

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 188

There were several documents arranged on Victor's desk, which were the ideas that he came up with. At this moment, Melinda came in and he waved to tell her to come over.

"Have a look at these plans, which one is more suitable?" Melinda looked through the documents carefully, and found that they were almost the same. She had thought that they needed to discuss with each other about a solution, but she didn't expect that Victor had quietly finished these things.

"Then just hold the press conference. But I prefer to mediate with her in private."

Melinda put her finger on a document. She was about to call for a press conference to clarify this matter, but she didn't want to make the matter too embarrassing, so she hoped that she could have a private mediation with Sandy.

Both of them would be mentally prepared.

"Melinda, I hope you know that I am on your side on this matter, but from the company's perspective, I do not agree with your decision."

Sandy was the writer of the rival company. This time, the opponent's attitude was to fight hard against Victor's company. He wouldn't revenge with kindness.

After pondering for a while, Melinda agreed with Victor. Sandy seemed to have a bad character, and if she changed her mind, the effects would be reduced a lot.

In order to deal with this kind of problem, they needed the help of people from the public relations department. Finally, Victor called the manager of public relations department here and spent the whole morning discussing the final plan.

"Okay. It's settled then. As it took a long time, we don't have much time to prepare. It's probably the day after tomorrow." The manager of public relations department reminded Melinda. She nodded to show her full cooperation.

That person left the office with the laptop without saying more. After that, Melinda also proposed to leave. The people from the public relations department were still very efficient, so in the afternoon, the news was released to Melinda that the press conference would be held tomorrow morning.

The media they invited were all familiar with their company. They knew how to deal with it. The manager was afraid that Melinda would be too nervous to speak well. He even handed a speech to Melinda.

The speech proposed by the public relations department was strict. In this way, no one would have the chance to find fault with her.

Putting aside her speech, Melinda had memorized the general content of the article. Stretching lazily, she took her nightgown and prepared to take a shower before going to bed. She had to face the media with the best appearance tomorrow.

However, Melinda was a little hesitant. After hesitation, she still called the Gu's mansion.

The person who answered the phone was Gavin. He was so careful that he had kept the phone number of Melinda in his mind. He greeted her kindly over the phone.

"Good evening, Mrs. Melinda."

Gavin, Melinda frowned, and then she

For a long time,

The phone was quietly placed aside, and he

Melinda could almost imagine how Nelson didn't speak until she was about to hang up, "Grandpa, I found evidence to clarify the plagiarism. We'll hold a press conference the Melinda felt deeply sorry for him.

hold the meeting tomorrow? Grandpa will which never changed from the beginning to the end. Touched by his strong support, Melinda said, "Grandpa, don't worry.

didn't force her. He told her something before they

with a hung up the phone, raised his head with a walking stick and saw Jonas's unchanged face in front of him. With a poor heart, he couldn't asked Jonas. Thinking of her leaving unhappily last wanted to apologize to Melinda and begged for forgiveness, clear that Jonas had been concerned about this matter, so he said it directly. But when inefficient. Even Linda had found evidence to prove herself, but he nothing about their meeting. If he knew it, he must be exasperated at Looking at his dull appearance, Nelson sighed and didn't say much. After Jonas returned to the day after tomorrow. The heat of the press conference had not completely disappeared. At this time, everyone was excited.

spreading the so, many netizens slandered Melinda. What the hell was going on that it took Melinda a long time to a word, the netizens could write several books with their strong the record in this press conference. Then Sandy's words would be became even more afraid. Obviously, Victor had nothing to a rush, Sandy couldn't help but think of Jonas,

be a piece of cake for Melinda to regain her

on her forehead, half a desert under the scorching sun and didn't know

in the position of a ruler. Now