Chapter 19: Risky Love

My body writhed underneath him with pleasure as I grinded my hips against the hardness in his pants. I was so turned on from how he stimulated my nipples that my pussy is already drenched with my honey. I want to feel him inside of me soon, but knowing Zak, he's going to take his time and make me beg for it.

He got off me to sit on the sofa at my foot. He yanked my short black skirt up roughly so it pooled around my waist exposing my lace-clad pussy to him. I arched my hips up inviting him to play around with my lower body. His hands jerked my wide apart roughly before his fingers felt my opening through the lace of my panties. I could feel the sensation of the lace rubbing against my clit and my opening.

"No. Please, Zak, you have to stop. Annie is right there. We're going to be seen," I pleaded with him softly to stop.

Ignoring my protests, Zak slipped a finger into the crotch of my underwear to touch my throbbing slit. My body shuddered at his touch as he stroked my wetness.

"How can I believe that you don't want it when your cunt is dripping wet?" Zak replied with distaste.

"You're such a slut, Natalia. Getting all wet in this situation. You better be quiet and let me fuck you or Annie is going to wake up," Zak threatened in a low and hoarse voice.

Using both his hands, he spread my thighs further, pushing my legs upwards to further expose my pussy to him. Then his fingers pushed the lace covering my sweet hole to the side as his other hand positioned his thick cock at my opening.

"No Zak! I'm not ready..." I protested. I'm not ready to take in his big and thick cock. I'm definitely not a virgin but Zak's cock is way above average. Even with fingering and other stimulations of my pussy before penetration, taking Zak's member in has always been a bit painful at the start. Taking him in without any of those preparation is going to be damaging for me. His cock head is much larger than my hole and I could feel it as he positioned himself between my legs.

"It's too big. I can't take it in...please stop," I tried to persuade him. Zak did not respond as he twirled his thick rod around hitting the head around my opening, coating his head with my juices.

This is reminding me of the stormy night I gave my virginity to Zak. Back then he wasn't this big because his cock seemed to have grown even more over the years but it still hurt like crazy back then. It hurt so much I cried almost throughout the whole process and I bled so much for days before the bleeding completely stopped.

“I’ll make you feel so good that you’ll forget all the pain with this big cock,” Zak whispered before moving closer to my body.

He grabbed both my legs raising them up and draping each side of my legs onto his shoulders. Oh my god, this position allows him to position his hips closer to mine. Once again, his finger parted the lace covering my entrance to the side while his other hand positioned the head of his cock at the dripping wet slit of my pussy.

“AHHHHHH! Zak...Ahhhh!” I screamed out loud as he rammed his gigantic shaft inside of my tight hole. It hurts! My pussy stretched beyond its comfort level as it tries to accommodate Zak’s large size. He was only half way in. Sorry Annie...I’m fucking your to-be fiancé right in front of you.

“I can’t take anymore...inside...” I pleaded as Zak began to thrust his hot member further inside of me.

“Yes, you can. Let me show you,” Zak panted in excitement.

Suddenly, Zak reared back his hips pulling his member out of me completely before thrusting back even harder than before to drive even more of his length inside of me. It’s so rough. It hurts but it’s starting to feel good. Zak repeated his completely withdrawal and rapid thrusting a couple of times until finally his whole length was buried deep inside my pussy hole. I felt his hot cock growing even bigger as it sank even deeper inside of me. I looked down to see that I had miraculously taken in all his length and he was buried inside me all the way to his hilt.

Without waiting much longer for my pussy to adapt, Zak started moving. Slapping his hip against mine fast and hard, thrusting his love pole rapidly in and out of my wet hole. He was fucking me so fast while panting hard and loud reminding me of a rutting animal in heat. It was endless. Zak gripped the legs I had draped over his shoulders and continued to pound his hard cock inside of me. Our hips made slapping sounds as our genitals made squelching lewd sounds every time he pounded into my wetness.

I turned my head to look at Annie. Thank god she was sleeping through all of this. My pussy was in ecstasy at this point as it clenched around Zak’s staff, savoring his warmth and his size. It grew wetter and wetter inside my honey pot as my body released more milky cum onto Zak’s cock. I wanted to hug him closer to my body but couldn’t because my arms were still bound. Zak was still pumping hard into my cunt, his stamina seemed endless.

