Chapter 17: Unstoppable

No more teasing, Natalia. I held her head in my hands as I forcefully rammed my hard cock into the soft and warm depth of her mouth, all in one thrust. I was hitting the back of her throat as she gasped and ran her tongue along my length. She began sucking me expertly as I started to fuck her mouth. Pulling my dick out of her mouth and then ramming it in again. I shook her head back and forth to match with the pace of my thrusting as we both moaned. It feels heavenly.

Natalia has some real skills in pleasing a man, whether that was her natural gift, a result of our natural compatibility or a result of experience and training with her other lovers, I could not tell. The bite mark on her shoulder still present at the back of my mind while I took pleasure in fucking her lips.

My release was fast approaching but I remembered her request for us to cum together today. So, I stopped thrusting and told her to release her lips from my cock. I wanted to fuck her cunt now and I'm sure that is what she has been eagerly waiting for as well.

"I've always wanted to do you in a place like this," Edward whispered into my ears making me shiver as he backed my body against the wall. His hand grabbed my left thigh lifting my leg up parting it to the side to spread my pussy.

"Put me inside you," Edward commanded and I eagerly complied. I gently held his rock-hard pole in my hand and slowly guided his head to my soaking opening. My body jerked as he screwed his cock deep into my sopping wet cunt in one hard motion. His hand guided my left leg to wrap around the top of his hips to hug his body closer to mine for my own support. His hands then held the sides of my waist as he held me in place while ramming his dick in and out of me.

My body sandwiched between the wall behind my back and his firm muscular body made it easy for him to penetrate me deep with his manhood. He did just that, repeated, until I was unable to control my moans and started screaming his name loud in the storage room.

My wetness allowed him to slide in and out of me easily allowing him to fuck me fast and hard. I felt wetter and wetter with each thrust as my body started to release more nectar to coat his loving dick. My pussy clenched around his shaft with each thrust and began twitching more frequently as my orgasm was approaching.

“Edward, I’m gonna cum...I can’t hold...on,” I confessed to Edward between my pants of pleasure. I looked deep into his eyes pleading him to cum inside me. I guess by this time I was addicted to the hot fulfilling sensation of feeling his cum shoot inside my womb. I wanted his seed deep inside me. The sensation of it dripping out of my hole onto my legs was so seductive.

“Cum inside of me, Edward! I want to feel your hot seed,” I begged him for his seed directly. I felt out of my mind. I was addicted to feeling his raw dick inside of me.

Edward shoved his dick harder inside of me rushing us both towards our release. I clamed my leg around his hip harder pulling him even closer to my body as I hugged my pussy walls tightly around him at the moment that my orgasm hit me. At the same moment, Edward pumped into me rapidly a few times before reaching his climax as well. I felt my milky cum gushing out inside my hole to cover his dick as his dick shot his hot seed into the back of my love tunnel. He shot his seed inside me in a few spurts, each one hitting me deep inside burying his seed into my womb.

“How many are we supposed to grab?” asked a female voice. The door to the storage room was opened I heard footsteps walking in. Are you serious? Someone just came into the storage room!?

“I’m not sure, so let’s grab a few to spare,” a male voice answered as the footsteps approached deeper into the room.

If they come all the way to the back, they’re going to see us! I looked at Edward in panic to see him press a finger to his lips winking at me. I’m not sure how he was going to handle this but...

He eased his cock out of my hole and turned my body around so I was facing the wall with my back to him. His large hands grabbed my hips from behind while tugging up my skirt leaving them around my waist. This is definitely not what I had in mind regarding ‘handling the situation’.

“Bend over, Natalia. Put your hands on the wall,” he commanded. No, he’s going to fuck me from behind at a time like this?

Without waiting to see if I’ve followed his instructions or not, Edward pulled up my hips and rammed his hard cock into my hole from behind. My pussy let out an embarrassing squelching sound as his cock plunged into its wet depths. How did he get hard again so fast? Oh god, he’s much bigger than he was before too. It’s amazing how he could get even bigger like this.

I placed my hands on the wall as instructed before I felt him fuck in and out of my pussy so hard that I could hardly keep my balance. Thank you, my dear wall, for supporting me. Edward pulled back one of my arms using it to jerk my body back and forth to match his thrusts making each thrust deeper and more forceful.

The closer their footsteps got closer to us as they navigated the maze of storage shelves to find whatever they were looking for; the faster and harder Edward panted and fucked his cock inside my tight hole. He fucked me so much that my insides were turning to mush and our combined cum is dripping out of my gaping hole onto the floor. I bit my own wrist to keep myself from crying out. My fear of being caught in the act combined with Edward's hardness hitting my g-spot was making me feel it more than usual and I was close to cumming again. I turned my head around so Edward could tongue fuck my mouth keeping my moans from leaking out.

They were coming closer and so was my orgasm. My pussy walls clamped down on Edward's cock again while I wiggled my ass, grinding my hips to take him in further. I cried out into his mouth as my climax hit me and I lost all strength in my legs and my body slid down. Edward supported me.

"I found it! Come here. Help me take a few of these," the female voice called out to her co-worker. I heard sounds of them picking something from the shelves before retreating back through the mazes of shelves to the entrance of the room.

"Let's go. We should be good. The others are waiting for this," the male voice said as the door to the storage room closed behind them. Phew, they left.

Edward continued to ram his cock into my overworked hole, reminding me that our affair was not over yet.

"Did that turn you on more than usual? You were clenching around my cock so hard back there. Do you like this?" Edward hissed in my ears.

"I'm going to fill your horny cunt with loads of my seed. You're mine now, Natalia," Edward groaned into my ear with his husky voice before pumping in distinct and articulate thrusts. Soon after, he shot his hot load into me once more. I felt his gushing hotness everywhere inside of me as his new set of seed mixed with the older lot from just earlier. He slumped against me, both of us wasted, as we both tried to catch our breath. He panted while nibbling my left ear, I could feel his hot breath. Then I felt the sensation of his cock slowly sliding out of my pussy hole followed by the rapid gush of our overflowing love juices. There was so much of it that both my inner thighs were wet while some of it dripped into a small puddle on the floor.

"Get home safe," Edward said over his shoulders after he finished dressing and left without another word.

Still lost in dreamland and tired from our sexual workout, I sat on the floor to catch my breath before getting dress and leaving the lab to meet up with Zak.

...

Edward headed back to this office. As much as he wanted to drive Natalia home and spend more time with her, there was someone he needed to meet.

“Good to see you again, Reiner,” Edward greeted the tall figure standing straight in the middle of his office.

“Yo, Sir Edward...How’s the girl?” Reiner turned around to greet Edward mockingly.
