

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 277

Emily didn't expect that she could be pushed by Jonas. Losing her balance all of a sudden, she stepped back several steps fiercely.

Melinda looked even paler. Drops of cold sweat even slid down from her forehead.

But she was trying hard to hold back her anger.

Melinda warned herself that everything would be fine as long as she could get through the pain. She repressed the pain and looked at Emily with a little frightening expression in her eyes.

Jonas was very worried. Emily was full of schemes. He should be careful when finding this place, so he was ready to leave with Melinda.

"No, thanks." Her voice seemed to be squeezed out of her teeth, and the tenacity in her eyes made Jonas surprised. He felt that she was somewhat different.

After calming her breath, Melinda closed her eyes to avoid the terrible scenes. She looked up again, and the fierce hatred fell on Emily like a knife.

Emily had always been a person who bullied the weak and feared the strong people. Seeing that Melinda was so tough, she felt strange, but she didn't know why.

Melinda let go of Jonas and stood in front of him, looking straight at the provocative woman called Emily who came thousands of miles away.

"slapping." There was a loud voice, and Melinda waved fiercely at Emily. Five bright red finger marks appeared on Emily's right cheek, and Emily almost fell to the ground again as she lost her balance.

Not only her, but also Jonas was shocked. Was the domineering woman really Linda?

Emily covered her face with her hand and looked at her incredibly. She had never thought that Melinda would hit her directly.

Thinking of the sentence she saw the other day, she thought it made sense. She could cry, she could hate, but she must be strong. There were still a group of people waiting for her to laugh at, and to make you feel embarrassed.

And Emily was that kind of person, so she had to be strong in front of Emily.

"Melinda, you are a madman. You slapped me!" Emily covered her face and began to shout. Actually, a foreigner who didn't understand Chinese may deeply feel that Emily was the madman.

"Why don't I dare to slap you?"

Melinda looked at Emily and said in a low voice, but every word showed a strong sense, as if she was telling Emily in this way that it was difficult for to be bullied.

Looking at the scene that Melinda slapped Emily by herself, Jonas felt quite happy. When he was going to deal with Emily, he was stopped by Melinda. He had thought that she was too soft hearted, but now it seemed that just because she hadn't been pushed to the limit.

"What I did for nothing today. I just want to give you a punch for my dead child." Seeing that Emily was still surprised, Melinda said slowly.
