

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 288

After seeing Jerry once, Emily had many plans in her heart, but they were all up to Jerry's cooperation.

Jerry was immersed in the fact that he could inherit the family business of Gu family. Emily was good at taking advantage of people's minds, and she saw through his ambition.

She wanted to help Jerry to grab all that Jonas had in the Gu family, so he must beg her for help then. But in this case, she needed to make a good plan.

It wasn't easy for her to get out of the police station this time. Jonas had found Colin who bailed her out. Colin was in a high position, but Jonas was not a man he could deal with at will. He also warned Emily not to make trouble.

Owing to the unpleasant thing that had happened last time, Jonas was a typical office worker now. The news he reported every day and night was reported by the staff, leaving uncomfortably hard for Ted and William.

Several days later, as soon as Jonas got home, he was called to the study by Nelson, who was holding a tea pot and making a cup of tea made by Melinda. The faint fragrance of flowers pervaded the whole study, making people feel at ease.

Jonas stood there quietly, waiting for Nelson to speak.

These were his experiences accumulated over the years. Nelson had asked him to the study, either giving him orders or teaching him lessons.

"How are you getting on with Mellie recently?" Nelson said as he casted a glance at Jonas, with his right hand rubbing the head of his walking stick.

Jonas knew that what had happened to him and Melinda recently worried his family a lot. "Linda has a serious knot in her heart, but she will get better sooner or later."

"I have heard that for many times," Nelson snorted. His sharp eyes made him look like the unrelenting general.

Jonas touched his nose awkwardly. He had done nothing wrong. Every time the situation was better, Emily always ran out to make trouble. Everything went back to the beginning.

It was like a dead loop. But the good thing was that Linda was still with him after all these things.

"Do you know that there are only two days left for Mellie to celebrate her birthday?" Nelson was a little guilty when he said this. Recently he began to be confused and almost forgot it.
