

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 268

Jerry felt that he had a hallucination, and then he understood with a smile and thought that this was the style of Emily.

She lived in her own world forever.

"How long will you deceive yourself?" Jerry said in a sarcastic tone. Anyone with a discerning eye now could tell that the person that Jonas loved in his heart was called Melinda.

Emily was just a pathetic person.

"You don't understand," Emily said with a smile. She no longer persuaded Jerry to change his mind, so she left the house of Jerry automatically.

No one could understand the feelings in her heart. The feeling of being pampered was addicting. When she was immersed, the person freed himself and told her that it was all fake.

Everything was so real, how could it be fake? He must be confused.

Emily thought, as long as she was still sober, she could take him back, but everyone told her that she was the person in the void.

For a moment, it denied everything about her.

She walked on the street in a daze.

Nelson was finally persuaded to wait for Melinda in the room. Two people in the hospital did a series of inspection before going home.

The doctor had warned Melinda to be careful. She could easily miscarry due to her poor health.

Melinda was very clear that this was the sequel of her miscarriage.

Seeing that Melinda had been worrying about it, Jonas held her hand tightly. "Don't worry, the baby will be okay. Take good care of yourself when you get home."

Melinda's physical conditions were well known to Jonas. He had been surprised to learn that she was pregnant, because the doctor had said that there was a very small chance for her to get pregnant.

"Nothing. I just like to think too much." She forced a smile without a look at Jonas. Since she was pregnant with Jonny's child, she had been living in her worries.

On the other hand, she was extremely worried about Emily showing up in front of her. When she saw Emily, she always lost her cool. She warned herself over and over again, but it didn't work.

If one asked Melinda when she would feel the happiest time, she would probably think it was during the college time when she foolishly chased after Jonas. As long as he looked back at her, she would smile happily.

The simple love, the kind of bitterness, made her feel alive.
