

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 159

Not every of Melinda's draft could be read, but there were a few copies, and the company gave a reward for this, asking others to learn from her.

At the moment, Melinda became the hottest one in the company.

"It's so difficult to see you now," Indeed, she was very busy at the moment. Seeing her good image, the company almost wanted to wrap her up as a super star writer.

"Thank you for your patronage, Mr. Cheng."

The content of her article had reached an unprecedentedly high level. The article she posted on the Internet had been cut off for a long time.

"I know you have been tired lately. I will put aside the novel. You are good at writing and have a unique insight into many aspects, Which is very rare." After a while, Victor continued.

"What do you want to say? Just say it."

She poured a glass of warm water for him. Noticing that he said he was tired, he drank it all at once.

"Well, the matter is that I'm going to ask you to write a report on the homosexuality. You know that this topic is still very controversial and the theme seems to be very attractive."

Hearing that, Melinda's face suddenly froze. She even doubted if she had heard it wrong.

"You are gay? You have been living a playful life these years just to cover up your sexual orientation. "

Her two consecutive questions made Victor green in the face.

"What are you talking about? I just said this topic is great." Hearing this, Victor flew into a rage. He could tell from her eyes that she was kind. Melinda didn't think she meant to hurt him.

"Do you agree with me or disagree with me?" Melinda asked in a serious tone. She was only shocked at the moment when she heard about that, and now she was a little embarrassed.

"I agree." As soon as he finished his words, he felt that the look in Melinda's eyes became deeper. Victor quickly said, "Don't misunderstand me. I just think that homosexuality is not wrong, and they need to be accepted by the society. They..."

When Victor noticing that he could not go on, Melinda could not help but tease him, "Mr. Cheng, you seem to understand a lot."

She really had no idea about the topic. She also knew what he had asked.

"Just so so."

Victor thought it was hard for him to explain that why he came here, so he just let it be.

"Let me have a try."

Melinda didn't have much confidence. If she had the chance, she could ask Kent for help. But now, she had something related to the homosexuality. She felt very sorry about that.
