

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 243

"Mr. Cheng, please watch your mouth!"

Melinda was not kidding at all. She thought that since they were in the company, she should keep a good relationship with her subordinate and get along with each other as friends outside the company.

Maybe she could stop them from gossiping about her.

"Don't pay attention to gossips in the company. If you get angry, you will get wrinkles."

Victor's unremitting comfort to Melinda made the employees jealous of his gentleness. How can they said that they are ordinary friends?

"Mr. Cheng, it's working time now. If you don't have anything important, please don't disturb my work. Thank you."

Melinda showed a cold face to him, which made him look a little bit awkward. But finally he controlled himself.

"Okay, I'm Not going to bother you, but you have to know that it's not worth to be angry with those big mouth women."

He then left the Department quickly, but their relationship had once again become the gossip in the company.

A topic 'Mr. Cheng's favorite woman, Melinda' appeared.

She was down in mood because of this for the whole day. When Jonas came to pick her up in the evening, he felt something wrong with her.

"What's wrong? Are you tired?" Recently, she had never been down in mood like this, which worried him a lot because the doctor had said that he should pay more attention to Melinda when she was like this.

If she didn't get happy, it was easy for her to be depressed if she kept such a condition.

"Nothing." Melinda didn't want to say more. She leaned against the back of the seat and thought in a daze. Out of options, Jonas assigned Ted another task.

She was unhappy after she arrived at the company.

In the Jiang family's house, Kent's mother showed a lot of photos of girls again, which happened a lot in her family recently.

"This is Mrs. Wang's daughter. She graduated from B City two years ago and is going to find someone and marry him. She is a good girl and she works hard. The point is that she is a virgin."

Janet said. In her eyes, Melinda was just a bad woman. No one could get rid of her.

"You can arrange that."

Kent said indifferently. He had seen a lot of girls these days, but he didn't pay attention to them.

Janet looked worried, but she was persevering. As long as she was keeping doing it. Her son would fall in love another girl and forget that woman sooner or later.
