

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 154

"Clap." The pen fell on the desk, and the whole person of Jonas leaned back on the chair. Melinda picked up the pen on the desk and signed her name quickly.

"This is yours."

Melinda left one of them to Jonas, and then left with the other one in her hand. She didn't have any mercy on it as she walked away decisively.

With his mind preoccupied with the past, Jonas didn't notice that Melinda had left and felt dispirited in an instant.

Her luggage had already been packed up. After returning to the Gu's mansion, she went straight to find Nelson and put the divorce agreement in front of him without saying a word.

"Grandpa, take care of yourself." Nelson saw that both of them had signed their names on the agreement, so he didn't say anything more. At this time, he began to reflect on whether it was right or wrong to have them be together in a tough way.

"What's your plan?"

"I will leave here first."

Melinda didn't plan to lie to Nelson. The study was empty, and he looked lonely. They didn't talk much before Melinda left.

However, they didn't know when they would see each other again.

After Melinda left the Gu family, Jonas returned home and found that the change was not big. Melinda almost brought nothing with her.

Nelson told Yulia that Melinda and Jonas were divorced. The news came a little suddenly, but she was not surprised.

After all, their private instigation had a big effect.

The atmosphere in the Gu's mansion was not good. Everyone in the room was preoccupied with something. However, no one noticed Yulia. When Yulia returned to the bedroom, she told Emily about the news.

"Finally they are divorced," said Emily, relieved. It seemed that the hotel night was a big blow to her.

"I don't know why Jonas suddenly agreed." Yulia didn't forget that they didn't divorce because Jonas didn't agree or even avoid facing Melinda.

"Didn't you ask someone to report their divorce?" Emily was really shocked at this time. She thought that it was because Yulia finally became smart, but it turned out that Yulia was totally unaware of it.

The two of them couldn't get a result, but the process was no longer important.

Melinda had asked Kent to keep an eye on the new residence these days. After she moved out from Gu family, Kent took her to the new place.
