved like her big sister.

Sissi's lips were pursed and she lowered her head.

'Do I feel bad? "

Of course.

"It was all my fault."

"I ruined my parents' hard work' Sissi thought.

Suddenly, a soft hand touched her forehead. It made her feel warm.

Sissi froze.

Melody felt her temperature and said, "It's okay. Your temperature is normal."

Sissi looked at her.

"You sent me to the hospital?"

Melody pressed the bedside button and took a stool to sit down.

With her legs crossed, Melody looked at her.

"I heard that Everett had bought your father's company. I'm sorry"

Sissi shook her head and looked gloomy.

"It's not your fault, it's my fault..."

"It was my fault. I had provoked the wrong person."

"It was my own fault."

"It was me..!" She thought.

Sissi's tears fell.

Suddenly, she thought of something.

She grabbed Melody's hand and said eagerly, "You are Everett's fiancée. Please help me to beg him. I know I'm wrong. I really know I'm wrong!"

Melody's eyes moved slightly and her lips curled up with a bitter smile. (Daily latest update)

"Miss Walker, I'm so sorry. I could do nothing about this"

Sissi was stunned.

"Why?"

"Why can't you do anything about it?"

"Aren't you his fiancée? Haven't you two been together for years? Doesn't he love you very much?"

Why couldn't she do anything? Melody looked at her, her eyes were dark, and his expression was bitter.

"If Everett loved me, how could he buy your father's company just because you hit Olivia?"

Sissi froze.

Yeah.

If Everett didn't love Olivia, how could he punish her with her father's company? He didn't love Melody, but he loved Olivia...

"But you can rest assured that even though he doesn't love me, I'm still his fiancée. And I should take the responsibility to help you."

"I will beg him for you."

Sissi's eyes widened.

"Really?"

"Really, I should take the responsibility"

"I'm really sorry, Miss Walker"

Sissi looked at Melody.

Melody was proud.

But at this moment, Melody put down her pride and apologized to her.

She suddenly realized that Melody forced herself to be proud when appearing in public.

She was actually very unhappy.

Very unhappy.

"Have a good rest. Your father's company needs you."

Melody took her bag got up and left.

The doctor came in just when Melody left. Melody handed the card to the doctor.

"If anything happens, call me."

"Sure"

The doctor took the card, and Melody smiled at him and left. It was a forced smile.

Sissi clutched the quilt.

Sissi was a fan of Melody, who loved Melody deeply.

She got angry when she found out that Olivia was involved in the relationship between Melody and Everett.

So she asked reporters to badger Olivia and even hit her.

But Sissi never thought that someone would protect Olivia.

But it didn't matter.

Even so, Sissi still could punish Olivia.

She kept an eye on Olivia's itinerary, asked someone to go to her room destroyed her clothes and pants and her papers.

Olivia's money and laptop were taken away.

Sissi knew that Olivia was a designer and there must be much confidential information in her laptop.

So she asked a guy to take her laptop away and bring it back to her.

She wanted to sell Olivia's designs and make her a copycat.

But Sissi got Olivia's computer, she could not get in touch with the guy she sent out to the Silkworm Town.

She had no idea what had happened.

And she was still having fun with her friends.

However, the crisis came quietly.

Then her life collapsed.

Sissi covered her face with the quilt.

She shouted in a muffled voice, "Ah -"

She regretted what she had done.

If she had just hit Olivia once, Everett would not buy her father's company.

It was only when she had someone steal Olivia's things that Everett bought her father's company.

She was so regretful! Melody walked out of the hospital.

The moment she walked out of the hospital, her face was frighteningly cold.

'Because Sissi stole Olivia's things, you bought the company.

"What would you do if others really hurt Olivia?"

"Everett, I'm curious" Melody thought.

Chapter 308

SHS Building.

Conference room.

The huge conference room was full of people.

The contents were projected onto the wall by the projector, and everyone looked at the contents.

The Project Manager was illustrating.

Everyone listened and looked at it seriously.

Everett sat in the leading seat.

He leaned back in his chair and looked at the contents of the wall with his dark eyes.

Davis went and sat next to Everett and recorded.

Suddenly, his cell phone began to vibrate.

Everett looked over.

Davis said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Weston." (Daily latest update www.noveljar.com)

Everett did not answer and turned to look ahead.

Davis went out with his phone.

"Hello."

"Davis, there's a girl down there. She has been arguing to see Mr. Weston. We can't chase her away no matter what."

The receptionist said helplessly.

"A girl?"

