

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 238

"Jonas, don't make yourself so noble. Test Kent? Do you think you're qualified?"

If it weren't for the manner, she would have pointed at Jonas and hurled insults at him. In her eyes, Jonas was the person who hurt her most in a relationship.

But it was also this man who was accusing others of their affection for her.

"Why am I not qualified?"

Melinda was about to lose control of her emotions. But Jonas was unusually calm. He neither accepted her blames nor refuted her. He just silently told the truth that he felt.

"Linda, just come and test me. Then you will find out who loves you the most,"

said Jonas. He was even looking forward to seeing such a scene that let Linda test him, which meant that she was willing to give him a chance.

This time, he would not let Linda down.

Looking at Jonas, Melinda was so angry that she laughed out loud. She mocked, "Okay, I will test you.

"Mr. Jonas, I hope you are not as impatient as before."

All of her shadows were too painful to look back. She thought a lot of times to test Jonas and only to prove herself a joke many times.

She had even expected that Emily would appear in less than three days, and Jonas would have forgotten what they had said today.

"Linda, I hope you have some confidence in me,"

Jonas said in a soft voice and walked up to her. He wanted to hug Melinda, but was dodged by her. "Can you leave now?" she asked, looking at him impassively.

Melinda was a little tired. The feeling of exhaustion overwhelmed her again.

Jonas pursed her lips and restrained the words he wanted to say to Melinda in his heart. He forced a smile.

"Have a good rest,"

said Jonas. He turned around and left with disappointment. He seldom showed any facial expression, so even if he was unhappy or disappointed, Melinda couldn't figure it out.

But Melinda could feel that Jonas was in a bad mood. She hated her understanding of him.

Since Jonas left, he had been encouraging himself. At least, Linda was not with Kent now, and she was willing to give him a chance. It was a great change.

When Jonas returned home, Nelson was drinking tea in the living room. Seeing him, he asked in a hurry, "Have you figured out what happened between Linda and Kent? How is your relationship with her going?"
