

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 150

Melinda thought that she had seen through all his nature, and saw that he had always been nice to her, as he didn't want to lose her.

Men all had their own shortcomings.

By doing that, she found herself a perfect excuse.

Jonas went back home and found some clothes. He threw all of them into the suitcase and made some noise.

That was how he tried to get her attention. He was stupid, but in the end, it was the Gavin who noticed him.

Queena saw that too, but she didn't know what to say to persuade him.

Melinda had been in her bedroom the whole time. How could she not hear the noise? She just didn't want to pay attention to it.

Half an hour later, it was quiet again. And then the sports car was starting its engine. In the meantime, Jonas drove the car and disappeared from the Gu's mansion.

The house fell into silence.

In the next few days, Melinda went out from time to time. Most of the time, she went to meet Leo. With his help, she collected evidence, which was much easier than she was alone.

Jonas had many houses outside, so his not coming back didn't draw much attention. As what Queena said that he was a man now and he wouldn't die outside.

Although he didn't go home, he still went to the company.

A week had passed. They hadn't seen each other for seven days. They became more and more peaceful. Nelson began to worry about their relationship.

It didn't matter much if they separated for a while since they quarreled over trivial matters. But it had been a week, so the conflict between them should be solved.

"Gavin, send someone to check where that bastard lives lately." Since the atmosphere at home was too bad, Nelson decided to look for Jonas back and make everything clear.

"Yes, my Lord." Gavin was familiar with Nelson. He knew that Nelson couldn't hold it any longer and quickly arranged people to investigate. However, the investigation results astonished him again.

Jonas has so many houses outside, but Jonas didn't live in one of them. Instead, he slept in the hotel of Soaring Group.

"He is quite free and unrestrained." If Nelson was bearded, he must have a tremble at this time. In the hotel, he was served with everything. How could he be uncomfortable?

Besides, it was the hotel owned by their company. Those senior managers were very good at flattering people.

But Nelson really misunderstood Jonas this time. The reason why Jonas was living in a hotel was that he wanted to turn himself into a workaholic.

It was not convenient for him to have a video conference in the houses outside. What's more, a business partner from another city happened to come over recently, so he decided to accompany the partner.

attitude has misled everyone, and so the cause and effect,

so master of

you still unwilling to forgive calling him jerk, which made him seem to be quite kind with Melinda.

unhappy, Nelson felt the one who decided not to care about him, so clear now. She needed to collect the evidence and divorce bit strange when he heard her, but he didn't know what she meant at once. Taking it for granted that she didn't angry with Jonas, Nelson laughed happily.

nature. Now it's not a good idea for him to stay in the hotel all the time. Why do something, but now to Nelson spoke gently to a person because that person he was talking

Looking at the expected eyes of grandpa, she couldn't find a word to refuse

Jonas was the grandson of grandpa, he should be at home with grandfather.

a misunderstanding to Melinda, he would agreed. Nelson beamed with pleasure and told her the room number them noticed that there was Soaring Group. Jonas had a large, and it took up almost a floor of space. It

After using her connections, Emily was taken to the 27th floor by the face. Besides her handbag, there was something similar we are only one room on this floor, so she didn't a while, the doorbell rang. Seeing her, Jonas came out to you. Try it." Raising the lunch box in her room leaving Emily alone. Emily went taste. I heard that you have lived here for a it on her shoulder when Jonas was not noticing. "Ah," Emily shouted.

much. He frowned and soup on my dress by accident. Jonas, can I afraid of the cold. Emily was no exception. In such cold weather, she just the clothes rack when he came in.

that they were a family and Emily felt great satisfaction dress was white, and the stain on it was obvious. With a quick look at it, Jonas said indifferently, the soup, Jonas had no appetite at for a long time, Melinda couldn't hold on any longer under the expectant eyes