

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 181

Without replying to Victor's message, Melinda did her job conscientiously as usual, but she paid more attention to the management of documents.

She also needed to know why the draft was the same.

There was an unscheduled meeting in the afternoon of the department, and it was Victor who was in charge. Everyone knew that the temporary meeting was held because of Melinda. As for the reason, it was hard to figure out.

Melinda was the latest one to walk into the meeting room. There were still three minutes before the meeting time. Victor sat at the head of the conference table and looked at the crowd. Melinda lowered her head with a disheveled look.

Three minutes later, the meeting began. Victor stated the opening remarks as usual. Melinda took a signature pen and scribbled on the paper.

"I believe that many people have heard the rumor recently, but I believe in Melinda. As her colleague, I also hope that everyone can give her trust. In addition, if I find that someone is discussing something related to the company during work time, I will just fire him or her!"

His tone was as gentle as the peacemaker in the front, but his following words sounded serious.

Victor's attitude remained the same as before to see if anyone dared to challenge him.

Melinda was also shocked to see that the man who had just said serious words now smile to her gently.

After a while, the meeting had come to an end and there was no need for the meeting to go on. Victor directly asked his assistant to dismiss the meeting. After he left, the meeting room was in an uproar.

But all of them were talking wildly on wechat.

After packing her personal belongings, Melinda looked down at the A4 paper on the table. She didn't know when, a person's name was wrote on the paper.

She crumpled the paper into a ball and threw it into the trash can in a guilty conscience. Then Melinda became the third person to walk out of the meeting room after Victor and his assistant.

"I've long felt that something must have happened between them. Now it seems to be true, otherwise, Mr. Cheng would not still defend her like this at this time. Doesn't he worry that his behavior will break the hearts of other employees?"

one of the employees said angrily, while the others echoed her words, firmly believing that the relationship between Melinda and Victor was shameful.

However, they all ignored one thing that Melinda was also in this group, where there were a lot of worse comments than before.

Looking at the messages in the wechat group, Melinda gave a weird smile.

After thinking for a while, Melinda came to the end of the corridor, where there was an office that had occupied half of the floor, which was Victor's office.
