

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 209

The post Emily posted was simple, showing her thanks to a lot of support from fans and concern.

She was taken aback by the kidnap, so she had to stand out to talk about it until now. Since Jonas had taken good care of her, she had always relied on him.

Speaking of this, Emily began to talk about the things happened in their childhood, but at last, she dropped the bomb, saying that they had decided to get married in a few days, and please the public blessed them.

She had already been preparing to pave the way for her career as an actress. Once the Weibo article was released, it was unexpectedly proven that Emily had whitewashed herself quickly.

And she had achieved her purpose of annoying Melinda. Now that Melinda was pregnant, Jonas had forbidden her to play cellphones and be in touch with those electronic products in a very careful way.

However, the TV in the ward was on. Bored as Melinda was, she turned the channel.

Jonas focused on peeling an apple. When he heard the sound on the TV, he looked at the TV in surprise. There were a lot of pictures of Emily and the post on Weibo. Melinda's fingers on the remote control began to tremble.

She had thought that nothing would happen between them, but she didn't expect that she would be slapped so fast that she was awake in an instant.

"Linda, the news is all fake. I have told you about the kidnapping. Please believe me." As soon as this happened, the first thing that occurred to Jonas was to explain to Melinda. The doctor had said that Melinda shouldn't be emotionally excited at this moment.

Hearing that, Melinda could not help but tighten her fingers, which were holding the remote controller. The smile on her face faded away, and her pretty face was full of curiosity.

She knew all these things, but why did Emily send such a message? There must be a reason.

Melinda didn't neglect the panic in her heart. Thinking of Jonas and Emily's marriage, she couldn't accept it.

Obviously, this should not be her real wish. Wasn't it her wish to let Emily be with Jonas so that she would give up completely? Why did all these change at this time?

Was it because of the baby in her belly? Melinda touched her belly unconsciously. The baby came at a bad time.

"Linda, I'll take care of it. Just stay here and have a rest, okay?"

Half kneeling on the ground, Jonas looked expectant, which made people feel as if it was a crime to refuse him, so Melinda nodded.

She would just ignore all these troubles.

Now there was nothing more important than the baby.

arranged a nurse and a servant to take care of her. Seeing this, people in he had solved everything, but he

Emily was quite happy at home, browsing looked forward to the expression stream of traffic behind him, Jonas felt a little annoyed. It was rush hour now and there was a traffic announcer was talking about the incident that Emily had posted on the Weibo calm down. He calmed call from the PR Department of Soaring Group. They were all confused about how to deal with this matter as why they knew nothing that their boss was about to get married.

been attacked by the netizens, saying various of it as soon as possible," said Jonas. If the Soaring Group stepped out for this matter, the netizens would be more explanation." The manager of the public relations department hesitated for that most of the people here were incited by Aron want to meddle in my private affairs? Ask William to show the company's performance him and the manager of the public relations department was choked up, not daring to asked him to deliver the message on purpose, because he knew that boss would get mad worried, he wasn't able to take care of himself.

o'clock. Emily had ordered food online.

released her hand from the doorknob and she had posted that article, Jonas would definitely come to her, but she you understand what I said? What does stayed in hell

made this decision, she had never thought that Jonas would be so angry. She was scared stammered, "I...

you want to die, I can

news, she looked

Melinda. However, the breaking down a madman and Jonas so much that she wanted to possess him. That was why she had had nothing now, so on the ground, murmuring, "I just like knew it

realized that arguing with