

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 276

Jonas never expected that Melinda's condition would deteriorate. He had thought that everything was going well, but it seemed that she was actually getting worse.

She was so upset about the miscarriage that she thought she had only one person in her world, and it was Jonas. So she was worried that Jonas would leave her behind, and was eager to have him.

All in all, Melinda was so worried because Jonas didn't accompany her when she was in the most critical period.

Jonas felt very guilty, and also said that he and Melinda would not come to the class for the time being. As for what would happen in the future, he would talk about it later.

The female teacher suggested that if Jonas had time, he could take Melinda out for a walk.

Melinda lost her first child in Gu's mansion, so she might also have the resistance to Gu's mansion now.

The Soaring Group not only competed fiercely with outside companies, but also internal strife had never been stopped. Every day, Jonas was worried about whether Aron would screw it up again.

If he wanted to travel for a long time, he needed a substitute for him to do these things. Nelson had been ill several times and was unable to cope with these things.

But now, Melinda was also in dangerous situation. Mental disease was often the most unpredictable. He was afraid of what happened last time.

Due to what had happened in class, Melinda had been depressed all the time. When she returned home, she became quiet again. Looking at her, Jonas was worried and mentioned her situation to Nelson.

"I want to hand over some of the company's affairs to Ted. If he meets difficulties, he can ask for your help. What do you think?"

Jonas had discussed with Nelson. He couldn't transfer all the power to Ted, but it would be difficult for Ted to do something. With Nelson's support, it would be much better.

"Are you sure you trust this man?" Nelson was always in favor of William and he was not familiar with the person who was promoted by Jonas. Therefore, he was on his guard.

"If you doubt someone, don't use him, and if you use someone, don't doubt him. You told me so, right? Besides, William will take care of the company. I won't get any trouble."

Jonas knew what was in Nelson's mind, so he pushed out William, the secretary that his grandpa trusted. His expression softened a little, then he nodded and agreed.

"I am also worried about her. You can take her out for relaxation. I'll take care of the company,"

Nelson suggested. The operation of the company had been very well, and the people selected were also competent. He was only worried that Aron would take this opportunity to make trouble again.

do nothing to his son. Both of his hands were flesh and blood. In order to was to deal with the company's issues. He needed to attend some activities and stop the meeting. As for the specific situations, he could only solve them by video.

Ted was

this, Ted's legs were so weak

Power was good, but many people often forgot a very important premise, that was they had have come to this if to him, he felt a little dizzy. This was not an ordinary company. It was have any problem, you can ask William for help. If either of you can't solve it, then you can ask Nelson for help. Don't turn to me unless it hearing what he said, Ted straightened up, and William, who was watching

Ted still wanted to refuse it, and even thought about how much it was possible to give this great task to William.

you have to get used to it today," said Jonas. Ted felt like sitting on pins

Ted in getting accustomed to his new identity. After arranging everything in the company with his had a little interest. The two of them checked many travel guides at home recommendation on the Internet. Most of them were about America, France and England. What was more, the scenic Melinda's attention. She just saw Spain by chance and wanted to explore the customs and culture of Spain.

"Spain?"

information. Meanwhile, Melinda had watched quite travel in the capital for two days and see if there are some interesting cities nearby," said Jonas in Melinda was that idiot. She only needed to be responsible for playing, and the other things had to be worried prepared by Melinda. However, since she was pregnant, her clothes were loose children's room, which was a shopping mall to buy clothes. Seeing this, of Spain, Jonas owned a house here. After they got off the plane, the local butler drove to pick them up. Jonas gave the butler a Melinda felt relaxed miraculously.

to the Imperial Palace and then went to other how to smile when she took photos. She was like a child, and she walked for Jonas, he was worried about her like her father. He tried his best to make Melinda experience such interests and outside. But Melinda had a weak stomach. Two days that of the cook at home, Melinda had more appetite