

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 252

The Gu's mansion was in chaos. Jonas carried Queena to the hospital. Nelson sighed while asking people to drive Emily and Jerry out.

When he looked at Jerry, his eyes were very complicated.

Even though Jerry's words were very extreme, he did not say anything wrong. He was the child of the Gu family, and this family belonged to him.

What's more, it was his disappointing son who made all these tragedies.

Nelson sighed deeply again. He turned around and saw that Melinda was still sitting on the sofa like a puppet.

"Kid, I am sorry to let you witness all these jokes." Nelson came to the side of Melinda and said. His sad face made Melinda very distressed.

There were not many happy things in Nelson's life. Most of the time, he was serious. Today, he finally had a happy moment, but it turned out to be such a mess.

The decoration of the living room was romantic and luxurious, and the fragrance of champagne roses was still filled with the nose, but everything that had been planned was destroyed.

Jonas's ring was ready, and even hidden in a place next to Melinda. The celebration cake in the kitchen had been prepared beforehand, and there was no chance for it to show up at this moment.

All of a sudden, this had turned into a joke.

Thinking of Jonas's anxious look, and Queena's sudden faint, Melinda felt her heart constricted and a pain came from her lower abdomen.

"Grandpa, everything will be fine. Don't worry too much," Melinda comforted him. Vern stood still and watched the whole process. He was deeply shocked by all these things.

"Ah, I'm fine. It's just that I feel sad for Jonas," Nelson said, he had seen so many things in his life, it was impossible for him to be easily knocked down.

On the contrary, Jonas, the carefully planned proposal was gone. His mother was being sent to the hospital for rescue. Everyone who knew him well knew that he would never let off Emily and Jerry easily.

"Gavin, take grandpa to the bedroom for a rest," Melinda said to Gavin. Nelson didn't refuse. He nodded, looked at everything in the living room and sighed deeply.

"Daughter, let's go home."

Vern didn't say anything except a question from the beginning to the end. Now there were only the father and the daughter left in the living room. Melinda looked a little pale.

What had happened just now was too shocking for her, but the actions of Jerry and the faint of Queena still frightened her. The baby in her belly was intuitively felt.

The fetus was alerted. Due to the uncomfortable abdomen, Melinda knew that she had hurt the fetus. Therefore, she didn't move when Jonas had left.
