

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 212

Jonas rushed to the hospital, but when he arrived at the floor where Melinda was, his feet slowed down a lot.

He remembered clearly that Gavin had said in the message that Melinda was resting.

Jonas opened the door and came in. The caregiver was reading the medical knowledge on the sofa aside. Seeing that Jonas walked into the ward, the caregiver quickly stood up from the chair and he made a gesture for her to be quiet.

The caregiver smiled with understanding and pointed to the place where Melinda was. She told him that she had fallen asleep.

She was entirely enclosed in the quilt, like an annoyed child. Jonas did not know whether her breathing would be uncomfortable or not. When he walked over and wanted to help her open a gap, he found that Melinda clutched the quilt as if she was holding a life-saving thing.

He just sat quietly by the bed.

The caregiver was observant. Seeing that Jonas sat by the bed, she left the ward silently and there were only the two people left in the quiet ward.

"Linda, what should I do to make you understand me?" Finally, with a strong force, Jonas moved the quilt covering Melinda's head with his rough hands and held her fingers.

His strength was very light, but Melinda's hand could completely be held in his own.

In the middle of the rest, the doctor came to check Melinda. When he saw Jonas by her side and specially mentioned the emotions of pregnant women.

The doctor dared. Other doctors dared not to poke the wounds of Jonas. It was just that Jonas could not get angry and left quietly.

After Jonas left, the caregiver woke up Melinda. She got the checking of the doctor. It was a little complicated, but she was not a little impatient.

"You have recovered well, but your body is too weak. You still have to take good care of yourself." The doctor was packing up his stuffs as he said to Melinda. This was the baby of Gu family. Couldn't they be more careful?

"Remember, mood is the most important." Before leaving, the doctor did not forget to remind her. Melinda licked her lips and forced a smile. She knew better than anyone else that she had a knot in her heart and she was thinking too much.

And she was very tired.

"I'll take care of myself. Thank you, doctor."

Melinda didn't sleep well, but she knew that she wouldn't be able to fall asleep if she didn't wake up and walk.

Thinking of Jonas's press conference, in which he had made Emily embarrassed in front of a lot of people, she was a little curious about the situation on the Internet.
