

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 255

"Linda,"

Jonas called her again, and there was already a hint of anger in his voice. Melinda finally raised her head. Seeing his sullen face, she was a little afraid.

"Good girl, go to sleep, okay?" Melinda looked a little bit grievous. Seeing this, Jonas felt helpless in an instant. He touched her head and said in a soft voice.

Melinda glanced at the novel and Jonas hesitantly, without saying anything for a long time.

"You just have an appointment tomorrow and the contract is not signed yet. What's more, you have set the characters. So it's useless to change the outline now. You should go to sleep now," said Jonas, thinking about whether his decision was right or wrong.

"You make sense."

Hearing what he said, Melinda felt that what Jonas said was right. Thinking of that she had revised it for a long time, she once again doubted that how much her IQ had been reduced after she was pregnant.

"Of course I am right. You are too stubborn. Even if you don't worry about yourself now, you should at least think about our baby."

As he said, Jonas put his big palm on Melinda's belly. It was a simple move that shocked him greatly, as if he could take a step closer to the baby.

After a long time, Melinda finally compromised. She yawned sleepily and leaned herself on Jonas.

"I'm so sleepy," Melinda mumbled. Just now, she did force herself too much. Jonas held her tightly. Then he directly carried her to the bedroom.

As soon as Melinda touched the bed, she turned over and she also rolled up the quilt. Jonas then went to the kitchen to prepare a cup of maternity milk for her.

"Drink it before you go to sleep."

Melinda was so sleepy that she could not open her eyes. In the end, the milk was fed to her by Jonas.

After she fell asleep, Jonas left a bedside lamp. Looking at her sleeping face and thinking of her stubborn look just now, he could not help but smile.

"How could you take care of yourself and our baby like this?"

Then Jonas bent over and left a gentle kiss on Melinda's forehead, and went to the study next door.

The computer was not turned off, and the screen displayed the novel of Melinda.

Although Melinda was a little famous, her popularity was not enough to attract the attention of the famous directors like Elmer.
