

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 225

Kent was still worried when he returned home. He was afraid that Emily would use other means.

Emily was waiting for the good news at home, but it turned out to be Kent's call.

"Emily Bai, what do you want from Mellie that you ask her out today?" questioned by Kent angrily. Emily was stunned for a while, and then she realized that it was Kent.

She had suffered a great loss in the hands of Kent, so she was deeply impressed.

"I don't know what you are talking about." Emily was a little worried. Logically, no one should know that she asked Melinda out. But why did Kent call her? Had something happened to Melinda!

She was pleasantly surprised, but she was also confused. If there was something wrong with Melinda, why did Kent speak in such a tone?

Or, he was in no mood to call anyone else?

"Don't try to do something to Mellie, or I will make you regret." Kent now felt a little regretful for having let go of Emily last time.

But the evidence was still in his hands, and Emily was also afraid of the evidences in his hands.

Although she was utterly discredited, what Kent got about her could put her into jail.

"Today, I just want to talk with Melinda about Jonas. I don't have any plan. I have been waiting in the coffee shop for a long time."

Emily maintained calm so that Kent would not discover her scheme. And she showed a trace of fear on purpose. She had been waiting in the coffee shop for a long time, but she did not dare to ask Melinda.

Kent snorted coldly and hung up.

Emily's eyes were blazing with anger. She stared at the phone and thought, 'You'd better wish that I don't have any proof in my hand, otherwise, I will make you pay for it!'

"What's wrong?" Jerry had been waiting for the result of the matter beside Emily. Seeing that Emily was not happy at all, he guessed that something might have happened.

"Our plan failed. That bitch didn't go to the coffee shop," Emily said angrily. Their plan which had been prepared for a long time was easily ruined by Kent.

All her illusions were shattered in an instant.

"Haven't you reached an agreement with each other?"

"How would I know?"

Jerry's agitated questioning annoyed Emily. The things didn't go well and she was threatened by Kent. There was not a good thing.

In the Soaring Group, when Jonas came back from outside, he heard many people talking about the event that Melinda and Kent appeared in the grand pagoda, and how they behaved intimately.

William closed his eyes, feeling that he was about to explode when he heard that.

If Jonas was angry, he would never forgive those people around him. And he would be the first one.

talking when they saw Jonas return to the company. William secretly their bonus for the next three months

arrange the meeting in advance boss be at rage after entering the office?

to keep himself safe, William was so quick that there tried to remind himself to calm down and figure things out in a general way. There must be office, grasping the cellphone tightly in threw his suit

must have reasons behind this. It

Melinda run so far away to

Her face was rather bad and she was basically at home when resting. It was really abnormal

but dial Melinda's seconds. The sound hit

"Hello."

"Linda, are you asleep?"

just woke up. It could almost be imagined for Jonas that she was in

was like a little

I'm a little sleepy." Melinda yawned. After returning home, she wrote a lot of manuscript. She habitually read a go to the grand pagoda

that he would be suffocated if he didn't ask, and he was aware of something from their true emotions, caused

Emily made an appointment sincere, Melinda decided to tell him the truth. With what Kent said, she thought it was necessary are you going to see her? Just ignore her from now on. Got it?" The point of Jonas was suddenly changed, reminding Melinda trap set by Emily. Melinda no confidence in his wife, but senior, I would have gone there without his warning. He sent me that Jonas remembered that. He would almost forget that if Melinda did not bring it up.

time. You know, Kent is very busy. Don't bother him all the time." Jonas was whole thing to Kent and didn't tell

as he knew that Melinda trusted him since was too jealous to enjoy it.

by accident

Jonas's tone and just told overwhelmed with jealousy, and Kent was like a thorn in his heart. "Senior? You address him so intimately," said hint that Melinda should Jon, he would reality was not that wonderful. Instead of calling him Jon just felt confused. She had called Kent senior for so many times, not just for one day or two days. Jonas always wanted to make himself sad.

at the phone in disbelief, showing that it had been hung up by the door in and informed the process, only