"Yes, she said she would just say a few words to Mr. Weston, and then she would leave."

Davis thought, "What's the girl's name?"

"Sissi, she said she was the daughter of CS Group's boss"

Davis's eyes moved slightly. Looking at the Lime, he said. "I'm coming down now."

"Okay."

Davis hung up the phone and walked to the elevator. The receptionist came up to Sissi and said, "Davis will be down soon. Don't make any noise." (Daily latest update www.noveljar.com)

Sissi had been clamoring to see Mr. Weston, and the people who walked past all looked over because of the noise.

This was not proper.

"Who's Davis?"

"Special assistant of Mr. Weston"

Special assistant? The special assistant must be very powerful.

Okay, Davis was okay.

Sissi calmed down and stared at the elevator door.

In less than a minute, the elevator door opened and Davis walked over.

The receptionist immediately went over.

"Davis.."

Before the receptionist could finish speaking, Sissi went over and stood in front of Davis.

"You're Everett's special assistant?"

Davis looked at Sissi with surprise in his eyes. Very few people dared to call Mr. Weston by his full name.

It was not that no one wanted to, but they didn't dare to do this.

"You are... Sissi?"

He looked at the person in front of him, unsure.

It was not that he had a bad memory, but that the person in front of him had no big red lips and smoky makeup.

And her dyed hair had turned black, sticking obediently to her ears and temples.

Her face was young and her eyes were bright.

She was completely different from the bully woman he saw in the video.

"Yes, I'm Sissi. My father is the boss of the CS Group, Paul"

As soon as she spoke, Davis found that the arrogance in her voice still remained.

Davis nodded.

She was the woman in the video.

He raised his wrist to look at the time.

"You only have three minutes. What are you going to say?"

He looked at Sissi.

"Can you ask Everett for me that..." (Daily latest update www.noveljar.com)

After a pause, she said, "Can you ask Mr. Weston that if I go to apologize to Olivia, will he spare my father's company?"

She had been thinking a lot in the past two days.

She didn't care about pride or dignity anymore.

She only cared about her father's company.

As long as she could get her father's company back, she could do anything!

"What else?"

"You tell him that as long as he doesn't purchase my father's company, I can do anything. I, Sissi, do what I say!"

Her voice was extremely firm.

Davis nodded and turned to enter the elevator.

Sissi saw him leave like this and she immediately grabbed him.

"You haven't answered me yet?"

Davis looked at his hand which was being grabbed and frowned.

Sissi immediately withdrew her hand and said, "You haven't answered me yet!"

"I'll contact you."

Then, Davis turned around and entered the elevator.

The elevator door quickly closed in front of Sissi.

She looked at the elevator and then turned to sit on the sofa in the lobby.

She was waiting there! Davis went to the conference room and sat down.

An hour later, the meeting ended.

Everett got up and went back to his office.

Davis followed and closed the door.

Davis put the documents in his hand on the desk, and he looked at the person sitting in the chair.

"Mr. Weston, the daughter of the CS Group's Boss just came. She has questions to ask you."

Everett looked up at Davis.

His eyes were too dark that people didn't dare to look straight at his eyes.

Davis said, "She asked me to ask Mr. Weston two questions"

Everett's black eyes moved.

Everett leaned back and opened her thin lips.

"And?"

"She says if she goes to apologize to Olivia, could you not purchase CS Group?"

After a pause, Davis continued, "As long as you don't purchase CS Group, you can let her do anything"

Chapter 309

Sissi waited on the sofa, her eyes fixed on the elevator.

She thought Davis would come down personally to give her an answer.

But he didn't.

The receptionist came over after receiving a call.

"Miss Walker, Davis asked me to tell you that one has to learn to take responsibility. You are still young and have a long life. This may be a good thing for you."

Sissi's face turned pale and she tightened her grip on the sofa.

It meant there was no use in her doing anything...

Olivia went to the farm, and not long after she reached there, her phone rang.

It was an unfamiliar number.

"Hello, who is it?"

"I'm Grace. Mr. Smith asked me to be your assistant."

Grace? Olivia frowned slightly. She seemed to have heard this name somewhere. But she couldn't remember.

"Okay, where are you now?"

"I just arrived at H City"

"Alright, but I'm in D City now. I..."

Before she could finish speaking, Grace interrupted her.

She said quickly and enthusiastically.

"Then I'll come over now. Where exactly are you?"

Olivia thought for a moment and said, "I'll send you the address of the hotel I am staying in. Call me when you get there"

"Okay."

