

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 201

At this moment, Emily's bodyguards rushed to protect her. However, Jerry held a fork and pressed it against her artery. If he used a little more force, Emily's neck would surely bleed.

The bloody scene was frightening.

Emily was also shocked. This was completely different from what she had imagined. At this time, Jerry should be attracted by her, and her bodyguard took the opportunity to rescue Jonas

She didn't pay much attention to Jerry's order just now. She thought it was more real by doing so.

But his next move was completely off the track. Those bodyguards were no match for the strong men. They were threatened, they became weakened.

"Jerry, do you know what are you doing?" Emily looked at Jerry in a panic and asked with a trembling voice. She suddenly found that this Jerry was very different from the one she knew.

He is more sinister, vicious and as ferocious as the strong men.

"What do you mean?" Emily asked in a low voice, but Jerry held the fork even tighter. She panicked and asked the bodyguards to step back.

"I'm sorry. I want to take my revenge."

Jerry said in a low voice, and ignored Emily who was struggling. He asked his man to take Jonas and Emily to the place he had prepared in advance. That was a real dark room, only a very high place, with a small window.

Jonas was thrown to the ground. The expensive suit cloth rubbed against the floor and tore up. He didn't blink his eyes, just paying attention to his surroundings.

"Jerry, you can't do that. Aren't you going to be famous? You will only destroy yourself if you keep doing that. " Emily tried to persuade him, but Jerry stayed calm. Looking at Jonas who was left behind by them, he stepped forward and kicked him hard. Seeming to be dissatisfied, Jerry grabbed Jonas and punched him hard.

Seeing this, Emily couldn't bear to close her eyes, and ran over to grab Jerry's hand and begged, "Jerry, please don't hit him. I beg you not to hit him. Something bad will happen."

Jonas was such a person of high status, if there was an accident, Nelson would definitely get angry, not only Jerry, but also herself wouldn't get away with it.

Emily finally knew what it meant by bringing a wolf into her house.

"He got into trouble. I'd like to see who could save him now." Jerry did not care about it at all and even said arrogantly. Then he reached out and pushed Emily away with a strong force, thinking that women were really troublesome.

Thinking of this, Jerry pointed to two strong men and told them to drive Emily away and leave him alone.

Jonas and Jerry looked at each other for no reason, making Jerry feel that he was disgraced. Thinking of this, his hand was more violent.

"Aren't you very arrogant?" As Jerry spoke, he threw another punch at Jonas who curled up in pain and groaned.
