

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 294

The most obvious proof of this was that Melinda was getting thinner. And the words that he was worried that she would be harmed at home was exactly referring to Jerry.

Everyone put down their bowls and chopsticks, except Jerry. He continued to eat as if nothing had happened, as if this matter had nothing to do with him.

To be honest, he was very satisfied with the series of reactions after he moved into the Gu family. Seeing that they panicked before he did anything, Jerry was very pleased.

Alston looked stern. He often had a stern face, which made one feel harsh, and it was impossible not to feel a little frightened now.

Clenching her body a little bit, Yulia lowered her head to avoid being noticed by others. Looking at Jonas, Melinda was confused. In fact, Jonas didn't discuss this with her at all.

Nelson still didn't say anything. Being silent for a while, Alston ignored his words, as if nothing had happened.

Queena instantly stood up from her seat and said in disapproval, "Jonas, this is your home, and you are not the person who should leave."

"Mommy, this is Gu family," Jonas said with a smile. This was just the Gu family, not his family.

His home would be good as long as he had Linda. Unlike the Gu's mansion, it was oppressive and strange. Hearing this, Melinda held his hand tightly, as if to console him or tell him that she was here.

"Even so, you are not the ones who should leave,"

Queena said. Her eyes fell on Jerry, as if reminding everyone that who should leave in the room.

As if knowing nothing, Jerry put down his bowl and chopsticks, and said to Alston, "Dad, I'm full. Don't worry about the case you gave me, I'll handle it well."

He said that provocatively. Instead of leaving, he would gain a higher position in the family.

Without saying anything more, Jonas took Melinda's hand and left.

Bewildered, Melinda left with Jonas. His leaving was simple, and he just brought her alone. He lived in an apartment near the company, which was clean and tidy. There was a servant there. It seemed that Jonas had prepared it in advance.

"Jonas, are we just moving out like this?" Melinda was still in a daze. Not long ago, she had a meal at the table.

"Yes,"

Jonas said. He led Melinda to the dining room, where the lunch was served and the medicinal congee was specifically prepared for her.