She had thought she wouldn't stay here for long, so she wanted to finish her work here before she came back to City to meet Grace.

However, since Grace was sent by Mr. Smith to be her assistant, she would let her come over.

Olivia hung up the phone and sent Grace the address.

Grace received the message and immediately bought a ticket.

Olivia and Jeff stayed at the farm for almost half an hour before they went to the processing plant.

After being there another half an hour, Olivia asked Jeff for samples.

Then she sent AK Company's address to him and asked him to send some samples over.

These samples must be enough for her to make sample clothes.

"Okay, I'll have them sorted vul today."

"Then I'll leave now. Thank you for today."

"You're welcome."

Olivia went to another company.

It was a little far away, and it took two hours by car.

So it was already past five when she got there.

Fortunately, she called the head of the company in advance, who had been waiting for her in the company.

As soon as Olivia arrived at the company, the person in charge came out.

"Hello, Miss Hadley."

"Sorry to keep you waiting for so long."

"It's okay. Have you eaten yet? Let's talk after dinner"

"Okay"

The person probably didn't eat either.

They went to a restaurant.

After ordering, Olivia directly told the person what she wanted and showed her drawings.

As they chatted, the dishes were served and they finished eating before returning to the office.

It was almost seven o'clock.

Olivia's phone rang.

She picked up her phone.

looked at the screen, and answered it.

"Hi, Grace "Olivia, I'm at the hotel. Where are you now?"

"I'm at RF Company now."

"RE Company?"

"Yes, it's a little far away. You don't have to come. Take a break. I will be over in about an hour."

"It's not far is it?"

"It's about three hours from the hotel to this place"

"So far?"

"Yes, take a break. I'll call you when I get to the hotel"

"Okay."

After hanging up, Olivia and the manager went to the sample room.

The manager had all she wanted.

After checking those, she took the samples back and asked the manager to send some samples to AK Company.

Time passed by.

At 7:40, Olivia finished her talk with the manager, left with the samples, and took the car back to the hotel.

Today, her work at the two companies went very well, and she got the samples.

She would still have to go to another two companies tomorrow.

But neither company had what she wanted.

She had to give them the designs and let them do some new samples.

Olivia thought and then closed her eyes. She felt a little tired.

The phone vibrated in the bag, and then the bell rang. Olivia opened her eyes and picked up her phone.

Chapter 310

It was from Brayden.

Rubbing her eyes, Olivia sat up straight.

“Hello, Brayden”

She answered the phone and looked out the window. The car was still moving, and the streetlights flashed past.

“Olivia, are you done?”

“I’m done. I’m on my way back to the hotel” She said in a muffled voice.

Brayden felt her voice strange and asked, “What’s wrong? Are you uncomfortable?”

“No, I just fell asleep in the car” Brayden frowned.

“You’re too tired.”

“That’s my normal life.”

That was how people make money. It was never easy.

Hearing her indifferent voice, Brayden’s hand clenched slightly.

“I really want you to hide behind my back and let me be your sugar daddy” Olivia smiled.

“Then you’ll be tired.”

“I won’t, on the contrary, I will be very happy. It was a very happy thing to support the person he loved. Olivia knew that Brayden was worried about her and said softly, “Mr. Smith has assigned an assistant to me. I’m already at the hotel. I won’t be so tired in the future.”

It would be much better to have an assistant.

“He should have done it for you a long time ago.”

His voice sounded resentful, as if he was blaming Preston.

Olivia chuckled.

"Both companies I visited today are doing pretty well, but I guess tomorrow I'll have some problems. Both companies that I will visit tomorrow have no stocks and they need to redo. So I might not be able to go to Capital City tomorrow. I won't be able to go there until the day after tomorrow"

"It's okay. It's not urgent"

"I asked the doctor today. Grandpa will be discharged from the hospital in about a week. Don't rush. Don't push yourself too hard."

"Okay."

Brayden looked at the time.

It was already 9:40.

"When will you arrive at the hotel?"

Olivia looked outside and then at the driver.

"Sir, when can we arrive at the hotel?"

The driver answered, "About half an hour"

Brayden heard him and said, "I'll call you in half an hour"

"It's okay. Go to bed early"

"I won't sleep until you get back to the hotel safely" Olivia was helpless.

"Okay."

Brayden hung up.

He put his phone aside and picked up the document on the coffee table.

He had already read this document.

It was about the CS Group.

The investigation was very detailed, including Paul's family relationship.

However, before he could come to Paul, he heard that Paul's company was acquired by Everett.

