

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 269

Queena's skeptical attitude and words upset Melinda. Melinda felt uncomfortable in Gu's mansion.

Melinda's evasive behavior only enhanced the doubt in Queena's heart. It seemed that there were thousands of words in what they talked. Melinda said it very clearly, but Queena still believed in what Emily said.

This made her feel very irritated, and it was also a kind of fret that she had nowhere to vent.

Melinda didn't want to start a fight as soon as she came back, but her emotion was greatly affected, and she looked depressed for the next few days.

Noticing that, Jonas was worried. When he went back home and saw that Melinda was in a daze again, she couldn't help but ask, "Linda, what's wrong with you these days? Are you uncomfortable staying at home?"

"No, I didn't."

Her subconsciously answer. She was actually very uncomfortable, which made her feel very depressed, but she didn't him the reason.

Queena's suspicion was the greatest insult to Melinda.

"Can I take you out for a walk when I'm free?" In Jonas's view, it was boring to stay at home alone for a long time. In the past, if she had told that she can go out to have fun, she would have been a little interested in it.

But she was still wearing a blank face.

It could be said that she had no response to his words. Jonas looked at her suspiciously, and then Jonas helplessly found that Melinda was absent-minded again.

Seeing that, Jonas was very worried. He had asked her why she looked like this for several times, but he could not figure out what had happened at all.

He started to make a wild guess and couldn't figure out the reason.

Queena's question came to Melinda's mind. 'A few days ago, she was still nice, or she asked me in a roundabout way, but now she doubted the child in my womb publicly.'

Melinda explained that Queena doubted that it was not Jonas's baby, but she didn't explain that Queena thought she was guilty, and Queena were getting more and more strange these days for Melinda.

Melinda even supposed that the baby in her womb would be destroyed the next second by Queena.

Not knowing the reason, finally Jonas asked his mother.

Queenena was not in good mood recently. She seemed preoccupied, and Jonas gave a little surprise when he came to her.

"Mommy, are you busy now?"

the drawing room of Queenena. She held the brush in her hand, but it didn't leave a mark on Her mood was very complicated these days. On the one hand, she told herself not to believe what Emily said; on the other was certain that it was not happened, it would have a negative impact on Jonas and Melinda if she just told him what in that there's something wrong with Linda these days. Since Jonas worked in the company for a long time, he wasn't sure if it was the case or not, so he asked her more worried he was, the more he had knew better than anyone why Melinda was down in mother's words, but he couldn't find what in the past two days, he felt that Melinda didn't look good at all. "Really? But I found that she was often absent-minded these two days when I came back. It's when he was away? But it shouldn't be. When he was at home, Linda still acted was a subtle feeling. But he really felt that his mood was not." Queenena said in a cold tone. It seemed that she had know nothing about to speak it out.

say it. Don't hide your true feelings and mother, Jonas felt that this must have something long time before. Why couldn't she get pregnant? Did you have an examination?" Queena asked. He did not know why she brought up this topic, but still concealed the depends on fate. We were there was not much chance of being on birth control between them. There must be a hidden reason for this. Was there something wrong with what do you want to say?" He didn't understand why happened next proved his long, but she was pregnant became heavier, and even called Melinda's full Melinda's abnormal behavior during this front of him were said with bravado, "I just said the Jonny thought his mother must be crazy for such a long time. Every time he thought of this, his heart ached.

Queenena said indifferently. Recently, she had asked Melinda about it every day, as if Melinda is? Who said these words to you? " Jonas sighed. He felt angry with his mother for while. If not the gossip here, how could his mother think of tried hard to suppress the anger in his heart and asked, "is it