

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 291

Jonas didn't know how the meeting ended, but when he walked out of the villa, he felt relieved.

His family had restricted him too much. However, when he got used to such kind of imprisonment and found a most suitable way to live, he could not help but suffer such an incident.

The so-called Gu's mansion, however, was becoming more and more strange.

Instead, he preferred to live outside with her.

He drove aimlessly on the street. Because of what happened today, he was not in the mood to go to the company. Judging from his father's attitude, not long after, Jerry would definitely be working in the company.

What position would he give him? Is it the CEO? Jonas thought ironically.

Jerry was an untimed bomb. He had said that he would take revenge on the Gu family, and now what his father had done was to lure a wolf into a house.

As such a madman, no one knew what crazy things he would do.

The atmosphere in the living room was still tense. Among them, Aron was the one who enjoyed the most. He talked with Jerry, and Aron was a man who could read people's mind with a few words.

After a comparison between Jerry and Jonas, he finally thought that Jonas was more difficult to deal with.

Jerry was sophisticated, and he cared more about things than Jonas. But it was different with Jonas. As long as Jonas wanted, he wouldn't care about anything.

Alston simply told them about Jerry's coming back to Gu family and then he spoke out his guilt. Queena looked indifferent all the time, but her heart was as cold as ice.

She had always hoped that Nelson would say something. But Nelson was more silent than anyone else.

The meeting seemed like a unilaterally speech from Alston.

As soon as Aron and his son left, Alston asked the servants to arrange the accommodation for Jerry. He also had a room in the main villa, and likewise, he picked a small villa that only belonged to him.

Alston assigned the servants who always took care of him to Jerry, and his attitude of importance was once again seen by everyone.

In this way, Jerry lived in Gu's mansion.

Queena felt that it was not a way to go on like this. The only thing she could do now was to let Jerry leave here.

"Let's talk." When Jerry was about to go back to his own small villa, he was stopped by Queena. He stopped, turned around, and looked at Queena with mockery and frightening.

Queena was taken aback for no reason, then he calmed down, looked at Jerry, and competed against each other.
