

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 206

"Come on, let's go. She has already driven away, but you are still looking at her," Nelson joked behind Jonas. Jonas felt a little embarrassed, but pleased instead.

"Grandpa, let me accompany you back."

After the car disappeared at the intersection, Jonas turned to look at his grandfather, who wore a Chinese tunic suit and stood there in high spirits. Although holding a stick, he didn't damage the vigor of his body.

He had gray hair with mustache, looking like the Lu Xun in the paintings, elegantly and fierce.

He looked very wise.

Actually, most of the time, his crutch was just a decoration. Nelson always believed that people should do what they should do at their ages.

For example, he was old now and it was time for him to wear glasses and hold a crutch.

But he didn't want to be an old man, and he would keep himself young.

"Accompany me? Do you want to go somewhere else?" Nelson cast a sidelong glance at Jonas and walked up to him. The driver had already opened the car door, and with one hand on the roof of the car, he protected Nelson to get in the car.

Jonas got in the car later, but at the thought of his unintentional question, he answered seriously, "I have something to deal with later."

"Tell your mother about it."

Nelson also thought that men shouldn't be so weak, so he felt it was almost appropriate for Jonas to have a rest for a few days. But Queena was so worried about him.

Jonas also felt headache, but today he had to deal with it as soon as possible to avoid a long delay.

Back home, Nelson was a little tired, so he went to rest directly, while Queena forced Jonas to drink another bowl of soup.

"Mommy, I have something to do at night. I'll be back soon."

"No way."

Just then, Queena rejected him determinedly, and without any doubt, she wouldn't have agreed Jonas to go out today if it wasn't for the sake of Nelson.

"Mommy, it's urgent."

Massaging his head, Jonas was in a bit of trouble. His mother was stubborn, and his body had been all right long ago, but his mother had not recovered from the initial illness, which was not a good sign.