I felt my climax fast approaching as my legs started to stiffen, my pussy clenched and twitched around his dick and I was moaning non-stop with every thrust I felt deep inside of me. My orgasm hit me as I screamed out Zak’s name, my mind and body going numb. My love juices gushing out of my hole as Zak pulled his dick out of me then ramming it back hard a couple of times as I rode through my climax.

Then I felt his hot cum shooting inside of me. Oh no, he didn't put it on? His hot sticky seed shot deep inside of me filling me up and warming my belly. This is the first time that Zak has shot his cum inside of me. It feels so hot, so thrilling, so...oh my god, I might cum again.

I was still panting from my orgasm when I felt Zak's cock harden again inside of me.

"It's not over yet, Natalia. Guess I'm taking over," Zak, no, Black Zak said in a cunning voice as his hazel brown eyes twinkled with mischief. This is the worst timing ever!

Without removing his cock from my insides, Zak lifted my body up into a sitting position and shifted me over him so that I was straddling his cock. We were now in a sitting position with him still buried deep within me and growing bigger by the second. He hooked my bounded arms around his neck like I was clinging to his neck.

"Ready for a wild ride? My slutty Natalia," Zak taunted me before lifting his hips up from the sofa to pump his cock into me. He hands around my ass helped to bounce me up and down the length of his shaft faster and hard...and then torturously slowly. Slowly raising and then slowly lowering my pussy onto his upstanding pole. His cock sliding inside of me slowly inch by inch was torture and I clenched my pussy walls even harder around his intruding member. Then Zak switched back to high-speed mode, pounding hard and fast inside of me, melting my insides.

I panted and moan out loud, forgetting all about our sleeping spectator. Zak pinched my nipples hard with his fingers while my breast bounced up and down to the same rhythm of him fucking me. His cock was hot without a condom inside of me and it was turning me on more than usual. Every thrust hit my sensitive spot deep inside and I felt like cumming again real soon. We were both panting and my body was slick with sweat.

"I'm gonna cum...Zak..." I moaned when I was nearing my climax. Begging Zak silently for my release. I wanted to feel my climax.

Zak stopped immediately when he heard that I was approaching my climax. I let out a frustrated grunt like a child mad at having her favorite toy snatched away. He yanked his tool out of my hole making my wetness leak out in a stream accompanying his exiting cock.

"Let's finish off over here," Zak told me while leading me by the hand towards the sofa where Annie was sleeping.

"Place your hands on the sofa and lean over," Zak ordered pointing to where he wanted me to place my bounded hands. I complied, leaning over so that my ass was jutting out and my bounded hands were on the sofa. Oh god, it's like I'm laying next to Annie. I can see her face so clearly.

Zak removed my panties that were still on after all this time. I felt it sliding down to my ankles as I stepped one leg out of it. I felt a hot hardness against my sopping wet opening prodding slightly inside before striking into me with surprising force. Gosh, Black Zak is so wild and forceful!

He slammed his swollen dick inside of me, taking me from behind. His hands on my waist held me in place to support me and allow him to fuck me harder with each thrust. I tried to stay as silent as possible in order to not wake Annie. Zak clearly didn't care whether she woke up and saw us or not. He's just making me do this to embarrass and play around with me. I knew all this but the suspense and excitement that this situation offered was also turning me on. I bet Zak knows this, after all, we've been partners in crime very often in situations very similar to this one.

His hands groped and squeezed my tits from behind. I love the feel of his large and warm hands on my breasts and nipples. He rubbed my nipples so hard it felt raw. I clenched my pussy walls around him sucking his dick deeper inside of me as my body approached another orgasm. I muffled my cries by biting on my fingers as my orgasm took over my body and I lost my strength.

Zak pounded into me hard as he neared his own release. Soon I felt hot liquid rush inside my body as he shot loads of his warm seed inside of my hot cunt.

There was so much of it from two rounds of his release that it trickled out of my hole and slid down my inner thighs. He slowly pulled out of me as my legs lost all strength and I slowly slid down to the floor in a sitting position with my legs spread apart. Our mixed hot cum seeping out of my hole and onto the floor in a puddle. I was a mess and I made a mess on the floor.

The rest of the evening was a blur as Zak helped me put my clothes back on then asking the staff to take care of Annie while we were on our way out. Zak had his hand over my shoulder as he hugged me close to him while we walked to his car.
