

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 198

Feeling the movement, Jerry woke up.

Emily couldn't help smiling with satisfaction. She thought that she was so attractive to Jonas.

Before Jerry had time to make any move, Emily turned over and sat up. When their eyes met, she was stunned and froze in place.

The person in front of her wasn't Jonas! She got nervous. Jerry let out a muffled groan, and his eyes were immediately filled with haze.

Emily's struggle ended in being lost in thought.

"Who... Who are you?" asked Emily, half sober.

"You started it." As Jerry spoke, Emily did not have a chance to speak. Everything was over, and the two lay down again.

The quilt made Emily feel uncomfortable. Jerry told Emily everything about what happened last night. Emily believed everything. She didn't dare to make any trouble for Jerry, so she left in a hurry.

Thinking of what happened that night, Jerry's eyes turned red.

He placed the photo on the place where it had been, and thought to himself, 'I'm sure I'll avenge for my mother.'

The Internet was full of news about Emily and him. He was a step closer to success.

As soon as Melinda arrived at the company, she heard many people talking about the name "Emily". This name hadn't appeared in her life for a long time, but someone mentioned it and let her to pay attention to it reflexively.

"The man really looks like the CEO of Soaring Group. I must take him for that CEO if I am not careful."

"Yeah, if it weren't for the mysterious man, I would have thought he was Mr. Jonas of Soaring Group."

"No one can say for sure. Maybe he is. He might use another identity."

The crowd was talking about it. Melinda turned on the computer and searched online according to the words she just heard.

News about Emily and the mysterious man spread all over the place. Not to mention others, even Melinda was almost mistaken for the person in front of her. She thought it must be Jonas.
