

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 153

It was a huge gamble and she had nothing at all so she had nothing to fear.

Since Melinda had a target in her heart and knew what she should do, she quickly contacted the media and spread the news that she was going to divorce Jonas.

Those media who received the news were naturally excited.

The love between the young master of the Gu family was not as simple as it looked.

All the media were in an uproar. Melinda just released the news but didn't want to tell the reason. But it didn't matter, because the media was best at making groundless accusations.

Things went on as they expected. Early the next morning, as if they had made an appointment, all of them gathered at the downstairs of the Soaring Group.

Just as Jonas pulled over, his car was besieged by a crowd of media. The security guards were scared by the scene. They quickly arranged security personnel to isolate the group.

"Mr. Jonas, we got the news last night that you are going to divorce Mrs. Melinda. Is that true?"

"Mr. Jonas, please accept our interview, will you?"

"Mr. Jonas, are you divorced because of love or something else, or you have been pretending to love each other all the time?"

"....."

The media kept asking questions one after another like cannonballs. When Jonas heard the word "divorce", he stopped.

Jonas, like an eagle, stared at the first reporter who made a speech. The whole crowd fell silent for a moment, and the reporter couldn't help but shrink a little.

"Who is it that makes the rumor that my wife and I will divorce?"

The word "divorce" was like a bomb exploding in his head. His rage almost spread to the whole company.

"We all received a mysterious call last night, saying that you are going to divorce Mrs. Melinda, and we just need the truth," the reporter answered boldly. However, he was too scared to control himself.

"This is a rumor. I warn you not to spread it, or you will face the consequences."

Jonas wanted to fly into a rage, but his sense finally controlled him.

The words "face the consequences" were like a mountain instantly pressed on the back of the media. Everyone was thinking that no matter whether the news was true or not, they did not dare to report it.

Jonas was born with a commanding presence, so impressive.

and left in a hurry. The result was not good enough for Melinda.

was not the result

She printed another divorce agreement and directly went when she was here. She had the busy Jonas who was her hand in front of her nose. The curtain of the French window was drawn, and the office was a little dark. She the sound of mechanical sliding, the room gradually brightened up. With an uncomfortable frown, Jonas opened his eyes and was about to rebuke, only he had tried to escape for many days, he had to face the moment. Melinda surrounded by cigarette butts. No wonder it was so thick.

have

smoke dissipated a lot, Melinda came up to the opposite side of Jonas and showed the divorce agreement in her hand stuff." Jonas put out the cigarette in his hand and sat in his seat elegantly

"Is that funny?"

from facing the problem. She could do nothing just lawyer. How can you convince me?" asked Jonas in reply. He did it on purpose. As long as it could stall for time, he would do this at any keep

have reported to the media that we are going to what was different from before released the news, but he

Jonas thought

who would do that most. 'Why is she so anxious to divorce me?

questions hovered in Jonas's mind.

also expose those photos to the media, including the ones in seemed that she was not born to table, as if she was giving some time for Jonas to think, but soon she continued, "Pure and innocent Emily was a mistress who destroyed other would happen at that time, and the smile progress very well at this time. If Jonas cared about Emily and the company, he wouldn't have let Emily be destroyed

It never occurred to him that one day Melinda would take the company's reputation to negotiate

can't you trust

had asked the question many times, but he hearing a big joke. She used to give all her heart to accuse her

"No, I can't,"

She didn't want to see her heart be messed up again. Every time she trusted him, the result would only be that she got happiness she had was temporary,

pure love, but Jonas could not afford