

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 250

Jonas really let Queena have a look at the day as he said to Melinda. In the end, it was decided on weekend, a good day with nothing to be worried about.

Although Melinda moved back to the Gu's mansion, she did not plan to empty up the house here. Most of the things were left in the place, just as what Queena said that everything was ready in the Gu's mansion, so she didn't have many things with her.

Melinda moved back to the Gu's mansion. Queena didn't agree to let them live in a small villa this time, and cleaned up the room in the house of Jonas, leaving it to be arranged by Jonas.

As for Jonas, he was a simple and rough man who demanded the best in everything. His woman deserved this treatment.

They had checked in a few times before, so it was quite busy this time. Queena was busy, and the whole Gu's mansion gave a completely new impression.

These two days Nelson was very happy. The whole person looked with a lot of spirits.

The entire Gu's mansion had been busy for three days in total. Looking at it, Nelson was very happy.

"Now it looks like home."

Queena had changed a lot of furniture, and the lights were also changed. The color of home was not simple, luxurious and cold any more.

This Gu's mansion was full of warmth.

"When Mellie moves in, our family will be complete," Queena said happily. She had been expecting this day for a long time.

It was fate that Melinda and Gu family became a family in the end.

"Ask Vern to come here tomorrow. Jonas's going to propose his daughter, so he should be a witness. It's a pity that Leonard can't make it," Nelson sighed. Leonard spent most of his time in the countryside and liked that kind of peaceful life.

In A City, her father was Melinda's only family member left.

"I'll pick him up tomorrow." Jonas took the initiative, and Queena and Nelson had no objection. Everyone was looking forward to the arrival of this weekend.

Hearing that Melinda was willing to let go of the past and return to the Gu's mansion, and that Jonas was going to propose to his daughter, Vern was very happy. So he followed Jonas to the Gu's mansion without hesitation.

The room Queena arranged for him was in the main villa, fully showing her care to Melinda.

Though Melinda married in the Gu family for a long time, Melinda's family seldom came to visit here. Looking at the Gu's mansion, Vern felt it strange.

Nelson was very happy to see him, and it was not boring to have a topic with him.

At the same time, the chaos in the Gu's mansion these days attracted the attention of some people, one of whom was Jerry.