And Paul was bedridden and in coma because of that.

All of a sudden, CS Group's share prices fell to the bottom and there was no chance of rising again.

This was because of Everett.

He has always been sharp in his decision.

And he was really cruel.

He would do everything to achieve his purpose.

Brayden squinted, picked up his phone and made a call.

"Is there anything wrong with her these two days?"

"No, Miss Hadley is fine."

"Are you sure?"

"Yes."

"Okay, call me if there is anything wrong with her."

"Yes, Mr. James."

After hanging up the phone, Brayden put the document aside and went to the bathroom.

Olivia still didn't know what happened to the CS Group.

What would she do if she heard that? Olivia returned to the hotel at 10:20.

How time flew.

She walked out of the elevator and called Grace.

She took out her room card she made the phone call.

"Olivia"

"Grace, I'm at the hotel, but it's late, let's have a talk tomorrow morning"

"Okay, Olivia, you should rest early." (Daily latest update )

"Okay."

Olivia hung up, put her phone in the bag, took the card and put it on the door.

But before the card touched the door, a person suddenly appeared in front of her.

Chapter 311

Olivia was startled, but she quickly slipped back. She looked at the person with alertness.

But she was stunned to see a young and unfamiliar face.

"You..."

"I'm sorry!"

Sissi looked at her and bowed low to her.

Her voice was loud.

Olivia, The girl seemed only to be fifteen or sixteen years old and she looked young.

However, Olivia had never seen her before. What was she doing?

"Do you mistake me for someone else?" Olivia asked.

Except for this possibility, she could not think of any reason for the girl to apologize to her.

Sissi immediately straightened up and looked at her firmly.

"No. I know you're Olivia."

Sissi knew Olivia's name accurately, which made Olivia's eyes widened slightly.

"Do you know me?"

Sissi looked into Olivia's clean eyes.

And she felt Olivia was completely different from the person who looked stern that day.

Sissi's eyes moved and she said, "I was the one who hit you that day, also the one who asked others to steal your laptop and destroy your papers"

The shock in Olivia's eyes disappeared.

So did the doubts.

She looked at Sissi with surprise, and then she calmed down.

"What do you want to do this time?"

She had speculated that the person who destroyed her papers and took her laptop that day was a fan of Melody.

But she didn't expect the person to be this girl.

But she found it was not something strange.

Because she felt so cynical. And she hated Olivia so much. How could it be enough just to hit her? When Sissi heard her words, she bowed again.

"I'm sorry, I shouldn't have done that. I was wrong"

She bowed low to Olivia again, and her voice was full of remorse.

Olivia looked at her.

Sissi today was very different from Sissi on that day.

That day, she was like a gangster, and today she was just like a schoolgirl.

Olivia wondered who could make her change that much and even could ask her to apologize. But she wasn't curious.

Nor did she wanted to know.

"If you really know you're wrong, then I'll forgive you. Never do anything like that again."

She put the card on the door and the door opened.

Olivia walked in.

Sissi followed her.

Olivia frowned.

"You..."

"I really know I was wrong. I regret it. I will never do that again. Can you help me?"

She stood in front of Olivia and looked at her earnestly.

Olivia couldn't understand her words.

"Help her? Help what?" Olivia thought.

"You regret it and realize that you can't do that, that's a good thing, but I don't understand what you want me to do for you"

"Everett bought my father's company. Please tell him not to buy my father's company. I beg you!"

Sissi grabbed her hand and said anxiously.

She acted like a drowning man trying to catch at a straw.

Olivia looked at her, stunned.

She was confused for a few seconds and then came to her senses.

"You said Everett bought your father's company?"

"Yes! He's punishing me, making me realize that I shouldn't have done that, and I know it now, but he's still going to buy my father's company. I beg you, go find him and tell him not to buy my father's company. That's the hard work of my father and mother!"

Her father had become a vegetable and was lying in the hospital.

She had no face to see him before she got her father's company back.

Only then could she go to visit her dad and wake him up.

Olivia looked at Sissi's teary, bloodshot eyes and she clenched her hands.

"I'm sorry. His business decision has nothing to do with me."

'Don't come to me' Olivia thought.

Olivia turned around and went in, putting her laptop and documents on the bed.

Sissi followed her and shouted, "No! He bought my father's company because of you!"

"He did it because of you!"

Olivia stood at the table with her back to Sissi.

She took the mineral water and unscrewed the cap to drink.

After drinking the water, she put down the bottle and said, "Everett is a businessman. A businessman's decision has nothing to do with personal matters."

