

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 271

The family all felt sorry for Melinda. The young man told Jonas that she had a conflict with someone and that was why she fell down.

At that time, he stood quite far away, and he didn't know exactly what the person looked like. He only knew that it was a woman, tall and thin.

Jonas thought of Emily in an instant.

No one could have a conflict with Melinda except for Emily.

At the same time, Emily, who left in a hurry, could not help but feel scared after the accident. However, she also began to inquire about the news about Melinda, and was very happy to know that she had a miscarriage.

She completely forgot about the fear she had experienced these days.

After Melinda's miscarriage, she became even more silent, and there were few words spoken all the day. Queena and Nelson couldn't ask any more questions.

The servants in the Gu's mansion had to make full use of every means for Melinda. No matter how busy Jonas was in the company, he had to stay in the hospital to take care of her personally.

The death of the baby made the whole family fall into a heavy atmosphere, especially Melinda, who was often in a trance.

She took all the blame on herself. If she hadn't been so self-willed, nothing would have happened, and Emily wouldn't have succeeded.

She promised that she would protect the baby well, but in the end she lost her.

Maybe she was a mom who didn't deserve to have a baby, so they left one by one.

She was getting more and more insensitive to the outside world. Most of the time, she just acted like a puppet, doing anything others told her to do.

Jonas was scared when he realized it. He asked the doctor and the doctor only said that her condition was normal and asked her family to accompany and comfort her.

Melinda could only be discharged from the hospital after staying in hospital for a week. The elderly said that miscarriage was like sitting on the bed to a month after the baby was born and she needed to be taken good care of.

She was arranged in an apartment like ward, and two servants were arranged to take care of her from home. Queena often came to the hospital to take care of her, but Jonas was still worried about her, so he had to do everything in person.

But he was not a man of iron. Even if Jonas was a man of iron, he would be tired too. Moreover, losing a child would not only make Melinda suffer, but also make him suffer.

But he concealed all this with his strong indifference. He still had to protect Melinda. If he was defeated, what would she do?
