

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 246

"Did you prepare all these?"

"Although the dishes are not as delicate as those in a five-star hotel, they are very tempting. So, I still can't believe it."

In Jonas's eyes, any dish made by her would be the most delicious in the world.

"Yes, you are right."

Melinda was very proud. She felt that she was a good wife and a good mother. She was full of pride to have prepared so much in the morning.

Although she had suffered a lot while preparing those stuff.

Vern didn't want to disturb their harmonious atmosphere, so he went downstairs without saying anything. He thought he'd better enjoy his daughter's breakfast for the next time.

"I have also prepared lunch materials for you. Remember to come here for lunch later. No matter how busy you are, you have to come."

Said Melinda. He was amused at the same time. Thinking of the terror that the servant had just called, he sighed in his heart.

Seeing she was so excited that he forgot to tell the servant that he found her.

After hanging up the phone, Jonas came back to the dining room. Sitting at the dining table, Melinda was busy cooking. Although her lower abdomen wasn't very obvious, she still worried him.

"Just sit here."

With that, she sat down. Due to her pregnancy reaction, she always ate light food. What she liked most were plain rice porridge and pickles.

The rest were prepared by Jonas.

A man's appetite would be bigger, and since Jonas was so busy every day, he must eat more. This was what Melinda thought.

"Does it taste good?" Melinda looked at Jonas expectantly and waited for his answer, and Jonas nodded without saying anything.

She could still feel that he was a little angry, and suddenly became flustered, not knowing what to do.

"I can cook for you every day as long as you are not angry." Thinking of getting up so early every day, Melinda felt a little bit painful, but it was enough as long as Jonas didn't get angry.

After saying that, she yawned a little sleepily. Seeing that, Jonas felt sorry for her. In this moment, all his anger was disappeared.

"Silly girl." When he said, he was not alone sitting at the table for breakfast. Instead, he was taking care of Melinda. Seeing this, her smile grew brighter.

"Jonas, Victor and I are just superior and subordinate." She felt that it was necessary to explain that. She was very experienced with mental block.

Jonas asked. He was a little taken aback by