Then she turned around and looked at Sissi.

"You've got the wrong person"

There was no warmth in her eyes.

Olivia came to the door and opened it.

"Sorry, I have work tomorrow morning. I have to rest. Please go back."

Sissi shook her head, clenched his hands, sat on the bed, and whispered, "I'm not leaving. My father is already lying in the hospital because of me. He may never wake up."

"If I don't get the company back, he could never wake up for the rest of his life."

"He's my only family. I can't lose him."

Sissi sat there, tears dripping down her cheeks.

Olivia stood at the door, and her hand holding the doorknob more tightly.

"You said Everett bought your father's company because of me, but do you know who his favorite person is?"

She turned her eyes and looked ahead with empty eyes, her face expressionless.

Sissi immediately stood up.

"I know. He loves you!"

"He loves you!"

"He loved you so he retaliated against me after I hit you and destroyed your papers."

"He did this all because he loves you!"

Olivia's lips curved.

She turned to look at Sissi, and her emotionless eyes were bleak.

"Then let me tell you why he doesn't love me."

Sissi was stunned.

Olivia's empty eyes silenced her.

She felt that this woman had a sad story.

The story was so sad that even she felt bad.

"In order to be with the person he loves, he watched his own child being killed without any expression"

"Tell me, is this his love?"

Chapter 312

Sissi looked at Olivia and her eyes lit up with a smile, but there was no warmth in it.

She suddenly wanted to say something but didn't know how to put it.

Olivia's eyes sparkled but soon the light disappeared. She looked at Sissi and her smile broadened.

"You're still young. You don't understand a lot of things. But the business world is like a battlefield. In the eyes of businessmen, only profit matters. They all want to win. When you grow up, you will understand this."

She would never believe that Everett would buy a company for her.

Unless she didn't lose her child.

Olivia took the suitcase, packed her things, and looked at Sissi.

"It's getting late. You can rest here"

She then left with her suitcase.

When Sissi saw her leaving, she grabbed her arm.

"Please don't leave. I really have no choice now."

She had no choice but to ask Olivia for help.

If Olivia didn't help her, she would really be in a desperate situation.

Olivia was helpless.

“Don’t you understand what I’m saying? It’s not that I don’t want to help you, but that I can’t help you.”

No one could influence Everett’s decision. He had always been so overbearing and unreasonable.

“No, you can help me. He really bought my father’s company for you.”

That night, in the car, he admitted it.

He admitted it himself.

She wouldn’t have misheard it! Olivia looked at the stubbornness in Sissi’s eyes and the smile on her face disappeared.

“Little girl, I can’t change what you think, but I won’t go to Everett.”

Never.

Olivia pulled Sissi’s hands one by one and turned around to leave.

Sissi watched her leaving ruthlessly.

A wave of madness rose in her heart, and she turned and ran to the balcony.

“Okay, if you don’t help me, I’ll jump down from here!”

Olivia froze.

Sissi stood on the balcony, looked at her back, and said loudly, “My dad is a vegetable now. If I can’t get his company back, he will never wake up”

“What’s the point of living if he can’t wake up? I might as well die!” Olivia turned around.

Sissi was standing on the balcony, waving her arms, looking crazy.

Olivia pursed her lips, her fingers pressed into her palms, and her face turned cold.

Sissi saw her looking at her and laughed.

“You people are all heartless. I have to be heartless. I will jump down from here today. Will still eat and sleep peacefully every day?!”

“Haha...Haha...”

"Mom, wait for me. I am coming to accompany you now. You..."

"You have been living a happy life."

Olivia interrupted her.

Sissi was stunned.

Olivia said again, "You still have your father. You remember what your mother looks like. I don't even know where my real parents are."

"You."

"You think you are the most miserable person in the world. Once you suffer a small blow, you want to kill yourself. If everyone is like you, then how many people will die in this world? I am not responsible for the lives of others. I am only responsible for my own life. If you want to die, I will not stop you. But your father is lying on the bed, without the care of his own daughter. I pity him. He would have had a chance to wake up. But if you die, it is impossible to wake up now." Olivia said coldly.

With that she turned around without mercy.

"If my child were still alive, if she were to live like this, I would be sad"

Sissi's tears fell.

"Do you think I want to be like this?"

"There's nothing I can do!"

"I did something wrong, but no one gave me a chance to change. I really regret it. Why didn't you give me a chance?"

"Her body shook and she couldn't stand steadily on the balcony." Olivia recognized something wrong with her voice and turned around. The next moment, she ran over...
