

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 284

There were quite a lot of people in the line. At the beginning, Melinda resisted to queue up, but later she stood aside to Jonas and waited in line obediently.

She always thought that people like Jonas would be tired of this kind of wasting time. Even in the amusement park, they might book the whole area.

But now, Jonas was doing something to tell Melinda that he was changing.

"We seem to be a little late," Jonas said as he felt sorry for her. It was the first time he had come to such a place. All he knew was that it was a popular place, but he didn't expect it to be so popular.

The two people's fingers hooked together. Melinda looked up at the people on the Ferris wheel. In fact, she could not see what was on it, but she always felt a sense of romance.

"Linda." Jonas called her name several times, but Melinda didn't respond. Looking at her staring blankly, he felt that he made a right decision tonight.

"What's wrong?" Melinda earthed to herself and felt a little embarrassed. She said that she did not want to play this but she was attracted by the Ferris wheel.

"Do you have something want to eat? Or something you want to play?" Jonas looked at the girls around him who were either holding a large cotton candy or a lollipop, or a different inflatable doll.

He suddenly felt that Melinda also needed these things.

The place was full of students. As an adult, Melinda already felt very embarrassed to come here. She felt so ashamed.

But she couldn't bear to refuse Jonas as he spoiled her so much. Finally she nodded without any hesitation.

"We are waiting in line now."

There was a long queue behind them. Melinda said hesitantly, but Jonas waved at the bodyguards hiding in the dark not far away.

The expression on Melinda face immediately changed. Two bodyguards in suits took their positions. Both of them wore a cold expression.

Many people were curious about it.

Led by Jonas, Melinda walked away quickly. She only felt that the psychological quality of the two men was really strong.

Not far from the Ferris wheel, there was a small shopping mall selling balloons. Jonas picked up a cat pattern and gave it to Melinda, who looked very alike.
