

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 292

Hearing this, Jonas was silent. Finally, he sighed helplessly. He was getting more and more confused about his father.

"Don't worry about these things. I'll handle them," Jonas said, rubbing Melinda's head with his fingers. Melinda felt sorry for him, so she just wanted to do something for him.

She touched her lower abdomen, hoping that this child could be stronger.

"Jonas, don't take these things too seriously. I think dad may have his own reason. Maybe you can have a talk with him when you get a chance,"

Melinda suggested. The atmosphere between the father and the son was very worrying. Hearing this, Jonas pursed his lips and hummed "H'm".

Because of Jerry's sudden return, the whole Gu family was in a strange atmosphere. The next morning, sitting in the dining room, seeing Jerry, Melinda felt that she suddenly lost her appetite.

Jerry was so slick. And in such a short time, he was on good terms with those servants at home. Some of them began to call him young master.

Taking a look at the people at the table, Jonas held Melinda's hand and said to her in a soft voice, "You said you wanted to eat wontons at the south of the bridge last night, didn't you? Let me take you there."

A trace of embarrassment appeared on Melinda's face, but she soon calmed down. She smiled coyly, and then looked at Nelson embarrassedly. "Grandpa, I've been a little greedy recently. I can't have breakfast with you this morning."

Nelson knew clearly that it was just an excuse used by Jonas, but he still chose not to expose it. Queena didn't get it out all of a sudden, and said, "If you want to eat wonton, just tell the servant and let them cook it."

There was no wonton this morning. Taking a look at Jonas, Melinda felt that he was really childish and thoughtful.

"I miss the taste. Jonas happens to be free today," said Melinda, defending Jonas unconsciously. Hearing what she said, Queena finally understood a little. In the end, she just told her to pay more attention to her health.

Afraid that Melinda was not paying attention, she told Jonas about it again before they left. On the contrary, sitting in his seat, Alston looked at their backs and snorted coldly.

Jerry acted very restless and carefully said, "It seems that my brother doesn't like me to eat here."

He said that in a low voice, but everyone heard it. Queena's hand stopped when she held the bowl, and then she said impolitely, "You know you are annoying, then why are you still here?"

Alston put down his chopsticks heavily, and everyone looked at him in horror.

was used to be an invisible person at home. But his sudden highness looked at the atmosphere at home, he did not have any appetite, but he still had Yulia was sad. Her father's temper suddenly changed. She didn't know what to do, and in the end, she still quietly narrow something about him. Especially the words he said to the Gu family to revenge, she was and he was too busy to take her to eat it at that time, so the wonton could old couple. The materials were all mixed by themselves. Melinda tried to make it but it was not satisfactory in the end. She simply had a myself?" Melinda said while touching her round belly. The pregnancy reaction this time

"Let's eat."

If it was before, he might force the old couple to hand in was fulfilled with simple, ordinary happiness ti make it for you next time," said Jonas, being confident that as long as it was prepared by him, Linda would like it. For the sake of his self-esteem, Melinda nodded vigorously and kept it in her heart. She was the meal, Melinda felt well and complicated mood when he went to the company. But the company was quite peaceful that day because Alston home. Dinner was finished at home. The servants were busy in cleaning the dining conversation with him. Though Nelson didn't talk seemed that she was still angry in the room. Jonas and Melinda in a better mood. He from the crack of the door. Jonas knocked on the all. He seemed to have guessed that Jonas would come to him.

when did you know

at the door and looked at the figure sitting in front of the desk with a complicated look in his eyes. After so said Alston. At that time, he did not take this child very seriously. The only thing that impressed him was that Jerry spoke in the Gu family. Then something happened. He began why didn't you let him go back at that time, but now you make such a sudden decision. Is there anything else with a strong sense of sharpness. But Alston laughed at himself. Sometimes he felt this boy they were different.

with high experience and high social status, but

The reason that Alston gave him was so ambiguous and Jonas was confused.

was wary of him and didn't trust him? Or the so-called be other him? Jerry is a bad guy. He framed others many times for