

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 148

Melinda fell asleep while she was crying, frowning in her dream. She tried to run away from the cage.

But it was too dark and endless to run.

"Phew!" Melinda opened her eyes, gasping for breath. Her hand rested on the position of her heart. The dream was so real that it made her scared.

"Ah!"

Melinda raised her hand and felt sore all over her body. It was hard for her to open her eyes. With the coldness in her hands, her eyes were much relaxed when she rested her hand on her eyes at this moment.

Melinda narrowed her eyes and found that it was already ten o'clock. She walked to the bathroom and looked at herself in the mirror. She sighed helplessly, it seemed that she could not meet anyone today.

Melinda tried every means to eliminate her swelling and stayed in the bedroom all day long. Nelson, Queena and Yulia all had come to see her.

She had returned to her usual calm. It seemed that what happened last night had no influence on her at all. But any wise person could see that Melinda began to have a strong aversion to Jonas.

As long as the name "Jonas" was mentioned, her smile would instantly fade away, and her attitude would also become perfunctory.

"Don't worry. I have warned him not to enter your room. You want quietness, and I will give you the quietness. But, Melinda, as for the divorce, we should wait until you completely calm down."

What Nelson said made sense. Melinda neither agreed nor denied it. But she had already made a decision in her heart about what to do.

She must get a divorce, but it was impossible for her to find a breakthrough in this divorce due to Jonas's absence. Thinking it over, Melinda decided to collect the evidence of Jonas's extramarital affair.

Considering the relationship between Jonas and Emily, Melinda thought it was a reliable thing.

'Isn't that enough evidence to prove their intimate relationship?' Melinda mocked in her heart.

However, Melinda was aware that it was not an easy thing for her to collect evidence according to her current abilities.

With one hand supporting her chin, Melinda typed on the keyboard with the other. The screen was in a mess.

It was a dilemma for her to write a novel at this time. Melinda loosened her hand and sighed. She turned her eyes to the right corner of the computer and noticed that the information frame was blinking.

It was a message from Leo. They hadn't contacted each other for a long time. It seemed that since Melinda had been together with Jonas, her circle of life was getting smaller and smaller.

"Melinda, are you in a bad mood?"

Leo knew that his identity was a little embarrassing. He had only greeted Melinda in a simple way and rarely came to her.
