

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 236

Kent had been doing well in the past two years. He had bought a house in A City for his parents. Although the house was not very large, it enjoys a good geographical location and it was convenient.

Kent's mother was not used to living in this big city at the beginning, but she accepted to live in this big city gradually.

Every day, she got up early and went to the supermarket nearby to buy food. She would prepare the breakfast by herself occasionally, and sometimes she would go out to for dinner.

As usual, she went home directly with two deep fried dough sticks in her hand after buying vegetables. Her husband had been nagging about the fried dough sticks near the gate of the community these days. Today when she saw them, she brought two back.

"Oh, you finally opened the door. I've been waiting for you for a long time. Do you know a big gossip I've heard recently?" Seeing Janet got close, Ted banged on the door. Once the door opened, he said with excitement.

Gossips were people's favorite things.

Janet slowed down when she heard him. She wanted to know what kind of gossip they were talking about.

"What kind of gossip is it that makes you so excited?" One of the neighbors of Kent's mother said to him with a careless look.

"As I remember, your neighbor is called Kent, right?" A mysterious smile crept up on Ted's face. As soon as she heard that it was about her son, Janet paid more attention to their conversation.

"Yes. What's wrong? It is so mysterious." The two of them were about to push each other and enter the room. Janet was a little worried that she couldn't hear what they were talking about.

But how could Ted let her not hear what he said? In the end, Ted said to the man, "I heard that he was dating a pregnant woman called Melinda. What's more, the baby is not his. How amazing it is!"

"What? I have never heard of it." The neighbor said in surprise and looked at the door of the opposite house meaningfully. Then she happened to see Janet. Upon seeing this, they quickly ran into the room and closed the door.

They acted so fast as if they had been hurt, as if she had been caught doing bad things.

After Janet came to herself, she felt so humiliated. Nothing comes out of nowhere. She was sure that what happened today was true.

This name was not strange to his family. It was the woman his son long for, and it was also because of her that his son gave up such a good daughter-in-law.

Janet never thought that this woman was so shameless. She even seduced her son when she had a child. She was totally irritated and wanted to burn Melinda to death.

At the same time, in the room opposite the door of Kent's house.

"Bro, you are a good actor." The neighbor took the money in his hand and counted it happily. He didn't expect that he could get so much money for playing like this. It was almost half a year's salary of him.

"It's all because you have cooperated well. All right, I've finished it and I'm leaving now. Don't forget what I've told you."
