

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 216

Melinda was the sort of person who didn't like to share her moments with others. Now she suddenly posted something in the moments, and it was a kind of showing love. All of them couldn't help but think carefully.

Among them, there were Yulia and Emily.

Being hit again and again, Emily was completely lost in home. Melinda was in a good mood and recovered soon. After resting in the hospital for a long time, she finally got the doctor's approval to leave the hospital.

"Although you are discharged from the hospital, you still need to be more careful. If you don't want to go back to the Gu's mansion, you can ask two people to come here to look after you. You can't refuse it."

"Your home is small. I rent the opposite one, and the servants live there. If you need anything, just let them know."

Melinda was going to pack up some things, but Jonas had arranged them all. As long as she was back home, she didn't need to worry about anything else.

"You are just discharged from the hospital. Don't hurry to go back to work. Just stay at home and have a good rest." Jonas could not fully concentrate on his work now, and he was worried that Melinda could not take good care of herself alone. If Melinda nodded, he would definitely move here to look after her.

He had to handle the company's affairs, otherwise he wished to protect her 24/7.

"I have told you many times that I can take care of myself. Don't worry about me," Melinda said helplessly. She could not bear to see the black circles around Jonas's eyes.

He had been running on both the company and the hospital and lost a lot of weight, but he was in good spirit compared with before.

"Well, I believe you."

Although Jonas said so, he still acted in his own way.

After staying in hospital for a few days, Melinda felt her body soft. When she got home, she preferred to take a walk in the garden downstairs.

Melinda arranged a hanging chair in the position for nourishing the fetus. She liked reading or watching news on that chair at dusk.

"Mrs. Jonas, your cell phone is ringing."

The servant ran out of the living room, with her mobile phone in one hand and the spatula in the other. It was a strange number.

"Thank you." Melinda took the cellphone from her. After hesitating for a few seconds, she slid the screen to pick up the phone.

"Hello, is that Melinda Mo? I'm Greyson."

The name stayed on her mind for a long time before Melinda realized that it was the monitor's name when she was in college. They had never contacted since graduation, and she didn't know how the man found her number.

"Monitor."
